--- report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report of transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed with the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Company was unable to obtain the information necessary to complete the preparation of the Company's financial statements for the three months ended December 31, 2004 in time for filing. Such information is required in order to prepare a complete filing. As a result of this delay, the Company is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company will file the Form 10-Q within the extension period.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? X Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made:

We will report revenues for the three months ended December 31, 2004 that are approximately 85% higher than in the same period ended December 31, 2003. Revenues from our new subsidiary, Bruce Technologies, Inc., contributed to approximately 44% of the increase. As a result of the increased sales, we will also report income before income taxes for the three months ended December 31, 2004 that is approximately 219% higher than in the same period ended December 31, 2003.
