TOMBSTONE TECHNOLOGIES, INC. (A Development Stage Company) Notes to Condensed Financial Statements March 31, 2010 (Unaudited)

Note 1: Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Regulation S-K. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of the Company, the accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position as of March 31, 2010, the results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2010, and cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2010. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. There have been no updates or changes to our audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009. There is no provision for dividends for the quarter to which this quarterly report relates.

The results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Proposed Acquisition

During the three months ended March 31, 2010, the Company entered into an agreement to acquire the assets of Hunt Global Resources, Inc. ("Hunt"), a Houston based company focused on the use of new technologies to maximize the value of its natural resources projects. The completion of acquisition is contingent upon the deliverance of audited financial statements of Hunt. At this time, the Company has not closed on the acquisition. See Note 5, Subsequent Events.

During the three months ended March 31, 2010, Hunt advanced the Company funds totaling $25,028 to support operations. These funds are due on demand.

Going Concern

The Company's financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2010 have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The Company reported an accumulated deficit of $1,249,139 as of March 31, 2010. The Company recognized losses of $38,362 from its operational activities during the three months ended March 31, 2010. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

There were various other accounting standards and interpretations issued in 2010, none of which are expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, operations or cash flows.

Note 2: Convertible Promissory Notes

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company issued Convertible Promissory Notes payable to unrelated third parties totaling $100,000 with interest accruing at 8% per annum (paid quarterly) maturing twelve months from date of issuance. The notes were immediately convertible to restricted shares of common stock at $0.10 per share.

(Unaudited)

A beneficial conversion feature (difference between conversion price and the quoted stock price on the date of commitment) embedded in the convertible promissory notes was measured at $100,000 and recorded as a debt discount on the transaction date. As of December 31, 2009, $98,333 of the discount was amortized to interest expense, leaving an unamortized discount of $1,667 in the accompanying financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009.

In January 2010, all of the holders of the outstanding Convertible Promissory Notes gave conversion notice to the Company that they would convert their notes into shares of the Company's common stock. The conversion of the Convertible Promissory Notes resulted in the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of Company's common stock to the convertible promissory note holders of such notes as of January 15, 2010. After the conversion of such Convertible Promissory Notes the Company does not have any Convertible Promissory Notes outstanding.

The following is a summary of convertible promissory notes at March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009:

Stock Options

Pursuant to our Employee/Consultant Stock Option Plan, stock options generally are granted with an exercise price equal to the market price of our common stock at the date of grant. Substantially all of the options granted to employees and consultants are exercisable pursuant to an immediate vesting schedule with a maximum contractual term of 5 years. The fair value of these options is estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model which incorporates the assumptions noted in the table below. The risk-free interest rate for periods within the expected life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury bond rate in effect at the time of grant. We do not pay dividends and do not expect to do so in the future. Expected volatilities are based on the historical volatilities of appropriate industry sector index. The expected term of the options granted during 2009 is approximately 3 years calculated using the simplified method.

We use historical volatility of appropriate industry sector index as we believe it is more reflective of market conditions and a better indicator of volatility. We use the simplified calculation of expected life. If we determined that another method used to estimate expected volatility was more reasonable than our current methods, or if another method for calculating these input assumptions was prescribed by authoritative guidance, the fair value calculated for share-based awards could change significantly. Higher volatility and longer expected lives result in an increase to share-based compensation determined at the date of grant.

A summary of changes in the number of stock options outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 2010 is as follows:

	Number of Shares	Price Per Share	Price Per Share	Contract Life

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our unaudited financial statements and notes thereto included herein. In connection with, and because we desire to take advantage of, the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, we caution readers regarding certain forward looking statements in the following discussion and elsewhere in this report and in any other statement made by, or on our behalf, whether or not in future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements are statements not based on historical information and which relate to future operations, strategies, financial results or other developments. Forward looking statements are necessarily based upon estimates and assumptions that are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control and many of which, with respect to future business decisions, are subject to change. These uncertainties and contingencies can affect actual results and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward looking statements made by, or on our behalf. We disclaim any obligation to update forward-looking statements.

The independent registered public accounting firm's report on the Company's financial statements as of December 31, 2009, and for each of the years in the two-year period then ended, includes a "going concern" explanatory paragraph, that describes substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

PLAN OF OPERATIONS

At March 31, 2010, we had cash on hand of $5,067. We intend to use our cash funds to continue operations. We intend to continue to develop the business opportunities presented by our OIEPrint(TM) software. The development of the business opportunities includes continued marketing efforts and product testing over the next twelve months.

During the year ended December 31, 2009, we raised $100,000 in Convertible Notes that will mature after one year. Payments of interest at the rate of 8.0% per annum will be accrued and paid each quarter to each investor beginning June 30, 2009. During the year ended December 31, 2009, we paid interest of $4,744. The investor also has the option, based on their conversion terms, to convert to restricted shares of common stock at $0.10 per share with immediate convertibility (i.e. $2,500 = 25,000 shares.) In January 2010, all of the investors of the $100,000 Convertible Promissory Notes elected to convert their promissory notes into shares of the Company's common stock. The completion of the transaction is dependent upon the deliverance of audited financial statements of Hunt. At the time of this filing, the transaction has not closed nor have audited financial statements been received.

The transaction contemplates the issuance of shares as follows:

A) 29,000,000 shares of Common Stock of Tombstone;

C) 125,000 Class B Convertible Preferred Shares (having a conversion ratio of one preferred for 248 common Tombstone shares and subject to the common stock of Tombstone having traded at an average bid price of $7.00 for ten consecutive trading days).

In the continuance of our business operations we do not intend to purchase or sell any significant assets and we do not expect a significant change in the number of employees of the Company.

Management's assessment of the effectiveness of the small business issuer's internal control over financial reporting is as of the quarter ended March 31,

Edgar Filing: TOMBSTONE TECHNOLOGIES, INC. - Form 10-Q

2010. We believe that internal control over financial reporting is effective. We have not identified any, current material weaknesses considering the nature and extent of our current operations and any risks or errors in financial reporting under current operations.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

This quarterly report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2010, that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
