Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 3, 2012, Knoll, Inc. (the Company) completed an amendment to its existing credit facility, dated June 29, 2007 (the Existing Credit Agreement), whereby the Existing Credit Agreement was amended and restated in its entirety by that certain Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of February 3, 2012, among the Company, the domestic subsidiaries of the Company, Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent, Swing Line Lender, and an L/C Issuer, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as Joint Lead Arrangers and Joint Book Managers, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Syndication Agent, and the other lenders party thereto (the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement).

The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement provides for a $450 million revolving credit facility that matures in five years, with the option to increase the size of the facility by up to an additional $200 million, subject to the satisfaction of certain terms and conditions. As of February 3, 2012 (the closing of the transaction), there was approximately $260 million outstanding under the facility. Borrowings under the revolving credit facility may be repaid at any time, but no later than February 3, 2017. The Company retains the right to terminate or reduce the size of the facility at any time.

Interest on revolving credit loans will accrue, at the Company's election, at (i) the Eurocurrency Rate (as defined in the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement), plus additional percentage points based on the Company's leverage ratio or (ii) the Base Rate (a rate based on the higher of (a) the prime rate announced from time-to-time by Bank of America, N.A., (b) the Federal Reserve System's federal funds rate, plus .50% or (c) the Eurocurrency Rate plus 1.00%; Base Rate is defined in detail in the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement), plus additional percentage points based on the Company's leverage ratio.

The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement requires the Company to comply with various affirmative and negative covenants, including without limitation (i) covenants to maintain a minimum specified interest coverage ratio and maximum specified net leverage ratio, and (ii) covenants that prevent or restrict the Company's ability to pay dividends, engage in certain mergers or acquisitions, make certain investments or loans, incur future indebtedness, engage in sale-leaseback transactions, alter its capital structure or line of business, prepay subordinated indebtedness, engage in certain transactions with affiliates and sell stock or assets.

Repayments under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement can be accelerated by the lenders upon the occurrence of certain events of default, including, without limitation, a failure to pay any principal, interest or other amounts in respect of loans when due, breach by the Company (or its subsidiaries) of any of the covenants or representations contained in the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement or related loan documents, failure of the Company (or its material subsidiaries) to pay any amounts owed with respect to other significant indebtedness of the Company or such subsidiary, or a bankruptcy event with respect to the Company or any of its material subsidiaries.

The indebtedness incurred under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement is secured by substantially all of the Company's tangible and intangible assets, including, without limitation, the Company's intellectual property. The Company's direct and indirect wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries, Knoll Overseas, Inc., Spinneybeck Enterprises, Inc., Edelman Leather, LLC and Knoll Middle East, LLC, have also guaranteed the Company's obligations under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement and pledged substantially all of their tangible and intangible assets as security for their obligations under such guarantee.
