Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 30, 2013, in connection with the closing of the acquisition (the "Acquisition") of all of the outstanding common units of EF&A Funding, L.L.C., d/b/a Alliant Capital LLC, a Michigan limited liability company ("Alliant"), Alliant became a wholly owned subsidiary of Ares Commercial Real Estate Corporation, a Maryland corporation. Alliant changed its name to ACRE Capital LLC ("ACRE Capital") following the closing of the Acquisition and is a party to the Fifth Amended and Restated Mortgage and Warehousing Security Agreement, dated as of April 17, 2010, with Bank of America, N.A., as Credit Agent, and the lenders party thereto (as amended by the First Amendment, dated June 30, 2010, the Second Amendment, dated June 30, 2011, the Third Amendment, dated June 20, 2012, the Fourth Amendment, dated August 1, 2012, and the Fifth Amendment, dated June 28, 2013, collectively, the "Prior Bank of America Warehousing Agreement").

On September 5, 2013, ACRE Capital entered into a Sixth Amendment to the Prior Bank of America Warehousing Facility (as amended by such Sixth Amendment, the "Bank of America Warehousing Agreement"), pursuant to which Bank of America, among other things, consented to the Acquisition. The Bank of America Warehousing Agreement provides for a committed warehouse line of up to $100 million (which includes a $20 million accordion feature) that matures on January 31, 2014. The Bank of America Warehousing Agreement provides ACRE Capital with the ability to fund its Fannie Mae and FHA loans. Advances are made at 100% of the loan balance and, subject to certain limited exceptions, borrowings under the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement bear interest at a rate derived from LIBOR for a one-month interest period plus an applicable margin of 1.6%. As of August 30, 2013, ACRE Capital had approximately $14.5 million of borrowings outstanding under this warehouse line and corresponding loans held for sale.

The obligations of ACRE Capital under the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement are secured by a lien in all of ACRE Capital's right, title and interest in all mortgage loans financed by this facility from time to time and related mortgages and security agreements evidencing or securing those mortgage loans ("Pledged Loans"), all mortgage-backed securities that are created in whole or in part on the basis of Pledged Loans and certain other related collateral as further described in the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement.

The Bank of America Warehousing Agreement contains certain affirmative and negative covenants that are binding on ACRE Capital (which are in some cases subject to exceptions), including, but not limited to, restrictions on the ability of ACRE Capital to undertake certain fundamental changes such as mergers, amendments to its operating agreement, liquidations, dissolutions or dispositions of substantial portions of its assets or businesses; to issue, sell, assign, pledge or otherwise encumber or dispose of any membership interest; to redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire or retire any of its membership interest; to incur, create, assume, become liable for or permit to exist any indebtedness; to make certain distributions; to make payments on subordinated indebtedness; to incur, create, assume or permit to exist any lien; to alter the nature of its principal business; or to make certain investments.

In addition, the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement requires ACRE Capital to comply with certain financial covenants, including:

- a tangible net worth covenant;
- a leverage ratio covenant;

- a liquidity covenant;
- a servicing portfolio covenant;
- a delinquencies covenant; and
- a minimum deposits covenant.

The Bank of America Warehousing Agreement contains customary events of default (which are in some cases subject to certain exceptions, thresholds, notice requirements and grace periods), including, but not limited to, nonpayment of principal or interest, failure to observe or perform covenants, breaches of representations and warranties, cross-defaults with certain other agreements or indebtedness, final judgments or orders, certain bankruptcy-related events or other relief proceedings or a Change of Control or Management (as defined in the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement).

The foregoing description is only a summary of certain material provisions of the Bank of America Warehousing Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to a copy of such agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7 and by this reference incorporated herein.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information required by Item 2.03 contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, ACRE Capital has a $105 million uncommitted facility with Fannie Mae under Fannie Mae's ASAP funding program. After approval of certain loan documents, Fannie Mae will fund loans by advancing 99% of the loan balance. These advances must be used to repay the primary warehouse line. Borrowings under this program currently bear interest at the average 30-day LIBOR, with a minimum LIBOR rate of 35 basis points, plus 140 basis points. As of August 30, 2013, ACRE Capital had no borrowings outstanding under this program. There is no expiration date for this facility.

The Fannie Mae facility described above contains a cross-default provision, such that if a default occurs under any of ACRE Capital's debt agreements, it will constitute an event of default under the Fannie Mae facility and a breach of ACRE Capital's DUS lender agreements with Fannie Mae. As of August 30, 2013, ACRE Capital was in material compliance with all of its debt agreements.

As an approved Fannie Mae Delegated Underwriting and Servicing (DUS) program lender, ACRE Capital shares risk with Fannie Mae for a portion of the losses that may result from a borrower's default.
