Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

On July 31, 2008, Primoris Corporation, a Nevada corporation (“Primoris”), was merged with and into the Company pursuant to the terms of that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger (“Merger”), dated as of February 19, 2008 and amended on May 15, 2008 (“Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, Primoris and certain stockholders of Primoris, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and is incorporated herein by reference. As a result of the Merger, the Primoris stockholders, as well as two of Primoris’s foreign managers pursuant to certain termination agreements, received in the aggregate (i) 24,094,800 shares of Common Stock plus (ii) the right to receive 2,500,000 additional shares of Common Stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 (for an aggregate possible total for the two years of 5,000,000 shares of Common Stock) if the Company achieves specified EBITDA milestones. At the closing, each share of Primoris stock held by each Primoris stockholder was converted into 5,400 shares of Common Stock, for a total of 23,587,200 shares of Common Stock, and the foreign managers received a total of 507,600 shares of Common Stock pursuant to the termination agreements. Each of the Reporting Persons other than Combustion and R. Newnham (the “Primoris Holders”), was a Primoris stockholder prior to the closing of the Merger.

Combustion was one of the two foreign managers referenced above. As a result of the merger, the two foreign managers received their respective shares of Common Stock (Combustion received 437,400 of such shares) in connection with and consideration of their entering into certain termination agreements with Primoris and the Company. Under the terms of Combustion’s termination agreement (“Termination Agreement”), Combustion agreed to terminate upon the closing of the Merger a certain put and call agreement it entered into with Primoris and also agreed to surrender certain shares of Class B Non-Voting Stock it owned in Born Heaters Canada ULC, an Alberta corporation, a subsidiary of the Company. In addition, in connection with and in consideration of entering into the Termination Agreement, upon the closing of the Merger, Combustion received $989,354 from Born Heaters Canada ULC.

Thus, pursuant to the foregoing, the Primoris Holders acquired their shares of Common Stock of the Company in consideration of the conversion of their shares of common stock of Primoris for shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. Additionally, Combustion received its shares of Common Stock of the Company in consideration of it entering into the Termination Agreement.

None of the Reporting Persons beneficially owned any shares of Common Stock prior to the closing of the Merger.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

B. Pratt is the direct and beneficial owner of 14,072,400 shares of Common Stock of the Company owned by him, the beneficial owner of 81,000 shares of Common Stock owned by his wife, Barbara Pratt and effective as of July 31, 2008, B. Pratt received three (3) year revocable proxies from each of the other Reporting Persons, other than Barbara Pratt (collectively the "Proxy Grantors") expiring on July 31, 2011 ("Proxies") in favor of him to vote, or to execute and deliver written consents, or otherwise act with respect to, all shares of the Company's Common Stock then owned or thereafter acquired by each of the Proxy Grantors. With the Proxies, B. Pratt has the power to vote approximately 75.1% of the Common Stock of the Company, and for purposes of the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers' Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq"), the Company will be deemed a Controlled Company as defined below. A form of the Proxy that was granted by each of the Proxy Grantors is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The underlying purpose for the Proxy Grantors granting the Proxies in favor of B. Pratt was to enable the Company to take advantage of certain exemptions from the Nasdaq listing standards available to Controlled Companies. The Common Stock of the Company is listed on the Nasdaq Global Market. The Nasdaq Rules require public companies with securities listed on the Nasdaq to have (i) a board of directors consisting of a majority of independent directors, (ii) directors recommended to the board of directors by an independent nominating committee or the independent directors of the company, and (iii) executive officer compensation recommended by an independent compensation committee or the independent directors of the company. However, these requirements do not apply if the public company is a Controlled Company.

A "Controlled Company" is a company listed on the Nasdaq for which more than fifty percent of the voting power is held by an individual, a group or another company. B. Pratt, Barbara Pratt and the Proxy Grantors collectively have the power to vote approximately 75.1% of the Common Stock of the Company. Brian Pratt, through the shares of Common Stock held by him and his wife and with the Proxies, currently has the power to vote approximately 75.1% of the Common Stock of the Company. As a result, the group formed by B. Pratt, Barbara Pratt and the Proxy Grantors comprise a group in which more than fifty percent of the voting power of the Company is held, making the Company a Controlled Company under the Nasdaq Rules.

Additionally, the Proxy Grantors desired to consolidate their voting power in B. Pratt so as to allow B. Pratt to more efficiently run and operate the Company.

As noted in Item 6 below, on July 31, 2008, B. Pratt, J. Schauerman, the Summers Trust and T. Healy entered into a voting agreement with Eric Rosenfeld, a founding member of the Company. The voting agreement provides that each of the parties thereto will vote their shares of Common Stock in favor of the election of such persons as directors of the Company in specified classes in all elections prior to the annual meeting that will be held in 2011. Directors B. Pratt, Peter Moerbeek, J. Schauerman, Stephen Cook and Thomas Tucker were designees of the former Primoris stockholders, and directors Eric Rosenfeld and David Sgro were designees of Mr. Rosenfeld. During the three-year period following the closing of the Merger, Mr. Rosenfeld will be entitled to appoint a person to be an observer at board meetings of the Company and to receive all information distributed to the board members while acting in such capacity. During such period, Mr. Rosenfeld may appoint the person then serving as observer for election to the board in place of its then-designee and the then-designee shall serve as observer for the balance of the period. Arnaud Ajdler, who was one of the Company's directors immediately prior to the Merger, is initially serving as observer. It is anticipated that at some point during the term being served by Mr. Sgro as a director, Mr. Ajdler will be designated to replace Mr. Sgro as a director and Mr. Sgro will thereafter serve as observer for the balance of the three-year period.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, following the Merger, the board of directors of the Company is required to declare and pay annual dividends on the Common Stock at a rate of not less than $0.10 per share; provided, however, that the board of directors shall not declare any such dividend unless, at the time of declaration, there is adequate surplus for such declaration under the Delaware General Corporation Law or if the board of directors, in the exercise of their business judgment, believes that it would be prudent to cancel or modify the dividend payment.

As noted in Item 3 above, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the former Primoris stockholders and the two foreign managers have the right to receive 2,500,000 additional shares of Common Stock for each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 2008 and 2009 if the Company achieves specified EBITDA (as defined in the Merger Agreement) milestones. Therefore, the Primoris Holders, Combustion and R. Newnham may receive their proportionate number of these shares of Common Stock if the Company achieves the specified EBITDA milestones as specified in the Merger Agreement.

Except as set forth in this Item 4, none of the Reporting Persons have any present plans or proposals that relate to or that would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D of the Securities

Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (“Exchange Act”). However, each reserves the right to formulate such plans or proposals, and to take such action with respect to any or all of such matters and any other matters as they may determine.
