Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 5, 2009, The Orchard together with certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) entered into a $3 million secured revolving credit arrangement with Peninsula Bank Business Funding, a division of the Private Bank of the Peninsula (the “Bank”). The amount of such revolving credit arrangement is subject to increase to $4 million under certain circumstances. The Company may borrow, repay and reborrow under that revolving credit facility at any time an aggregate amount that does not exceed 80% of the Company’s eligible accounts. Outstanding advances made under that facility bear interest at prime plus 4% per annum, provided that the minimum amount of interest shall not be less than 8% per annum and the maximum amount of interest shall not be greater than 10% per annum. The Company is required to pay a minimum quarterly interest of $20,000. The Company’s line of credit is collateralized by its accounts receivable and inventory and requires the Company to comply with customary affirmative and negative covenants principally relating to use and disposition of assets and to the satisfaction of financial covenants (which include meeting quarterly net income/loss projections and monthly cash projections). In addition, the credit arrangement contains customary events of default. Upon the occurrence of an uncured event of default, among other things, the Bank may declare that all amounts owing under the credit arrangement are due and payable. The revolving credit facility expires on February 4, 2010. Each of The Orchard’s direct and indirect subsidiaries that is not a borrower with The Orchard under this revolving credit arrangement has guaranteed the obligations of the Company under that arrangement. As of the date of this report, there is no amount outstanding under this revolving credit arrangement.

A copy of the Loan and Security Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1. The foregoing summary of the Loan and Security Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Loan and Security Agreement set forth in Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report, which is incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.
