ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is made by the Company pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Listing Rules.

The Board notes that certain recent press articles in the PRC have reported that the net profit and net asset of Xiamen Airlines as disclosed in the A Shares Prospectus of the Company and in the Announcement of Xiamen C&D Inc. are different.

The Board would like to confirm that the information contained in the Articles has not been reviewed or authorized for publication by the Company; that the difference in the net profit and net asset of Xiamen Airlines as disclosed by the Company and Xiamen C&D Inc. is because the Company was required to make adjustment to the financial statements of Xiamen Airlines for financial year 2002 according to the Accounting Regulations for Business Enterprises when preparing the Company's financial statements for the financial year 2002, which was included in the A Shares Prospectus.

An announcement similar to this announcement is made by China Southern Airlines Company Limited (the "Company") in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") pursuant to a request from the Shanghai Stock Exchange. Pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules"), the Company is making this announcement.

Reference is made to certain recent press articles in the PRC (the "Articles") which report that the net profit and net assets of Xiamen Airlines Company Limited (the "Xiamen Airlines") as disclosed in the prospectus of the Company (the "A Shares Prospectus") in connection with the listing of its A shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange on July 25, 2003 and in the Announcement (as defined below) by Xiamen C&D Inc. ("Xiamen C&D Inc.") are different.

The Company owns 60% equity interest in Xiamen Airlines, whose principal business is that of civil aviation. Xiamen C&D Inc. is an investment company with its shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, and it held 40% equity interest in Xiamen Airlines before such equity interest was sold in June 2003.

The board of directors (the "Board") of the Company would like to confirm as follows:

1. The information contained in the Articles has not been reviewed or authorized for publication by the Company.
2. Xiamen Airlines adopted the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and the Accounting Standards for Civil Aviation issued by the China Aviation Administration of China in preparing its financial statements.

In connection with the listing of the Company's A shares on the Stock Exchange of Shanghai in July 25, 2003, the Company was required to adopt, among other accounting policies, the Accounting Regulations for Business Enterprises, issued by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC in preparing its financial statements. Pursuant to the adoption of these accounting policies, the Company made various adjustments to its financial statements, including but not limited to, the calculation of depreciation of aircraft and engines, depreciation and the repair of rotables, provision for major overhauls on aircraft and deferred taxation (the "Adjustments"). The details of such Adjustments as made by the Company were disclosed in the A Shares Prospectus.

Given the different accounting principles adopted Xiamen Airlines and the Company as described above, the financial statements of Xiamen Airlines and the Company were different in various aspects, including but not limited to the Adjustments. The Accounting Regulations for Business Enterprises required the Company to make adjustments to the financial statements of Xiamen Airlines according to the principles of Accounting Regulations for Business Enterprises in preparing the financial statements of the Company for financial year 2002, which was included in the A Shares Prospectus.

3. Xiamen C&D Inc. issued an announcement (the "Announcement") in May 2003 that disclosed the net profit and net asset of Xiamen Airlines, based on the financial statements of Xiamen Airlines for the financial year 2002 which were not adjusted according to the Accounting Regulations for Business Enterprises.

As a result, the net profit and net asset of Xiamen Airlines as disclosed in the Announcement of Xiamen C&D Inc. and in the financial statements of the Company for the financial year 2002 as found in the A Shares Prospectus are different.

The Board will continue to closely monitor future development in respect of the above matter and will ensure that the Company will be in compliance with its relevant obligations under the applicable rules and regulations, including the Listing Rules.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
