Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Crown Holdings, Inc. (the Company) intends to offer 310 million in aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes due 2024, issued by Crown European Holdings S.A., a subsidiary of the Company, and $350 million in aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes due 2026, issued by Crown Americas LLC and Crown Americas Capital Corp. V, subsidiaries of the Company. Both sets of notes will be unconditionally guaranteed by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the offering, together with other available funds, to repay a portion of its term loan facility, to pay fees and expenses associated with the offering of the notes and for general corporate purposes.

The notes will be issued through a private placement and resold by initial purchasers to qualified institutional buyers under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and to non-U.S. persons outside the United States under Regulation S. The notes will not be registered under the Securities Act and cannot be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements. This does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security in any jurisdiction in which such offer or sale would be unlawful.

Other important factors that could cause the statements made in this Form 8-K or the actual results of operations or financial condition of the Company to differ include, without limitation, that the note offering is subject to market conditions and a number of other conditions and approvals and the final terms may vary substantially as a result of market and other conditions. There can be no assurance that the note offering will be completed as described herein or at all.
