Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 11, 2016, The Greenbrier Companies, Inc. (the Registrant or Greenbrier ) and Astra Rail Management GmbH ( Astra, Greenbrier and Astra are referred to herein collectively as the Parties ), through wholly owned subsidiaries, entered into definitive agreements for the formation of a joint venture (the Joint Venture ) of the Parties Europe-based freight railcar businesses. The Joint Venture will include all European freight railcar operations of Greenbrier and Astra, and will be controlled by Greenbrier as owner of approximately seventy-five percent of equity interests, with Astra owning approximately twenty-five percent. Upon closing, the combined enterprise will offer an expanded manufacturing platform in Europe with greater scale and efficiency and the capability to serve growth opportunities in new and growing railcar markets.

The Parties entered into a Joint Venture Investment Agreement (the Investment Agreement ) pursuant to which each Party will contribute assets in exchange for their ownership interests in the Joint Venture. Pursuant to the Investment Agreement, Greenbrier, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Greenbrier Europe B.V., will contribute to a newly formed Dutch (BV) holding company 100% of its interests in Greenbrier Germany GmbH and Wagony Swidnica S.A. ( Wagony Swidnica ), including Wagony Swidnica 's wholly owned subsidiaries, Zaklad Transportu Kolejowego Siarkopol sp. z o.o. and Zaklad Naprawczy Taboru Kolejowego Olawa sp. z o.o., together with all their associated assets and certain liabilities, intellectual property and employees. Greenbrier will pay Astra 60 million as additional consideration in respect of Greenbrier 's controlling interest in the Joint Venture, with 30 million to be paid at closing and the remaining 30 million (plus interest at five percent per annum) to be paid twelve months after closing. Astra will contribute its railcar manufacturing facilities in Arad, Severin and Caracal, Romania and its Slovakian affiliate company, together with all associated assets and certain liabilities, intellectual property and employees.

The Investment Agreement contains customary terms, conditions, representations and warranties, including representations and warranties regarding each Party 's respective freight railcar business and the assets contributed to the Joint Venture or otherwise to be operated by the Joint Venture after the closing.

The Investment Agreement also contemplates that at closing, Greenbrier and Astra will enter into a Shareholders Agreement relating to the relationship between Greenbrier and Astra as shareholders of the Joint Venture, and that Greenbrier will provide a Guarantee in connection with the 30 million to be paid to Astra twelve months after the closing.

The Company issued the attached press release dated October 13, 2016 announcing the Company 's European freight car transaction.
