Net financial income increased by 21.9% compared to the second quarter of 2015, mainly due to a greater intermediation with the private sector, whereas it registered a decrease of 15.2% during the quarter as a consequence of lower gains resulting from the public bonds portfolio.

In terms of activity, the private sector loan portfolio, net of allowance for loan losses, totaled AR$ 71.1 billion, increasing by 42.4% compared with the third quarter of 2015 and by 8% during the quarter.

BBVA Francés reached a cumulative net income of AR$ 3.1 billion as of September 30, 2016. During the third quarter, the Bank registered a gain of AR$ 933.9 million, showing a slight decrease compared with the same quarter of 2015 and with the previous quarter.

Net financial income grew by 21.9% compared with the third quarter of 2015, mainly due to higher gains derived from the intermediation with the private sector and foreign exchange difference, which was partially offset by lower incomes originated by the public bond portfolio and higher financial expenses. Compared with the previous quarter, it registered a decline of 15.2% mainly due to the impact of the minimum cash requirement and lower income originated by the public bond portfolio, mainly by the Bogar 20 bond.

Provisions for loan losses increased compared to the third quarter of 2015 due to the higher volume of lending and the deterioration of the loan portfolio, whereas it decreased compared to the previous quarter, mainly due to an improvement in collection efforts and a lower deterioration in the loan portfolio.

Net income from services registered increases of 36.5% and 28.2% compared to the same quarter of 2015 and to the previous quarter, respectively.

Administrative expenses also increased 44.2% and 7.3%, respectively, in the periods under analysis.

Finally, it is important to mention that the previous quarter reflected a higher rate of income tax, mainly due to the fiscal adjustment of provisions and the fiscal revaluation of the Bogar 20 bond. During the third quarter of 2016 a new fiscal adjustment on the Bogar 20 was registered.

Net financial income increased by 21.9% compared with the third quarter of 2015, whereas it decreased 15.2% compared with the previous quarter.

Financial income arising from the intermediation with the private sector increased by 38.4% compared with the third quarter of 2015, mainly due to both a higher volume of lending as well as higher interest rates. In addition, income from the CER adjustment and the foreign exchange difference also registered growth, these were partially offset by 10.1% decrease in the gains derived from the public bond portfolio.

The quarter variation reflected, in the private sector, a decline in assets interest rates, moreover it also registered the impact of the increase in the cash minimum requirement and lower gains coming from the public bond portfolio, mainly the Bogar 20 bond.

Financial expenses grew 43.8% compared with the same quarter of 2015 and decreased 6.4% compared to the previous quarter, mainly due to a decline in the interest rates.

The public bond portfolio is valued at mark-to-market its total public bonds portfolio; consequently such income includes the unrealized losses/gains from variations in the valuations of the portfolio, or at amortized cost, accordingly.

The Central Bank bills and notes portfolio is also valued at mark-to-market or at amortized cost.

On the other hand, other fixed income securities are valued at cost plus the internal rate of returns (IRR).

It is important to mention that the results are classified as (i) those recorded as interest margin, which correspond to the accrual of each bond at the internal rate of returns and (ii) those recorded in financial operations, this line item includes the variation in market prices as well as the result originated by sales in the period.

The resulting income interest margin registered an increase of 16.3% compared to the same quarter of 2015, whereas it declined 18.8% compared to the previous quarter, such variations are mainly related to the portfolio volume.

The bills and notes issued by the Central Bank showed lower income due to both, the impact of a lower rate as well as a lower portfolio volume as a result of an increase in the loan portfolio and the impact of a higher cash minimum requirement.

The result of financial operations registered negative variations compared with the same quarter of 2015 and with the previous quarter, mainly due to the Bogar 20 bond.

Net income from services increased by 36.5% and 28.2% compared with the same quarter of 2015 and with the previous quarter, respectively.

In the year-to-year comparison, growth was based on higher fees for credit cards, fees associated with deposits accounts and foreign trade operations as well as fees generated by capital markets advisory work.

Such growth was partially offset by an increase in service charge expenses related to promotions associated with the LATAM Pass kilometers program.

During the third quarter, the impact of the price was reflected, mainly in fees related to deposit accounts, credit cards and safety boxes.

As of September 1, 2016, financial entities may not charge fees for insurance related to the retail lending activity.

The Bank s portfolio of BCRA bills and notes showed a decrease, both during the period under analysis and in the last twelve months, as a consequence of the liquidity policy implemented by the Bank, reflecting a higher demand of credits and the higher minimum cash requirements.

As of September 30, 2016, the public sector s National Government assets represented 2.6% of the Bank s total assets. Total exposure to the BCRA s bills and notes net of holdings linked to reverse repo transactions, represented 7.2% of the Bank s total assets.

Total exposure to the public sector includes public debt of the National Government through public securities (bonds and bills from the treasury) and guaranteed loans, as well as the BCRA s bills and notes.
