Agreement and Plan of Merger

On September 21, 2017, Kuraray Co., Ltd. ( Kuraray ), Kuraray Holdings U.S.A., Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Kuraray ( Parent ), KJ Merger Sub, Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ( Merger Sub ), and Calgon Carbon Corporation (the Company ) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger ), with the Company to be the surviving corporation in the Merger (the Surviving Corporation ) as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Company common stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to $21.50, except for each outstanding share of Company common stock held in treasury by the Company or owned directly or indirectly by Kuraray, which will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and retired and will cease to exist and except for shares in respect of which dissenters' rights are validly asserted.

The parties are targeting a closing by the end of December 2017, which will be subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary closing conditions, including, among other things: (1) the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders; (2) the absence of certain legal impediments preventing the consummation of the Merger; (3) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and other competition laws; (4) the approval of the Merger by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States; (5) the expiration or waiver by the United States Department of State of the applicable prior notice period under the agency's International Traffic in Arms Regulations; and (6) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties and the compliance of the parties with their respective covenants, subject to customary qualifications including with respect to materiality.

Each of the Company, Kuraray, Parent and Merger Sub has made certain customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The Company's covenants and agreements include, among other things: (1) subject to certain conditions, to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger; and (2) not to solicit or initiate discussions with third parties regarding alternative transactions and to respond to proposals regarding such alternative transactions only in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Kuraray. The Merger Agreement further provides that in certain circumstances, including if the Company terminates the Merger Agreement in order to enter into an alternative transaction, the Company would be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $33,200,000. As soon as practicable after the Merger, Kuraray will take the necessary actions to delist the Company's common stock from the New York Stock Exchange and to deregister the Company's common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties with respect to the transactions described therein, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business, or operational information about the parties. The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed among those parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures among those parties. Instead of establishing matters as facts, the representations and warranties may have been made to allocate risks contractually among the parties, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts. Furthermore, those representations and warranties may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on representations, warranties, covenants, or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties.
