New Debt Arrangements

On October 18, 2018, Quanex entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement among Quanex; the lenders party thereto (the Lenders ); and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ( Wells Fargo ), as agent (in such capacity, the Agent ) for the Lenders (the Credit Agreement ), for the purpose of establishing a $325 million revolving credit facility (the New Credit Facility ).

The New Credit Facility is secured, in whole or in part, by substantially all of the non-real estate property and assets of Quanex and its domestic subsidiaries and by 65% of the voting equity interests in Quanex's first tier foreign subsidiaries, and is guaranteed, in whole or in part, by substantially all of the Company's domestic subsidiaries.

Initial total borrowings of $205 million under the New Credit Facility were used to (a) refinance certain existing indebtedness of Quanex and its subsidiaries (the Refinancing ), and (b) make payment of fees, commissions, and expenses in connection with the Refinancing and the Company's entry into the New Credit Facility.

Payoff and Termination of Prior Debt Arrangement

On October 18, 2018, in connection with its entry into the New Credit Facility, Quanex terminated its existing $450 million credit facility comprising a $150 million Term Loan A and revolving credit facility of up to an aggregate principal amount of $300 million among Quanex; the lenders party thereto; and Wells Fargo as agent for the lenders thereunder (the Prior Credit Facility ). As a result of this termination, Quanex and its subsidiaries have no further obligations under the Prior Credit Facility. The termination of the Prior Credit Facility and the payment or refinancing of any and all outstanding amounts due thereunder were conditions precedent to the closing of the New Credit Facility. In connection with the termination of the Prior Credit Agreements, Quanex repaid a total of $214,994,224.42.

Credit Agreement

The Credit Agreement evidencing the New Credit Facility is a five-year revolving credit facility of up to an aggregate principal amount of $325 million. Pursuant to the Credit Agreement, among other things:

- (a) there is a sublimit up to $20 million for letters of credit;
- (b) there is a sublimit up to $15 million for swingline loans;

- (c) customary base rate and LIBOR rate interest options are available, in each case, plus applicable margins set at various pricing levels, with a range of from 25 bps to 100 bps for loans priced at the base rate and 125 bps to 200 bps for loans priced at the LIBOR rate;

- (d) there are customary representations and warranties, affirmative covenants, negative covenants, and provisions governing an event of default (including acceleration of payment in connection with Quanex's failure to pay all or any portion of any obligations, principal, or any amount payable under a letter of credit);
- (e) there are financial covenants requiring Quanex to maintain (a) a consolidated leverage ratio not exceeding 3.25 to 1.00 (with the maximum ratio amount subject to an optional 0.25x increase for four quarters following the consummation of a permitted acquisition) ; and (b) a minimum interest coverage ratio of at least 2.25 to 1.00. Each of the covenants are measured as of the last day of each fiscal quarter;
- (f) there are mandatory prepayment provisions customary for revolving credit facilities, and subject to certain conditions, customary optional prepayment provisions available without premium or penalty; and
- (g) with certain limited exceptions, subsequently acquired or formed direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries will be required to join in the New Credit Facility as guarantors and pledge substantially all of their non-real estate assets to secure all or a specified portion of the New Credit Facility obligations.

The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Credit Agreement were made only for purposes of the Credit Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Credit Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by those contracting parties. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Credit Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Credit Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties, and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of any of the parties to the Credit Agreement or any of their respective stockholders, subsidiaries, or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date the Credit Agreement is entered into, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the public disclosures of Quanex.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by reference.
