Other Events

On August 29, 2008, iMergent, Inc. (the "Company") and the State of Florida (the "State") agreed to a Settlement Agreement ( Judgment ) in a case entitled, State of Florida Office of the Attorney General vs. iMergent, Inc. and StoresOnline, Inc. The Judgment stemmed from an investigation commenced in 2006 and an action originally filed in 2007 and then amended and re-filed in 2008 by the Attorney General of the State claiming the Company sold a business opportunity and otherwise made sales in violation of certain consumer protection statutes.

In connection with the Judgment, the Company has agreed to pay fees totaling $125,000. The Company has also agreed that it will refund any customers within the State who may file claims within thirty (30) days of entry of the Judgment. The Company also has agreed to refund claimants who have previously filed a claim to either the Company or the State. The State has provided the names of all complainants who have contacted the State. The Company has also agreed to refund up to $250,000 in claims made over the next eighteen (18) months from purchasers who can prove with documentation that there has been a misrepresentation made to them and that the customer could not make the product work. There is no finding that the Company is a seller of a business opportunity.

In addition, the Company agreed to certain actions intended to clarify the business practices of the Company. The Judgment does not otherwise limit the Company's ability to conduct business in the State.
