The stockholders having approved all matters submitted to the vote of the stockholders at a Special Meeting of Stockholders held on October 26, 2001 (the "Special Meeting"), Curtiss-Wright Corporation (the "Corporation") has authorized (i) an aggregate of 22,500,000 shares of common stock, consisting of 11,250,000 shares of Common Stock ("Common Stock") and 11,250,000 shares of Class B Common Stock ("Class B Common Stock", and together with the Common Stock, the "Company Common Stock"), and (ii) an aggregate of 650,000 shares of preferred stock (the "Preferred Stock"). The par value of each share of Company Common Stock shall be $1.00 and the par value of each share of Preferred Stock shall be $0.01.

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

The relative rights, powers, preferences, qualifications, limitations and restrictions of the Corporation's capital stock are as follows:

Company Common Stock

The Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are identical in all respects except as otherwise expressly described below.

(a) Cash Dividends. Subject to the rights and preferences of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, the holders of Company Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available therefor at such times and in such per share amounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Whenever a cash dividend is paid on the Company Common Stock, the same amount shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(b) Stock Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in shares of Company Common Stock, such stock dividend may be declared and paid only as follows: only Common Stock may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only Class B Common Stock may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock. Whenever a stock dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of shares shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(c) Property Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in rights to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation (a "rights dividend"), then: (i) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Common Stock ("Equivalent Shares")) or Class B Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Class B Common Stock ("Equivalent Class B Shares")) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then only rights to acquire Common Stock or Equivalent Shares may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only rights to acquire Class B Common Stock or Equivalent Class B Shares may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock; and (ii) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Common Stock (or Equivalent Shares) or Class B Common Stock (or Equivalent Class B Shares) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then the Board of Directors of the Corporation may pay such dividend of rights to the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in such manner as the Board of Directors may determine. Whenever any property dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of rights, securities or other property shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(d) Stocks Splits, Subdivisions and Combinations. The Corporation will not subdivide, reclassify or combine any class of Company Common Stock without at the same time making a proportionate subdivision, reclassification or combination of the other class.

(e) Voting. The holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall vote together as a single class in all matters requiring the vote of holders of Company Common Stock with each share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock having one vote, except that (i) the holders of each class shall vote as a separate class when required by law to do so and (ii) the holders of Company Common Stock shall vote in respect of directors as specified below.

With respect to the election of directors, the holders of Class B

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors (the Class B Common Stock, together with such other shares, the "Voting B Shares"), will be entitled to elect a number of directors that equals 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) (the "Class B Directors"). In the election of Class B Directors, each share of Class B Common Stock shall have one vote. The holders of Common Stock voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock for the election of directors (the Common Stock, together with such other shares, the "Voting Shares") will be entitled to elect the remaining members of the Board of Directors (the "Common Stock Directors"). In the election of Common Stock Directors, each share of Common Stock shall have one vote. The term "Special Voting Rights" means the different voting rights of the holders of Common Stock and the holders of Class B Common Stock with respect to the election of the applicable percentage of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors as described above.

The initial Common Stock Director shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation and the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Common Stock Director at the next annual meeting.

The initial Class B Directors shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation and the holders of Class B Common Stock shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Class B Directors at the next annual meeting.

Any vacancy in a Common Stock directorship created by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause may be filled by the vote of the majority of the remaining Common Stock Directors, and any vacancy in a Class B directorship created by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause may be filled by the vote of majority of the remaining Class B Directors. If there are no remaining directors in a particular class, the vacancy shall be filled by the stockholders entitled to vote for such class. If the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated, the vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of directors, regardless of any quorum requirements. A director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors will have the same remaining term as that of the predecessor director.

Unless the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated, all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated between Common Stock Directors and Class B Directors, such that at all times the number of Class B Directors shall be 80% of the authorized number of directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number of directors) and the remaining directors shall be Common Stock Directors. Any director elected in accordance with the preceding sentence shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. No decrease in the authorized number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director. Any newly-created Common Stock directorships must be filled by the vote of the majority of existing Common Stock Directors and any newly-created Class B directorship must be filled by the vote of the majority of existing Class B Directors. If there are no directors in a particular class, the vacancy shall be filled by the stockholders entitled to vote for such class. If the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated, the vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of directors, regardless of any quorum requirements.

(f) Merger or Consolidation. The Corporation shall not enter into any consolidation, merger, reorganization or other combination, unless each holder of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock is entitled to receive with respect to each of their shares the identical kind and amount of consideration receivable upon such consolidation, merger, reorganization or other combination as each other holder of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, except that in any such transaction consummated prior to the elimination of the Special Voting Rights, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock may each receive different kinds of shares of stock that differ to the extent and only to the extent that the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such shares differ with respect to the rights of holders of such shares to the same extent as the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock differ. (g) Liquidation. The holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will participate equally per share in any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, without distinction between classes.

Preferred Stock

The Board of Directors has the authority, without further stockholder approval, to issue the Preferred Stock from time to time in one or more series, and to determine with respect to each such series the designation of and the number of shares comprising such series and the powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, of such series.

Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws

The provisions of the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws summarized below may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control or acquisition of the Corporation by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest or otherwise.

(a) Board of Directors. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than ten directors. The exact number of directors will be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors.

(b) Advance Notice Procedures. The Corporation's By-laws require that at any annual meeting of stockholders, the only nominations of persons for election to the board to be considered and business to be conducted will be the nominations made or business brought before the meeting (i) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (ii) by or at the direction of the Corporation's Board of Directors or (iii) by a stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of the notice provided for in the By-laws, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the advance notice procedures. For nominations and other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to clause (iii) above, the stockholder must give written notice to the secretary of the Corporation not later than 90 days nor earlier than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting. If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 70 days after the anniversary date of the immediately preceding meeting, the stockholder must give written notice not earlier than 120 days prior to the annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the day that is 90 days prior to the annual meeting or 10 days following the date on which public announcement of the annual meeting is first given.

At any special meeting of the stockholders of Corporation, the only business that may be brought before the special meeting is the business specified in the notice of special meeting. Accordingly, the stockholders of the Corporation may not raise any other matters for consideration at a special meeting. With respect to an election of directors to be held at a special meeting of the stockholders as determined by the Corporation's notice of special meeting, a stockholder may make a nomination pursuant to notice given not earlier than 120 days prior to the special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the day that is 90 days prior to the special meeting or 10 days following the date on which public announcement of the special meeting is first made. The stockholder bringing a nomination or business must appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders to present the nomination or business to be considered at the meeting.

(c) Special Meetings. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide that special meetings of the stockholders of the Corporation may be called only by the Chairman, or in his absence by the President, by the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the Board of Directors and may not be called by the stockholders of the Corporation. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting.

(d) Action by Stockholders. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide that any action required to be taken or which may be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of such holders and may not be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

(e) Supermajority Voting. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide that the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least 66 2/3% of the combined voting power of all of the outstanding stock of the company entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, shall be required to alter, amend, rescind or repeal any of the Corporation's By-laws or to alter, amend, rescind or repeal or to adopt any provision inconsistent with:

the provision concerning the size of the board and the filling of board vacancies and newly created directorships;

the provision concerning the inability of stockholders to call special meetings;

the provision concerning the inability of stockholders to act by written consent; and the provision requiring a 66 2/3% vote of stockholders to amend the By-laws or to amend the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation described above.

Delaware Business Combination Statute

Under the business combination statute of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), a corporation is generally restricted from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a three-year period following the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is defined as a stockholder who, together with its affiliates or associates, owns, or who is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and within the prior three-year period did own, 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock. This restriction applies, unless:

prior to the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation, excluding specified shares, upon completion of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder; or at or subsequent to the time the stockholder became an interested stockholder, the business combination was approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized by the affirmative vote, at an annual or special meeting, and not by written consent, of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, excluding shares held by that interested stockholder.

A business combination generally includes:

mergers, consolidations and sales or other dispositions of 10% or more of the assets of a corporation to or with an interested stockholders;

transactions resulting in the issuance or transfer to an interested stockholder of any capital stock of the corporation or its subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions;

transactions having the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the interested stockholder in the capital stock of the corporation or its subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions; and other transactions resulting in a disproportionate financial benefit to an interested stockholder.

The provisions of the Delaware business combination statute do not apply to a corporation if, subject to certain requirements, the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the corporation contain a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the provisions of the statute or the corporation does not have voting stock listed on a national securities exchange, authorized for quotation on the NASDAQ stock market or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders.

The Corporation has not adopted any provision in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws electing not to be governed by this section of the Delaware business combination statute. As a result, the statute is applicable to business combinations involving the Corporation.

Limitations on Directors' Liability

The Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation also provides that each current or former director, officer or employee of the Corporation, or each such person who is or was serving or who had agreed to serve at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or representative of another corporation, or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, will be indemnified by the Corporation to the full extent permitted by the DGCL, as the same exists or may in the future be amended.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION

This Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which further amends and restates the certificate of incorporation as heretofore amended and restated, was duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ("DGCL").

1. The name of the Corporation is CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION.
2. The registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington and County of New Castle. The registered agent at said address is the Corporation Trust Company.
3. The nature of the business and purposes to be conducted and promoted are to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the DGCL.
4. Authorized Stock. The Corporation is authorized to issue three classes of stock. The total number of shares which the Corporation is authorized to issue is Twenty-Three Million One Hundred Fifty Thousand (23,150,000) shares, of which

Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the "Common Stock"), Eleven Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand (11,250,000) shares shall be designated Class B Common Stock, par value $1 per share (the "Class B Common Stock" and, together with the Common Stock, the "Corporation Common Stock"), and Six Hundred Fifty Thousand (650,000) shares shall be designated Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Preferred Stock"). The authorized number of shares of any such class or classes of stock may be increased or decreased by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote irrespective of Section 242(b)(2) of the DGCL or any successor provision thereto.

5. Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby authorized from time to time to provide by resolution for the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series and to determine with respect to each such series the designation of and the number of shares comprising such series and the powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, of such series.

6. Common Stock. The Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall be identical in all respects, except as otherwise provided by law or expressly provided herein. The relative powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions of the shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be as follows:

(a) Cash Dividends. Subject to the rights and preferences of any outstanding series of Preferred Stock, and except as otherwise provided for herein, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available therefor at such times and in such per share amounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine; provided that whenever a cash dividend is paid, the same amount shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(b) Stock Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in shares of Common Stock or shares of Class B Common Stock (a "stock dividend"), such stock dividend may be declared and paid only as follows: only Common Stock may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only Class B Common Stock may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock. Whenever a stock dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of shares shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(c) Property Dividends. If at any time a dividend is to be paid in rights to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation (a "rights dividend"), then: (i) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Common Stock ("Equivalent Shares")) or Class B Common Stock (or shares of capital stock of the Corporation having voting rights equivalent to those of the Class B Common Stock ("Equivalent Class B Shares")) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then only rights to acquire Common Stock or Equivalent Shares may be paid to holders of Common Stock and only rights to acquire Class B Common Stock or Equivalent Class B Shares may be paid to holders of Class B Common Stock; and (ii) if the rights dividend is of rights that entitle the holder thereof to purchase shares of capital stock of the Corporation other than Common Stock (or Equivalent Shares) or Class B Common Stock (or Equivalent Class B Shares) (whether initially or upon any adjustment thereunder), then the Board of Directors of the Corporation may pay such dividend of rights to the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in such manner as the Board of Directors may determine. Whenever any property dividend is paid, the same rate or ratio of rights, securities or other property shall be paid in respect of each outstanding share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

(d) Stock Subdivisions and Combinations. The Corporation shall not subdivide, reclassify or combine stock of any class of Corporation Common Stock without at the same time making a proportionate subdivision, reclassification or combination of shares of the other class.

(e) Voting. Voting power shall be divided between the classes of stock as follows:

(i) Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), in the election of directors holders of Class B Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors (the Class B Common Stock, together with such other shares, the "Voting B Shares"), shall be entitled to elect that number of directors which constitutes 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) (the "Class B Common Stock Directors"). Each share of Class B Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of the Class B Common Stock Directors. Subject to Article 6(e)(ii), holders of Common Stock, voting separately as a class together with the holders of shares of any other class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock for the election of directors (the Common Stock, together with such other shares, the "Voting Shares"), shall be entitled to elect the remaining directors (the "Common Stock Directors"). Each share of Common Stock shall have one vote in the election of such directors. The initial Common Stock Director shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of Voting Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Common Stock Director at the next annual meeting of stockholders. The initial Class B Directors shall be designated by a majority of the directors of the Corporation as of the effectiveness of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of the Voting B Shares, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled to vote for the election or replacement of such Class B Directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders. For purposes of this Article 6(e)(i), references to the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors shall not include any directors which the holders of any shares of any series of Preferred Stock have the right to elect voting separately as one or more series.

(ii) For purposes of this Article 6(e)(ii), "Special Voting Rights" means the different voting rights of the holders of Common Stock, on the one hand, and the holders of Class B Common Stock, on the other hand, with respect to the election of the applicable percentage of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors as described in Article 6(e)(i). If approved by the Board of Directors, at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting together as a class, may vote to eliminate the Special Voting Rights (the "Elimination Vote"), in which case the Special Voting Rights provided for in Article 6(e)(i) shall have no further force or effect, and thereafter holders of the Corporation Common Stock shall have equal voting rights in all respects, except as otherwise required by law, and shall be entitled to elect the total authorized number of members of the Board of Directors voting together (along with the holders of any other Voting Stock (as defined below)) as a single class. "Voting Stock" shall mean the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the shares of any class or series of stock which by its terms is entitled to vote with the Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock for the election of directors.

(iii) Unless the Special Voting Rights have been eliminated in accordance with Article 6(e)(ii), all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated between Common Stock Directors and Class B Directors such that at all times the number of Class B Common Stock directorships shall be 80% of the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors (or, if such 80% is not a whole number, then the nearest higher whole number) and the remaining directorships shall be Common Stock directorships.

(iv) Except as otherwise specified herein or required by law, the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall in all matters not otherwise specified in this Article 6(e) vote together as one class, with each share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock having one vote.

(f) Merger or Consolidation. The Corporation shall not enter into any consolidation of the Corporation with one or more other corporations, a merger of the Corporation with another corporation, a reorganization of the Corporation or other similar combination of the Corporation with one or more third parties, unless each holder of a share of Common Stock or Class B Common Stock is entitled to receive with respect to such share the same kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property (including cash) receivable upon such consolidation, merger, reorganization or other combination as each other holder of a share of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock; provided that, in any such transaction consummated prior to the Elimination Vote, the holders of shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock may each receive different kinds of shares of stock that differ to the extent and only to the extent that the Board of Directors determines in good faith that such shares differ with respect to the rights of holders of such shares to the same extent as the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock differ as provided herein.

(g) Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall participate equally per share in any distribution to stockholders, without distinction between classes.

7. The following provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and for the purpose of creating, defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and its directors and stockholders:

(a) Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to Article 5 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation relating to the rights of the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation acting separately as one or more series to elect, under specified circumstances, directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than ten persons, the exact number to be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors. A director need not be a stockholder. The election of directors of the Corporation need not be by ballot unless the By-Laws so require.

(b) Subject to Articles 7(d) and 7(e), any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall have the same remaining term as that of his predecessor.

Whenever the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately as a series or together as series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorships shall be governed by the terms of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation applicable thereto.

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

(c) The Board of Directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation, which to the extent permitted by law and provided in said resolution or resolutions or in the By-Laws of the Corporation shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may have the power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation, or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

(d) Any vacancy in the office of a director created by the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office of a director or other cause, elected by (or appointed on behalf of) the holders of the Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or the holders of the Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) elected by (or appointed on behalf of) such holders of Voting B Shares, on the one hand, or Voting Shares, on the other hand, as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting B Shares or Voting Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws.

(e) Unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, all newly-created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be allocated pursuant to Article 6(e)(iii). Once such newly-created directorships have been allocated as Common Stock Directors or Class B Directors, such newly-created directorships shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors in such class (or the sole remaining director in such class), as the case may be, unless there are no such directors in such class, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the holders of the Voting Shares or Voting B Shares, respectively, or unless the Elimination Vote shall have occurred, in which case such vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the majority of the directors (or the sole remaining director) then in office, even if less than a quorum, regardless of any quorum requirements set out in the By-Laws. Any director elected in accordance with the preceding sentence shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. No decrease in the number of authorized directors constituting the entire Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

8. To the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, no director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Article 8, nor the adoption of any provision of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation inconsistent with this Article 8, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article 8 in respect of any act or omission of any director of the Corporation or any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Article 8, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

9. (a) Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer or employee of the Corporation or is or was serving in the course of such employment, or at the request of the Corporation, as a director, officer, employee or representative of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as such a director, officer, employee or representative or in any other capacity while serving as such a director, officer, employee or representative, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or representative and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives; provided, however that, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article 9, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with such a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof), or the initiation thereof, was authorized or approved by the Corporation. The Corporation shall pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such a person described in the preceding sentence (but subject to the proviso thereto) in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article 9 or otherwise.

(b) If a claim under paragraph (a) of this Article 9 is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty (30) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the requirements of the Delaware General Corporation Law have been complied with by the claimant) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware General Corporation Law for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because the claimant has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard or conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create the presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(c) The rights conferred by this Article 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, By-Law, Agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(d) The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself, its subsidiary and affiliated corporations, and any such director, officer, employee or representative of the Corporation or other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

10. Except as otherwise fixed pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 of this

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

11. Any action required to be taken or which may be taken by the holders of the Corporation Common Stock must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of such holders and may not be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting.

12. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Delaware, subject to the power of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws to the contrary, the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least 66 2/3% of the combined voting power of all of the outstanding stock of the company entitled to vote in respect thereof, voting together as a single class, shall be required (A) to alter, amend, rescind or repeal Article 7, Article 10, Article 11 or this Article 12 of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation or to adopt any provision inconsistent therewith or (B) in order for the stockholders to adopt, alter, amend, rescind or repeal any By-Laws of the Corporation.

13. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between this Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of this Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for this Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this Corporation as consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of this Corporation, as the case may be, and also on this Corporation.

Except where expressly required by law, no publication of any notice of a meeting of stockholders shall be required. Every such notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and, in the case of special meetings, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Notice of any meeting of stockholders shall not be required to be given to any stockholder who shall attend such meeting in person or by proxy except as otherwise provided by statute; and if any stockholder shall in person or by attorney thereunto authorized, waive notice of any meeting, whether before or after such meeting be held, notice thereof need not be given to him. SECTION 5. List of Stockholders. It shall be the duty of the Secretary or other officer who shall have charge of the stock ledger either directly or through a transfer agent appointed by the Board of Directors, to prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, complete lists of the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder, the holders of each class of stock appearing separately, and indicating the number of shares held by each, certified by the Secretary or Transfer Agent. Such lists shall be open to the examination of any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting as required by the Delaware General Corporation Law, and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any stockholder who may be present. Upon the willful neglect or refusal of the directors to produce such lists at any meeting, they shall be ineligible to any office at such meeting. The original or a duplicate stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, such lists, or the books of the Corporation or to vote in person or by proxy at such meeting.

SECTION 6. Quorum. At each meeting of the stockholders, the holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation present either in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at such meeting shall constitute a quorum except where otherwise provided by law or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws. In the absence of a quorum, the stockholders of the Corporation present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, by majority vote, or, in the absence of any stockholders, any officer entitled to preside or act as Secretary at such meeting, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, until stockholders holding the requisite amount of stock shall be present or represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum may be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. The absence from any meeting of the number required by the laws of the State of Delaware or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation or by these by-laws for action upon any given matter shall not prevent action at such meetings upon any other matter or matters which may properly come before the meeting, and if the holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at that time upon such other matter or matters shall be present either in person or by proxy at such meeting, a quorum for the consideration of such other matter or matters shall be present and the meeting may proceed forthwith and take action upon such other matter or matters.

SECTION 7. Organization. The Chairman or, in his absence, the President, or, in the absence of both of them, any Vice President present, shall call meetings of the stockholders to order and shall act as Chairman thereof. In the absence of all of the foregoing officers, the holders of a majority in interest of the stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote may elect any stockholder of record present and entitled to vote to act as Chairman of the meeting until such time as any one of the foregoing officers shall arrive, whereupon he shall act as Chairman of the meeting. The Secretary or, in his absence, an Assistant Secretary shall act as secretary at all meetings of the stockholders. In the absence from any such meeting of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary or Secretaries, the Chairman may appoint any person present to act as secretary of the meeting. Such person shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties as such secretary of the meeting before entering thereon.

SECTION 8. Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form 8-A12B

Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (C) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at a meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (i) of this Section 8, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and any such proposed business other than the nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the ninetieth day nor earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting (provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty days before or more than seventy days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth: (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") (and such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the by-laws of the Corporation, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner, a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business or nomination, and a representation whether the stockholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group which intends (x) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee and/or (y) otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of such proposal or nomination. The foregoing notice requirements shall be deemed satisfied by a stockholder if the stockholder has notified the Corporation of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) promulgated under the Exchange Act and such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement that has been prepared by the Corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 8 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation at an annual meeting is increased and the stockholders of the Corporation are entitled to fill such vacancies in accordance with the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and these by-laws and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming the nominees for the additional directorships at least one hundred days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, and a stockholder's notice required by this Section 8 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for the additional directorships, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders.

Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (x) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (y) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that directors shall be elected at such meeting, by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time the notice provided for in this Section 8 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and upon such election and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 8. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder entitled to vote in such election of directors may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the stockholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 8 shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

(c) General.

(i) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 shall be eligible to be elected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8. Except as otherwise provided by law, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty (A) to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 8 (including whether the stockholder or beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made solicited (or is part of a group which solicited) or did not so solicit, as the case may be, proxies in support of such stockholder's nominee or proposal in compliance with such stockholder's representation as required by clause (a)(ii)(C)(4) of this Section 8 and (B) if any proposed nomination or business was not made or proposed in compliance with this Section 8, to declare that such nomination shall be disregarded or that such proposed business shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation to present a nomination or business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 8, "public announcement" shall include disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 8, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 8. Nothing in this Section 8 shall be deemed to affect any rights (A) of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (B) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors pursuant to any applicable provisions of the Restated certificate of incorporation.

SECTION 9. Voting. Each stockholder of the Corporation shall, except as otherwise provided by statute or in these by-laws or in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock of the Corporation registered in his name on the books of the Corporation on the date fixed pursuant to Section 6 of Article VII of these by-laws as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting. Persons holding in a fiduciary capacity stock having voting rights shall be entitled to vote the shares so held, and persons whose stock having voting rights is pledged shall be entitled to vote, unless in the transfer by the pledgor on the books he shall have expressly empowered the pledgee to vote thereon, in which case only the pledgee, or his proxy, may represent said stock and vote thereon. Any vote on stock may be given by the stockholder entitled thereto in person or by his proxy; provided, however, that no proxy shall be voted on after three years from its date unless said proxy provides for a longer period. At all meetings of the stockholders, all matters (except those specified in Section 4 of Article III and Article XI of these by-laws, and except also in special cases where other provision is made by statute, and except as otherwise provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation) shall be decided by the vote of a majority in interest of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or in his name by his proxy if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted by him.

SECTION 10. Inspectors of Election. On each matter or election at each meeting of the stockholders where a vote by ballot is taken, the proxies and ballots shall be received and be taken in charge, and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes, shall be decided by two inspectors of election who shall be appointed by the Chairman of such meeting. The inspectors of election need not be stockholders. No candidate for the office of director shall act as inspector at any election of directors. Inspectors shall count and ascertain the number of shares voted; and shall declare the result of the election or of the voting as the case may be; and shall make out a certificate accordingly, stating the number of shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such election or on such matters and the number of shares voted and how voted. Inspectors shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties and shall certify to the returns in writing. They shall hold office from the date of their appointment until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. General Powers. The property, affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Number, Qualifications and Terms of Office. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than ten persons, the exact number to be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors. Directors need not be stockholders. The directors shall be elected as provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and each director shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and shall qualify, or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been removed.

In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn any meeting from time to time until a quorum be had. Notice of any adjourned meeting need be given only to those directors who were not present at any meeting at which the adjournment was taken, provided the time and place of the adjourned meeting were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken. The directors shall act only as a board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

SECTION 9. Special Meetings; Notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the Chairman, the President or by one of the directors. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed to each director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, at least two days before the day on which the meeting is to be held, or shall be sent to him at such place by telegraph, cable, telex, facsimile transmitter, e-mail or other electronic transmission, or be delivered personally or by telephone, not later than the day before the day on which the meeting is to be held. Every such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting but need not state the purpose thereof except as otherwise in these by-laws or by statute expressly provided. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to any director, however, if waived by him in writing or by telegraph, cable, telex, facsimile transmitter, e-mail or other electronic transmission, whether before or after such meeting be held or, except as otherwise provided by law, if he shall be present at the meeting; and, except as otherwise provided by law, any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be a legal meeting without any notice thereof having been given if all of the directors shall be present thereat.

SECTION 10. Organization. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman or, in his absence, the President, or, in the absence of both of them, a director chosen by a majority of the directors present shall act as Chairman. The Secretary or, in his absence, an Assistant Secretary or, in the absence of both the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries, any person appointed by the Chairman shall act as secretary of the meeting.

SECTION 11. Order of Business. At all meetings of the Board of Directors business shall be transacted in the order determined by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 12. Resignations. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving notice in writing or by electronic transmission to the Chairman, the President or to the Secretary of the Corporation. The resignation of any director shall take effect at the time of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

SECTION 13. Vacancies.

(a) Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled in accordance with the Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

(b) A director who resigns, retires, or does not stand for reelection may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, be elected a Director Emeritus. A Director Emeritus shall receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses for attendance at meetings of the Board to which he is invited. Such attendance shall be in a consulting capacity and he shall not be entitled to vote or have any duties or powers of a Director of the Corporation.

SECTION 14. Regular Stipulated Compensation and Fees. Each director shall be paid such regular stipulated compensation, if any, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and/or such fee, if any, for each meeting of the Board of Directors which he shall attend as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and in addition such transportation and other expenses actually incurred by him in connection with services to the Corporation.

SECTION 15. Action by Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any Committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such Committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, or by electronic transmission and the writing or writings or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or such Committee, as the case may be.

Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

The Board of Directors may by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more Committees, each Committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation, which, to the extent permitted by law and provided for in said resolution or resolutions or in these by-laws, shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Such committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in these by-laws, or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board. The Committee or Committees appointed by the Board shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors.

In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member.

SECTION 2. Term of Office and Vacancies. Each member of a Committee shall continue in office until a director to succeed him shall have been elected and shall have qualified, or until his death or until he shall have resigned or shall have been removed. Any vacancy in a Committee shall be filled by the vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting thereof.

SECTION 3. Organization. Except as otherwise provided in these by-laws, the Chairman of each Committee shall be designated by the Board of Directors.
