Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 1, 2018, General Electric Company (“GE” or the “Company”) announced that the Board of Directors (the “GE Board”) appointed H. Lawrence Culp, Jr., 55, as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), effective September 30, 2018. Mr. Culp succeeds John L. Flannery, 57, who resigned from the GE Board on September 30, 2018.

Culp biography. Mr. Culp has been a director on the GE Board since April 25, 2018, and he served as Lead Director from June 26, 2018 until this appointment as Chairman and CEO. In addition to serving as Chairman and CEO of GE, Mr. Culp is a Senior Advisor at Bain Capital Private Equity (since 2017), a Senior Lecturer at Harvard Business School (since 2015) and a director of T. Rowe Price (since 2015). Before that, he was CEO and President of Danaher Corporation from 2000-2014 and a Senior Advisor there from 2014-2016. For more information, see Mr. Culp’s biographical information on page 11 of GE’s Definitive Proxy Statement for the 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareowners filed with the SEC on March 12, 2018 (the “2018 Proxy Statement”), which is incorporated herein by reference.

Compensation. In connection with Mr. Culp’s appointment as CEO, the GE Board’s Management Development and Compensation Committee (“MDCC”) approved the Company’s entry into an agreement with Mr. Culp with a four-year term setting forth the terms of Mr. Culp’s compensation, which includes: (1) a base salary of $2,500,000 per year; (2) a target annual bonus opportunity at 150% of base salary; (3) annual equity awards in the form of performance share units (“PSUs”) that will have grant date fair values of $15,000,000, beginning in 2019; (4) a one-time inducement award of PSUs that will pay out (except in the case of a termination of employment by the Company for cause or by Mr. Culp without good reason, and subject to proration in certain events) as a number of GE shares ranging from 2.5 million to 7.5 million shares, based on a GE stock price appreciation target ranging from 50% to 150% using the highest average closing price over 30 consecutive trading days during the four-year period from October 1, 2018 to September 30, 2022, with no payout for stock price appreciation of less than 50%; and (5) cash severance in an amount equal to two times the sum of Mr. Culp’s base salary and target annual bonus opportunity, in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Culp for good reason. The inducement award of PSUs will be adjusted to reflect the effects of any spin-off transactions, extraordinary dividends or changes in capital structure that do not result in the receipt by the Company of reciprocal value. The agreement also will include terms addressing the effect of a change of control of GE. Any amounts paid or benefits provided in connection with a termination of employment are subject to Mr. Culp’s execution of a release and compliance with customary employee covenants, including a non-compete. For more information regarding the Company’s annual bonus and equity award programs, see the 2018 Proxy Statement.

The material terms of Mr. Flannery’s separation agreement will be disclosed once they have been finalized.

Other changes on GE Board. The GE Board appointed Thomas W. Horton, 57, as Lead Director and Chair of the MDCC, succeeding Mr. Culp in each of these roles. Mr. Horton has been a director on the GE Board since April 25, 2018 and will rotate off the GE Board’s Audit Committee in connection with the changes. As a non-independent director, Mr. Culp will not serve on any of the Board’s standing committees.
