INCO ANNOUNCES UPDATE ON EUROPEAN REGULATORY CLEARANCES REQUIRED TO PROCEED WITH ITS OFFER FOR FALCONBRIDGE LIMITED

Toronto, February 24, 2006 Inco Limited (TSX, NYSE:N) announced today that the European Commission has confirmed that it will proceed to a second phase review of Inco's pending acquisition of Falconbridge Limited (TSX:FAL.LV, NYSE:FAL).

As previously indicated, this phase would involve the continuation of the European Commission's review of the transaction for a period of up to 90 business days. During this period, Inco will continue to work with the European Commission in its evaluation of the transaction.

While the European Commission has indicated in a press release it has issued today on its decision to proceed to a second phase review that it has identified certain competition issues requiring further consideration by the Commission, Inco continues to believe that, given the operation of the market dynamics themselves, there are no significant competitive issues and the transaction should proceed without a remedy. In the event that the European Commission were to conclude in this second phase that it has any competition concerns based upon its in-depth evaluation, Inco would intend to work with the Commission to determine what remedy would be required to address such concerns and clear the transaction either before or by the end of this phase.
