QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION FOR WHICH I AM BEING ASKED TO VOTE?

A. Imatron proposes to be acquired by GE pursuant to the terms of a merger agreement. In the merger, Ruby Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of GE, will merge into Imatron with Imatron surviving the merger. As a result, Imatron will become a wholly owned subsidiary of GE.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Q. WHAT EFFECT WILL THE MERGER HAVE ON MY IMATRON SHARES?

A. Each share of your Imatron common stock will be exchanged for a fraction of a share of GE common stock having a market value of approximately $1.89, plus cash instead of fractional shares. The actual number of GE shares that you receive will be determined based on the average of the daily volume-weighted trading prices of GE common stock on the NYSE for the 10 consecutive trading-day period ending five calendar days prior to the closing of the merger.

For example, if the average per share price of GE stock for the valuation period were $38.77 (which was the closing price of GE common stock on the NYSE on November 5, 2001) an Imatron shareholder holding 750 shares of Imatron common stock would receive 36 shares of GE common stock, $29.08 in cash instead of fractional shares.

Q. HOW WILL SHAREHOLDERS KNOW WHAT THE ACTUAL EXCHANGE RATIO IS?

A. We will issue a press release prior to the special meeting that will disclose the exchange ratio assuming that the closing of the merger occurs on the same day as the shareholders meeting. If the closing of the merger is delayed for any reason, then the exchange ratio could change. The exchange ratio is the fraction of a share of GE common stock that you would receive in the merger for each share of Imatron common stock you own. Additionally, you can call (800) 250-7979 to receive hypothetical information about the exchange ratio updated as of the week of your call.

Q. WHAT ARE THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER ON IMATRON SHAREHOLDERS?

A. The consummation of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt by GE and Imatron of legal opinions from their respective tax counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code. Assuming that the merger so qualifies, you will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of your Imatron shares for GE shares in the merger except for any gain or loss attributable to cash received instead of fractional GE shares. The tax consequences to you of the transaction will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q. AM I ENTITLED TO APPRAISAL RIGHTS?

A. No. Under New Jersey law, which governs Imatron and the rights of Imatron shareholders in the merger, you are not entitled to appraisal rights.

Q. WHEN AND WHERE IS THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A. The Imatron special meeting is scheduled to take place on December 19, 2001 at 10:30 a.m., local time, at Embassy Suites Hotel, 250 Gateway Boulevard, South San Francisco, California.

Q. WHAT WILL I VOTE ON AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A. At the special meeting you will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger.

Q. WHAT VOTE IS REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL?

A. The merger agreement and the merger must be approved by a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting, so long as a quorum is present.

Q. WHEN DO YOU EXPECT THE MERGER TO BE COMPLETED?

A. We expect to complete the merger promptly after we receive the Imatron shareholder approval at the special meeting and after we receive all necessary regulatory approvals.

Q. WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A. After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this document, please fill out and sign the proxy card, and then mail your signed proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be voted at the special meeting. Your proxy card will instruct the persons named on the card to vote your shares at the special meeting as you direct on the card. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. If you abstain, the effect will be a vote against the merger. YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT.

Q. MAY I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY SIGNED PROXY CARD?

A. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you want to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy card. If you choose either of these two methods, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy card to:

Imatron Inc.
389 Oyster Point Boulevard
South San Francisco, California 94080
Attention: Corporate Secretary

Third, you can attend the Imatron special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy; you must vote at the meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q. SHOULD I SEND IN MY STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A. No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your stock certificates.

Q. IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A. Your broker will only vote your shares if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker to vote your shares. You cannot vote shares held in "street name" by returning a proxy card directly to us.

Q. WHAT DOES IMATRON'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMEND?

A. After consideration of numerous factors, including the receipt of a fairness opinion from Thomas Weisel Partners, Imatron's board of directors has determined that the proposed merger is advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Imatron and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger.

GE's products include major appliances; lighting products; industrial automation products; medical diagnostic imaging equipment; motors; electrical distribution and control equipment; locomotives; power generation and delivery products; nuclear power support services and fuel assemblies; commercial and military aircraft jet engines; and engineered materials, such as plastics, silicones and superabrasive industrial diamonds.

RUBY MERGER CORP.
3135 Easton Turnpike
Fairfield, Connecticut 06431-0001
(203) 373-2211

Ruby Merger Corp., a New Jersey corporation, is a company formed by GE on September 7, 2001 solely for use in the merger.

WHAT YOU WILL RECEIVE IN THE MERGER

If the merger is completed, for each share of Imatron common stock you own immediately prior to the merger, you will be entitled to approximately $1.89 worth of GE common stock.

You will receive cash instead of fractional shares of GE common stock. The number of shares of GE common stock to which you will be entitled for each Imatron share will be determined by dividing $1.89 by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of GE common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the date on which the merger occurs and then rounding to the nearest thousandth. The price of GE common stock at the time of completion of the merger may be higher or lower than the average GE price on which the merger exchange ratio is based. As a result, the value of the shares of GE common stock to which you become entitled on the date the merger closes may be more or less than $1.89 per share of Imatron common stock.

EXAMPLE: If you own 750 shares of Imatron common stock when the merger is consummated and if the average GE price on which the exchange ratio is based is $38.77 (using the closing price of GE common stock on the NYSE on November 5, 2001 for purposes of this example), then after the merger you would be entitled to receive 36 shares of GE common stock, $29.08 cash instead of fractional shares.

You may call, toll-free, (800) 250-7979 for information concerning the estimated number of shares of GE common stock that would be issued in exchange for your Imatron common stock if the merger were consummated as of the week you call.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

At the special meeting, the holders of Imatron common stock will be asked to approve and adopt the plan of merger. The close of business on October 29, 2001 is the record date for determining if you are entitled to vote at the special meeting. On that date, there were approximately 105,331,524 shares of Imatron common stock outstanding. Each share of Imatron common stock is entitled to one vote at the special meeting. A majority of the outstanding shares for which votes are cast at the special meeting is required to approve and adopt the plan of merger. On the record date, directors and executive officers of Imatron owned and had the right to vote 2,242,619 shares of Imatron common stock (approximately 2.1% of the shares of Imatron common stock then outstanding). S. Lewis Meyer, Douglas P. Boyd, Terry Ross and Jose Maria Salema Garcao have executed shareholder agreements relating to the voting of their shares (see below).

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS

To induce GE to enter into the merger agreement, S. Lewis Meyer, Douglas P. Boyd, Terry Ross and Jose Maria Salema Garcao entered into shareholder agreements with GE. They have agreed, without any additional consideration being paid to them, to vote 7,189,556 of shares owned directly by them and any additional shares that may become owned by them (including 3,627,008 shares issuable upon exercise of stock options or warrants) in favor of the merger.

IMATRON'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER

The Imatron board has approved the merger agreement and recommends that you vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and to approve the merger. The Imatron board believes that the merger is in the best interests of Imatron and its shareholders. In reaching its decision, the Imatron board considered a number of factors, including the following (to which no relative weights were assigned):

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- Imatron's need for significant additional capital to operate and compete, and the difficulty in obtaining such capital;
- the lack of viable strategic alternatives;
- the relative strength of GE and the specific financial and other terms of the merger agreement;
- the receipt of an opinion from Thomas Weisel Partners that the merger consideration was fair to the Imatron shareholders from a financial point of view;

5

- and the potential strategic and other benefits of the merger to Imatron shareholders, employees and customers.

To review Imatron's reasons for the merger in greater detail, see "The Merger--Recommendation of the Imatron Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger" on page 24.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER (PAGE 33)

In considering the recommendation of the Imatron board regarding the merger, you should be aware of the interests which executive officers and directors of Imatron have in the merger that are different from your interests as shareholders.

On September 21, 2001 an aggregate of approximately 2,861,508 shares of Imatron common stock were subject to options granted to executive officers and directors of Imatron under Imatron's stock option plans which will terminate at the effective time of the merger. Approximately 1,926,508 of these that have an exercise price below $1.89 per share will be converted into the right to receive shares of GE stock equal in value to the "spread" between the $1.89 and the applicable strike price. The remaining options, to the extent held by employees that continue with GE after the merger, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive new GE options.

On September 21, 2001, Imatron and S. Lewis Meyer executed a separation agreement. Under this agreement, Mr. Meyer's employment with Imatron will terminate at the effective time of the merger. Mr. Meyer will be entitled to receive payments and debt forgiveness valued at approximately $626,950, but will not be entitled to receive any GE stock options in exchange for options he holds to purchase Imatron shares (which options will be cancelled at the effective time of the merger).

The Imatron board recognized all the interests described above and concluded that these interests did not detract from the fairness of the merger to the holders of Imatron common stock who are not executive officers or directors of Imatron. Please refer to page 34 for more information concerning retention agreements and other arrangements for Imatron's executive officers and directors.

REGULATORY APPROVALS (PAGE 56)

In order to complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of federal and foreign regulatory authorities. We have filed, or soon will file, all of the required applications or notices with these regulatory authorities. The initial filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 were made effective October 19, 2001. Although we expect to obtain the necessary approvals, we cannot be certain we will obtain them.

CONDITIONS TO THE MERGER (PAGE 46)

GE and Imatron will not complete the merger unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived by them, the most significant of which are: the holders of a majority of the shares of Imatron common stock for which votes are cast at the special meeting must approve and adopt the plan of merger; the GE common stock issuable in the merger shall be authorized for listing on the NYSE; the GE registration statement with respect to the GE common stock to be issued to Imatron shareholders must be declared effective by the SEC and all necessary authorizations imposed by state securities laws must have been received; the parties must have received legal opinions from their respective tax counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code, and that each of GE, Imatron and Ruby Merger Corp. will be parties to that reorganization within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code; there must be no law, injunction or order that prohibits the merger; the representations and warranties of each of GE and Imatron contained in the merger agreement must be true and correct in all material respects as of the time given and as of the closing; GE shall have received satisfactory results of environmental site assessments of the real property at which Imatron and its subsidiaries operate; and there must have been no material adverse change with respect to Imatron.

Following the execution of the merger agreement, two civil actions were filed against Imatron and its directors, seeking injunctive relief and damages for, among other things, breach of the directors' fiduciary duties to Imatron shareholders. See "THE MERGER--Shareholder Litigation." If these actions are successful, or are pending at the proposed effective time for the merger and it is determined that the existence of these actions is material, GE would have the right to refuse to consummate the merger.

The party entitled to the benefit of some of these conditions may waive these conditions.

TERMINATION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT (PAGE 47)

Imatron and GE can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, and the merger agreement may be terminated by either party if any of the following events occur: the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties or obligations under the merger agreement and does not cure the breach within five business days after receiving notice of the breach; the merger is not completed by June 15, 2002; a court or other governmental authority permanently prohibits the merger; the holders of Imatron common stock do not approve the merger agreement; or Imatron enters into an agreement to effect a more favorable business combination (subject to various conditions).

In addition, GE may terminate the merger agreement if the Imatron board changes its recommendation in favor of the merger, recommends in favor of a business combination other than the merger with GE or fails to recommend against the acceptance of any tender offer or exchange offer for Imatron common stock.

TERMINATION FEES (PAGE 48)

To compensate GE if the merger is not consummated, the merger agreement provides for termination fees plus reimbursement of actual expenses, up to a maximum expense reimbursement of $1.5 million, under a variety of circumstances. The termination fee, when added to any amounts received by GE pursuant to the stock option agreement between GE and Imatron in connection with Imatron's completion of a transaction with a party other than GE, shall not exceed a total of $11 million.

NO SOLICITATION OF COMPETING TRANSACTIONS (PAGE 43)

The merger agreement imposes conditions on Imatron's ability to solicit, encourage or participate in discussions with respect to any alternative acquisition transactions with third parties, though Imatron's board can provide information or negotiate with third parties to the extent required by their fiduciary duties. Imatron must promptly notify GE if it receives offers or proposals for any such alternative transactions.

STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT (PAGE 51)

Also as a condition to GE's entering into the merger agreement, GE and Imatron entered into a stock option agreement, whereby Imatron has granted to GE an option to purchase shares that, immediately prior to their issuance, would represent up to 19.9% of Imatron's outstanding shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.89 per share, payable in cash. The option becomes exercisable by GE only if specified events occur. The stock option agreement and the termination fees may discourage persons from making a competing offer for Imatron common stock.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS (PAGE 38)

Under New Jersey law, Imatron shareholders have no right to an appraisal of the value of their shares of Imatron common stock in connection with the merger. This is because the GE shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon the receipt by Imatron and GE of legal opinions from their respective tax counsel, to the effect that the merger will constitute a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, among other things, no gain or loss will be recognized by the shareholders of Imatron on the exchange of their shares of Imatron common stock for shares of GE common stock pursuant to the merger, except to the extent of any gain or loss attributable to cash received instead of fractional shares of GE stock.

The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. We urge you to consult your tax advisor to understand fully the tax consequences of the merger to you. See "The Merger--Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 37.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF IMATRON SHAREHOLDERS AND GE STOCKHOLDERS

After the merger, Imatron shareholders will become GE stockholders and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of GE and the New York corporate law. There are a number of differences between the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of GE and the New York corporate law and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Imatron and the New Jersey corporate law. These differences are discussed under "Comparison of Rights of Imatron Shareholders and GE Stockholders."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS MAY PROVE INACCURATE

GE and Imatron have made forward-looking statements in this document and in documents to which we have referred you. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and we cannot assure you that these statements will prove to be correct. Forward-looking statements include assumptions as to how GE and Imatron may perform in the future. You will find many of these statements in the following sections: "The Merger--Recommendation of the Imatron Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger" on page 24; and "The Merger--Opinion of Thomas Weisel Partners LLC" on page 26.

Also, when we use words like "believes," "expects," "anticipates" or similar expressions, we are making forward-looking statements. For those statements, GE and Imatron claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You should understand that the following important factors, in addition to those discussed elsewhere in this document and in the documents that we incorporate by reference, could affect the future results of GE and Imatron and could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in our forward-looking statements. These factors include: the ability to timely and fully realize the expected cost savings and revenues; the loss of consumer confidence by Imatron's existing customers; the resulting economic impact of the events of September 11, 2001 and any potential future military or other conflict; material adverse changes in economic conditions and in the markets served by GE and Imatron; regulatory, legal, economic and other changes in the healthcare industry generally; a significant delay in the expected completion of the merger; competitive pressures; GE's and Imatron's ability to attract and retain key personnel; changes in the financial condition of major Imatron customers; variability of quarterly results; uncertainty of entrance into new markets; and integration of the acquired business.

SIGNIFICANT FACTORS AFFECTING OPERATING RESULTS

Sometimes financial results reported in accordance with GAAP include unusual or infrequent events and factors which are not expected to occur regularly in the future. Examples of these events and factors include gains or losses on the sale of businesses, the costs of completing major acquisitions and of other business development activities, and the costs of business restructurings. Certain unusual or infrequent events and transactions, as well as other significant factors and trends, which may be helpful in understanding the past performance and future prospects of Imatron and GE, are described briefly below. The following discussion should be read with the "Summary Selected Financial Data" of Imatron and "Selected Consolidated Financial Data" of GE included on the previous pages and with the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" of Imatron contained in the annual reports and other information that Imatron has filed with the SEC, and with the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" of GE contained in the annual reports and other information that GE has filed with the SEC. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 66.

In considering the Selected Consolidated Financial Data of GE, you should be aware that:

- the consolidated financial statements represent the combined results of all companies that GE directly or indirectly controls;
- results of associated companies--generally companies that are 20% to 50% owned by GE and over which GE, directly or indirectly, has significant influence--are included in the financial statements on a "one-line" basis; and

11

- the consolidated financial statements have been restated to reflect a two-for-one stock split, which took effect on April 28, 1997, and a three-for-one stock split, which took effect on April 27, 2000.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following tables present historical per share data of Imatron and GE. The data presented below should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements of GE and Imatron incorporated by reference in this document. Only the earnings per share data are calculated using the diluted weighted average of shares outstanding. Because the number of shares of GE common stock to be issued in the merger will not be known until five calendar days prior to the completion of the merger, Imatron equivalent per share data cannot be computed at this time. That information will be available via telephone, toll-free, at (800) 250-7979. Hypothetical Imatron equivalent per share data is presented below using the closing sale price of a share of GE common stock on the NYSE on November 5, 2001 which was $38.77 and a resulting hypothetical exchange ratio of 0.049. The hypothetical Imatron equivalent per share data was calculated by multiplying the actual GE per share data by the hypothetical exchange ratio of 0.049.

GE common stock is principally traded in the United States on the NYSE under the symbol "GE." Imatron common stock is currently traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "IMAT."

GE declared dividends of $5.647 billion in 2000, or approximately 44% of GE's 2000 consolidated earnings. Per share dividends declared of $0.57 in fiscal year 2000 increased 17% from 1999, its 25th consecutive annual increase. Following the merger, payment of cash dividends by GE in respect of GE common stock will depend on GE's financial condition, results of operations and any other factor GE's board of directors may consider relevant.

At year-end 2000, GE had purchased and placed into treasury a total of 950 million shares having an aggregate cost of $17 billion under a share repurchase program begun in December 1994. In December 1999, GE's board of directors increased the authorization to repurchase GE common stock to $22 billion and authorized the program to continue through 2002. Such shares are from time to time reissued upon the exercise of employee stock options, conversion of convertible securities and for other corporate purposes. GE intends to continue repurchases of shares in the ordinary course under its ongoing repurchase program between the date of this document and the merger, and during the valuation period for the merger.

Set forth below are the last reported sale prices of GE common stock and Imatron common stock on September 21, 2001, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, and on November 13, 2001, the last trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. THE SPECIAL MEETING

GENERAL

We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus as part of a solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Imatron for use at the special meeting of Imatron shareholders. We are first mailing this proxy statement/prospectus, including a notice of the special meeting and a form of proxy, on or about November 16, 2001.

The special meeting is scheduled to be held on:

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

December 19, 2001
10:30 a.m.

Embassy Suites Hotel
250 Gateway Boulevard
South San Francisco, California

PURPOSE OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

The purpose of the special meeting is to vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. As a result of the merger, each share of Imatron's outstanding common stock will be converted into a fraction of a share of GE common stock, and Imatron will become a wholly owned subsidiary of GE.

We know of no other matters to be brought before the special meeting. However, if any other matters are properly presented for action at the Imatron special meeting, including a motion to adjourn the meeting to another time or place, the persons named in the enclosed proxy card will have the discretion, unless otherwise noted on any proxy form, to vote on those matters, subject to applicable law. No proxy card that is voted against the merger will be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE IMATRON BOARD

Imatron's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement. IMATRON'S BOARD HAS DETERMINED THAT THE MERGER AGREEMENT IS ADVISABLE AND FAIR TO AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF IMATRON AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS THAT IMATRON'S SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE PLAN OF MERGER. See "The Merger--Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Imatron Board of Directors."

REQUIRED VOTE

Adoption of the plan of merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock that vote at the special meeting. Each share of outstanding Imatron common stock entitles its holder to one vote.

RECORD DATE

Imatron's board of directors has fixed the close of business on October 29, 2001 as the record date for the special meeting. At that date, there were 105,331,524 shares of Imatron common stock outstanding. Only shareholders of record on the record date will receive notice of and be entitled to vote at the meeting. No other voting securities of Imatron are outstanding.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Imatron beneficially owned and had the right to vote 2,242,619 shares of Imatron common stock entitling them to exercise approximately 2.1% of the voting power of the Imatron common stock

Additionally, as a condition to GE's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, S. Lewis Meyer, Douglas P. Boyd, Terry Ross and Jose Maria Salema

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Garcao have each entered into a shareholder agreement which requires them, among other things, to vote 7,189,556 of the shares of Imatron common stock directly owned by them in the aggregate (representing approximately 6.8% of the issued and outstanding shares of Imatron common stock on October 29, 2001), as well as any additional Imatron shares that they may subsequently acquire, including up to 3,627,008 shares issuable upon exercise of warrants and stock options, in the event of such exercise (which would represent an additional 3.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of Imatron common stock on October 29, 2001) in favor of approving and adopting the plan of merger at the special meeting. See "The Shareholder Agreements."

QUORUM

A majority of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock entitled to vote must be present at the special meeting, either in person, or by proxy, in order for there to be a quorum at the special meeting. There must be a quorum in order for the vote on the plan of merger to be held.

We will count the following shares of Imatron common stock as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether or not there is a quorum:

- shares held by persons who attend or are represented at the Imatron special meeting whether or not the shares are voted; and
- shares for which Imatron received properly executed proxies.

PROXIES

You should complete and return the accompanying proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person. All properly executed proxies received by Imatron before the special meeting that are not revoked will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies or, if no direction is indicated, FOR approval of the plan of agreement. Properly executed proxies also will be voted for any adjournment or postponement of the Imatron special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional votes to approve the plan of merger, if necessary.

Proxies marked "Abstain" will not be voted at the special meeting. In addition, under Nasdaq rules, your broker cannot vote Imatron common shares without specific instructions from you. You should follow the directions your broker provides to you regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against adoption of the plan of merger. Accordingly, Imatron's board of directors urges you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed envelope.

REVOCATION

Your grant of a proxy on the enclosed proxy card does not prevent you from voting in person or otherwise revoking your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, either:

- deliver a signed notice of revocation or properly executed new proxy bearing a later date to:

Imatron Inc.
389 Oyster Point Boulevard
South San Francisco, California 94080
Attention: Corporate Secretary

- attend the Imatron special meeting and vote your shares in person.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, officers, directors and employees of Imatron, without receiving additional compensation, may solicit proxies by telephone, telegraph, in person or by other means. Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Imatron common stock held of record by those persons, and GE and Imatron will reimburse these brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for related, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur. MacKenzie Partners, Inc., a proxy solicitation firm, will assist Imatron in soliciting proxies and will be paid a fee of approximately $10,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses. GE and Imatron will share equally all expenses related to printing and filing the proxy statement/prospectus and all the regulatory filing fees incurred in connection with the proxy statement/prospectus. See "The Merger Agreement--Termination of the Merger Agreement--FEES AND EXPENSES--EXPENSES."

THE MERGER

GENERAL

The Imatron board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, which provides for the acquisition by GE of Imatron through a merger that will result in Imatron becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of GE and you becoming a GE stockholder. Upon completion of the merger, each share of your Imatron stock will be converted into a fraction of a share of GE common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. The conversion will be based on a conversion ratio determined by dividing $1.89 by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of GE common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the date on which the merger occurs and then rounding to the nearest thousandth. The result of this equation is the fractional share of GE common stock to be exchanged for each share of Imatron common stock. You will have your shares aggregated and will receive whole shares of GE common stock plus cash instead of fractional shares, if any.

BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER

Believing that the ultimate market for non-invasive imaging of coronary arteries and minimally invasive electron beam angiography was much larger than a company with its limited resources could effectively commercially exploit, in the summer of 1999 Imatron retained AmeriCal Securities, a regional investment bank specializing in the healthcare industry, to explore potential strategic opportunities for Imatron. Those potential strategic opportunities included business combination transactions, private placements of Imatron equity securities, sales of a significant number of EBT scanners to a single purchaser, or a worldwide distribution agreement based upon a firm commitment for the purchase of EBT scanners.

Prior to retaining AmeriCal, in early 1998, at the American College of Cardiology conference, S. Lewis Meyer, CEO of Imatron, and several members of the business development group of GE Medical Systems, a division of GE, first discussed the possibility of GE Medical Systems becoming a distributor of Imatron scanners. As a result of those discussions, GE Medical Systems was appointed as a non-exclusive sales representative for Imatron's products through the execution of a Sales Representative Agreement, effective July 1, 1998.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Also in early 1998, in connection with a pre-existing relationship with Siemens AG, Imatron had proposed that Siemens and Imatron explore a potential business combination prior to the scheduled March 31, 1998 expiration of Siemen's EBT scanner distribution agreement and its agreements with Imatron related to research and development of EBT technology. Although Siemens expressed interest in a continuing limited distributor relationship, the discussions ended without any agreement. Siemens did not express any further interest in any business transactions with Imatron after March 1998.

Following its retention in 1999, AmeriCal approached certain targeted major pharmaceutical companies with a significant presence in the market for cholesterol-lowering drugs as well as certain medical device companies. From the summer of 1999 through the summer of 2000, AmeriCal contacted Pfizer, Inc., Bristol Myers Squibb Co., Bayer Corporation, Merck & Co., Inc., and Solvay Pharmaceuticals, Inc. to solicit interest in a possible transaction involving either the purchase of a significant number of Imatron EBT scanners, which would be strategically deployed in screening centers operated by these pharmaceutical companies, or the complete acquisition of Imatron. Although these pharmaceutical companies appreciated the value of EBT technology as it related to the marketing of their pharmaceutical products, none of these solicitations resulted in any firm proposals. During the same period, AmeriCal contacted several medical device manufacturers, including Guidant Corp., Medtronic, Inc., and Boston Scientific Corp., to determine whether any of these companies had an interest in an acquisition of, or strategic transaction with, Imatron. Despite extensive discussions, those companies expressed only limited interest and ultimately viewed the relatively high priced Imatron EBT scanner only as a marketing tool that could support their existing line of medical devices and not as a primary line of business.

Through existing relationships with executives and representatives of Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V., in March 2000, AmeriCal and Imatron initiated discussions regarding a possible acquisition of Imatron or another significant business relationship with Philips Medical Systems North America division. These discussions led to several meetings in late 2000 and the first half of 2001.

In the summer of 2000, AmeriCal Securities approached GE Medical Systems about the possibility of either forming a strategic alliance or pursuing an acquisition of Imatron by GE. Imatron generally believed that there would be significant synergies between it and GE Medical Systems because of GE Medical Systems' interest in developing a more extensive cardiac business and GE Medical Systems' overall cardiovascular product line. Specifically, Imatron considered a transaction with GE Medical Systems to be particularly advantageous to the development and commercialization of Imatron's EBT technology because of GE Medical Systems' commitment to, and extensive resources devoted to, GE Medical Systems' cardiovascular business. Imatron believed these resources would accelerate and strengthen the rapid development of Imatron's EBT technology.

AmeriCal Securities' Richard F. Gaston, M.D., through Lewis Dudley, General Manager of Americas CT division of GE Medical Systems, arranged a meeting between Dr. Gaston and H. David He, Ph.D., Manager, Cardiology and Growth Segment of GE Medical Systems, at the American Heart Association meeting in New Orleans in November 2000. Following that introductory meeting, Imatron and GE Medical Systems concluded that further discussions were appropriate, and Dr. He agreed to arrange a meeting with Dow R. Wilson, General Manager, Global CT GE Medical Systems, Mr. Meyer and Dr. He at the Radiological Society of North America conference in November 2000 in Chicago. At that same conference, Imatron management and AmeriCal met with members of the senior executive management of Philips Medical Systems to continue the two companies' discussions concerning a possible business transaction. Following the meetings in Chicago with GE Medical Systems and Philips, both GE Medical Systems and Philips separately agreed to conduct on-site visits to Imatron in early 2001. Subsequently, AmeriCal had discussions with the chief executive of Philips Medical Systems North America division, while Imatron commenced discussions with other representatives of Philips.

In the subsequent weeks, GE Medical Systems, Imatron and AmeriCal's Charles Engelberg, M.D. and Dr. Gaston engaged in various phone and letter correspondence. GE Medical Systems and Imatron executed a confidentiality agreement on February 2, 2001, and later that month Mr. Wilson, Dr. He and Karim Karti, Manager, Global Business Development, made an on-site visit to Imatron. At that meeting, GE Medical Systems expressed interest in moving forward with a possible acquisition of Imatron, and a second visit was arranged for the purpose of conducting a more formal and extensive evaluation of Imatron's current and future technologies.

On February 12, 2001, Philips and Imatron entered into a Non-Disclosure Agreement, and soon thereafter, Philips visited Imatron's facilities to conduct an extensive due diligence review of Imatron's technology and non-public information. After in-depth discussions concerning a possible business combination in early 2001, Philips expressed that its preferred relationship with Imatron was that of the exclusive worldwide distributor of Imatron EBT scanners and as an investor in Imatron's equity securities. During the spring of 2001, Imatron negotiated the terms of a proposed distribution agreement pursuant to which Philips would commit to purchase, on a firm basis, a substantial number of EBT scanners and make a capital infusion of $25 million that would take the form of a purchase of equity or debt securities, combined with advance deposits on Imatron EBT scanners to be sold by Philips. In May 2001, Marconi Corporation plc announced its intention to sell its Medical Systems division. Philips indicated to Imatron at that time that it had elected to suspend further discussions with Imatron concerning any significant transaction. Imatron's management believed this was because Philips was actively engaged in acquiring the Marconi Medical Systems division. On July 4, 2001, Philips announced its agreement to purchase Marconi's Medical Systems unit.

On May 10, 2001, a group from GE Medical Systems, including Mr. Wilson, Dr. He, Mr. Karti, Armin H. Pfoh, Ph.D., Manager, CT Program, Robert Armstrong, General Manager of CT Engineering, and Jiang Hsieh, Ph.D., Senior Scientist, returned for a more thorough examination of Imatron's intellectual property, technology development strategy and programs, patient database, and business prospects. Principally based on oral comments made by GE Medical Systems' representatives at the meeting, Imatron concluded that a transaction was not likely because of a lack of enthusiasm for Imatron's EBT technology by GE Medical Systems representatives and as a result, GE Medical Systems would be unlikely to offer a price that was reflective of the value of Imatron's EBT technology.

After the May 10, 2001 meeting, Dr. Gaston continued to have further communications with Mr. Wilson regarding the potential value of Imatron's EBT technology to GE Medical Systems. In those discussions, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Gaston decided that an additional due diligence visit to Imatron might be helpful in moving a possible transaction ahead. On June 21, 2001, several representatives from GE Medical Systems including Mr. Wilson, Dr. He, Mr. Karti, Dr. Hsieh, Mr. Armstrong, Brian J. Kost, Manager, CT New Product Programs, and Eugene Saragnese, Vice President of Global Technology Operation, met for a full day at Imatron's headquarters. Following that meeting, AmeriCal Securities and Imatron were notified that GE Medical Systems was prepared to make a formal offer to purchase Imatron, subject to successful completion of a full due diligence review of Imatron.

On June 28, 2001, in a telephone conversation, Messrs. Wilson and Karti indicated that GE Medical Systems would consider pursuing an acquisition of Imatron at a purchase price of up to $2.00 per share of Imatron common stock, subject to a more extensive diligence review. On July 5, 2001, Mr. Meyer informed Messrs. Wilson and Karti that the offer was not acceptable. Mr. Meyer explained that the proposed valuation was inadequate, and therefore, Imatron could not pursue a transaction at that price.

After renewing discussions with Imatron in July 2001, Philips requested on August 15, 2001 that Imatron's board of directors postpone any decisions on any definitive offer from any other offeror to give Philips additional time to finalize its terms of the proposed distribution contract. In response to Philips's request, Mr. Meyer agreed to use his best efforts to provide Philips additional time to develop and present its offer.

Throughout the first two weeks of August, negotiations between GE Medical Systems and Imatron regarding price and other financial issues were conducted by phone, mostly between Dr. Engelberg and Mr. Karti, which concluded in GE Medical Systems proposing an acquisition of 100% of Imatron's common stock at a purchase price of $2.10 per share, payable in GE stock, in a structure that GE Medical Systems understood to be a taxable transaction. At a meeting of the Imatron board of directors held on August 17, 2001, Dr. Engelberg made a formal presentation in which he reported that GE Medical Systems had proposed an acquisition at a purchase price of $2.10 per share, payable in GE stock, in a structure that the board believed to be a tax-free reorganization. In the presentation, Dr. Engelberg reviewed publicly available past business combination agreements by GE Medical Systems in the medical equipment field. Imatron's counsel then outlined for the directors their fiduciary duties with respect to the offer. After discussion, Mr. Meyer was authorized to continue the talks with GE Medical Systems, including negotiating an increase in price and finalizing definitive terms, including clarifying that the transaction would be structured as a tax-free reorganization. He was also authorized to seek other buyers or alternative business combinations. Pursuant to this authority, Mr. Meyer continued his discussions with Philips and GE Medical Systems.

At that same meeting, the Imatron board of directors also considered the need for an independent financial advisor to assist the board in evaluating the fairness to Imatron's shareholders of any proposed transaction and, if appropriate, to render a fairness opinion in connection with any proposed transaction. While AmeriCal believed that the proposed offer from GE Medical Systems was fair and reasonable to the shareholders and recommended its acceptance to the Imatron board of directors, AmeriCal indicated that it was not specifically engaged to provide a formal written fairness opinion and that, as a matter of AmeriCal's company policy, it did not provide such opinions. Therefore, AmeriCal recommended that the board retain another investment bank to assist the board in its evaluation of any proposed transactions and, if requested to do so, to render a fairness opinion. As the directors believed that obtaining an evaluation of the fairness of any proposed transaction from a well recognized and independent investment bank would be helpful to the board in its consideration of any offer to purchase Imatron, the Imatron board of directors authorized Mr. Meyer to identify such an investment banking firm. On September 10, 2001, Imatron retained Thomas Weisel Partners LLC for this project.

On August 23, 2001, in response to Mr. Meyer's statement that a price of $2.10 per share in a taxable transaction would not be acceptable, Michael Jones,

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

General Manager of Business Development for GE Medical Systems, discussed a proposed price of $2.20 per share with Mr. Meyer in a cash transaction that would not qualify as a tax-free reorganization. Mr. Meyer indicated that a transaction at that price could be acceptable, but objected to conducting any transaction other than a tax-free reorganization because a tax-free reorganization would facilitate gaining shareholder approval by enhancing the value of the transaction to the individual Imatron shareholders and by allowing them to exchange their Imatron investment into GE common stock on a tax free basis. In the days following, Mr. Jones and Mr. Meyer had several telephone discussions in which many different structures of the transaction were explored. Mr. Jones explained the additional costs GE Medical Systems would incur in a tax free reorganization, and Mr. Meyer explained that for the reasons discussed above, a tax-free reorganization was important to the Imatron shareholders.

During the week of August 27, 2001, Philips advised Imatron management that it was no longer interested in pursuing a distribution agreement with Imatron and discussions terminated. Philips explained that its recent acquisitions made it impossible for it to pursue an additional significant strategic relationship at that time.

On August 31, 2001, Mr. Meyer tentatively agreed to present two pricing possibilities for the business combination transaction to the Imatron board of directors (in each case subject to due diligence and negotiation of a definitive agreement): a $2.10 price per share, payable in GE shares that would qualify as a tax-free reorganization, and a $2.20 price per share payable in cash, which would not qualify as a tax-free reorganization. Given the status of negotiations, and the likelihood that GE Medical Systems would be expending considerable resources to pursue a transaction with Imatron, GE Medical Systems requested that Imatron execute and deliver an Exclusivity Agreement. The Exclusivity Agreement was executed by Imatron and GE Medical Systems on August 31, 2001, and provided that until September 30, 2001, Imatron would negotiate exclusively with GE Medical Systems and would not solicit or engage in any business combination discussions with any party other than GE Medical Systems. The Exclusivity Agreement did not prohibit, however, Imatron from receiving unsolicited offers from parties other than GE Medical Systems, provided that Imatron notified GE Medical Systems of such unsolicited offer. Following the execution of the Exclusivity Agreement, Mr. Meyer received a comprehensive due diligence materials request, and scheduled a formal Imatron management presentation to representatives of GE Medical Systems for September 5, 2001, in San Francisco. In the course of subsequent telephone discussions that day, Mr. Karti confirmed to Mr. Meyer three alternative pricing structures for a business combination transaction: for each share of Imatron common stock, (i) $2.20 in cash (which would be a taxable transaction to the Imatron shareholders); (ii) $2.20 payable in GE common stock in a taxable transaction; and (iii) $2.10 payable in GE common stock in a tax-free reorganization. Mr. Meyer agreed to discuss these three alternatives with the Imatron board of directors and reported back to Mr. Karti the board's preference for a tax-free reorganization.

In the afternoon of September 5, 2001, several members of the executive management team of Imatron made presentations to representatives of GE Medical Systems management team and arranged access to certain written financial and other non-public information requested by GE Medical Systems in connection with its due diligence investigation of Imatron. From September 5, 2001 through September 10, 2001, Imatron management and its counsel met with representatives of GE Medical Systems and its counsel and discussed certain business, personnel, legal and financial information relating to Imatron.

Between September 10 and 14, 2001, GE Medical Systems and Imatron and their respective counsel extensively negotiated the terms of a definitive agreement including, but not limited to, the break-up fee, legal and acquisition expenses payable upon termination by Imatron of the transaction and the proposed option to purchase 19.9% of Imatron's common stock. After several concessions, including a reduction of the amount of GE Medical Systems' third party expenses payable by Imatron under certain circumstances related to the termination of the merger agreement, on September 14, 2001 GE Medical Systems advised Mr. Meyer that it was unwilling to make further changes in the terms of the agreement and requested that he submit the most recent draft of the merger agreement to the Imatron board of directors for its consideration. Based on GE Medical Systems' request, Mr. Meyer called a meeting of the board of directors for September 17, 2001 at 2:00 p.m. to present and discuss the outstanding Imatron issues with the proposed merger agreement.

On September 11, 2001, simultaneous terrorist attacks were directed at the World Trade Center Towers in New York City and the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., resulting in catastrophic damage, loss of life and disruption to the U.S. economy. In the wake of these attacks, the New York Stock Exchange and Nasdaq National Market suspended trading, and transportation systems throughout the United States suffered serious disruption. These events, along with the continued prospect of overall weakness in the U.S. economy, caused the executive sales team of Imatron to evaluate the consequences on Imatron's financial condition, results of operations and prospects for Imatron's third and fourth fiscal quarters of 2001 and future periods.

After discussions with prospective customers and sales staff worldwide, it was determined that the availability of private investment capital and third party equipment financing capital necessary to complete the forecasted sales transactions for the remainder of the calendar year could be adversely affected by the events of September 11, 2001. Imatron also believed that its existing customers, which planned business expansion based on the purchase of additional EBT scanners, would re-evaluate future EBT scanner purchase requirements due to economic uncertainty and expected reduced discretionary consumer spending. While the precise impact could not be quantified, Imatron further believed that the events of September 11, 2001 could also have an adverse impact on sales in 2002 and introduce a substantial element of uncertainty to the economy generally and to the market for Imatron's products. Because of the likely consequences of the events of September 11, 2001 and GE Medical Systems' insistence on a "material adverse change" clause in the merger agreement that allowed GE Medical Systems to terminate the merger agreement in the event there were material changes in Imatron's results of operations, financial projections or forecasts between signing and closing of the merger agreement, Imatron communicated to GE Medical Systems that its internal sales and revenue forecasts might need to be modified. Imatron management proceeded to review its anticipated sales for the third and fourth quarters of 2001 in order to develop a realistic but achievable sales projection for the remainder of the year. As a result of these forecasting efforts, and for the purposes of the proposed agreement, GE Medical Systems was further advised that Imatron's prior guidance to the investment community might need to be reduced from its previously announced expectation of $80+ million in revenue for 2001 (a 30% increase over 2000) to an estimated $71 million in revenue for 2001 (a 14% increase over 2000). Furthermore, by September 17, 2001, Imatron's management was considering the possibility of revising its previously announced projection of a 50% increase in net operating income for fiscal year 2001 as compared to fiscal year 2000, to an approximate 30% decrease in net operating income as compared to fiscal year 2000.

On the morning of the scheduled September 17 board meeting, Jack Marquess, Imatron's Vice President of Worldwide Sales, Mr. Meyer and Imatron's counsel met with Mr. Karti and GE Medical Systems' counsel to discuss the information that was being assembled regarding the possible need to revise sales forecasts. Mr. Karti explained that the previously discussed $2.10 price would be reconsidered by GE Medical Systems in light of the potential significant decreases in sales and profitability. Despite the effective withdrawal of the offer by GE Medical Systems, the Imatron board of directors convened its meeting to discuss the outstanding issues in the merger agreement and in the negotiations. Mr. Marquess attended portions of the meeting. Thomas Weisel Partners LLC participated in portions of the meeting by videoconference phone. First, the board discussed the current state of Imatron's business in light of the events of September 11, 2001. Mr. Meyer provided the board with the information regarding the preliminary reforecast of sales for the third and fourth quarters of 2001, which was discussed with GE Medical Systems earlier that day. Mr. Meyer reported to the board that Imatron would not be likely to meet its projections for sales in the third and fourth fiscal quarters, and that the entirety of the impact on the 2002 fiscal year sales could not then be completely assessed. Mr. Marquess elaborated on the information he was receiving from potential customers regarding their intentions to delay or postpone the order and delivery of scanners. Second, the board considered a possible decline in the price of Imatron stock if it failed to meet its publicly announced sales and earnings forecasts. Third, the board considered the difficulties and risks with respect to raising capital to support Imatron's planned technology and product development programs, particularly in light of the economic climate following September 11, 2001. Also, the board was cognizant of, among other factors, Philips's recent withdrawal from discussions regarding a major strategic transaction with Imatron. At this meeting, the directors reviewed a written presentation regarding financial aspects of the transaction prepared by Thomas Weisel Partners, although a detailed discussion concerning the written presentation was not held at that meeting. Since a final price and terms had not been agreed upon between Imatron and GE, Thomas Weisel Partners did not provide any formal opinion of value at the meeting. Subsequently, a full presentation by Thomas Weisel Partners of the financial aspects of the transaction was made at the meeting of the board of directors on September 20, 2001, at which time a discussion with the directors of Imatron was held. In addition, Imatron's counsel thoroughly reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement, stock option agreement and shareholder agreement, and reviewed its advice regarding the fiduciary duties of the Imatron board of directors.

On September 18, 2001, in a meeting between Mr. Karti and Mr. Meyer, Mr. Karti stated that the potential decreased sales and profit forecast, in addition to other matters that negatively impacted GE's views on the valuation of Imatron, would result in approximately a $30,000,000 reduction in the value of GE Medical Systems' acquisition offer for Imatron (or approximately $.30 per share). Mr. Meyer indicated that such a reduction would not be acceptable to Imatron's board of directors.

On September 19, 2001, during a teleconference between Mr. Meyer, Mr. Marquess, Mr. Karti and Mr. Wilson, GE Medical Systems stated a willingness to pay $1.90 per share of Imatron common stock outstanding, payable in GE common stock, in a transaction structured as a tax free reorganization, again subject to Imatron's acceptance of the latest version of the merger agreement. Mr. Meyer agreed to submit the offer to Imatron's board of directors. Over the next two days, Mr. Karti, Mr. Meyer and counsel for GE Medical Systems and Imatron continued to negotiate the final open issues in the merger agreement.

In the afternoon of September 20, 2001, the Imatron board of directors met to discuss the status of the negotiations with GE Medical Systems. Mr. Meyer reported that, other than the remaining open issue in the merger agreement related to a cap on Imatron's transaction costs, all other issues in the transaction had been finalized. As of that date, GE Medical Systems' offer had included a cap on transaction costs that would be incurred by Imatron in connection with the merger. However, the sum of Imatron's transaction costs exceeded the cap. Mr. Meyer was directed to negotiate a resolution to this matter, which could include, if necessary, a per share merger price lower than the amount of $1.90 offered specifically reflecting the amount the transaction cost exceeded the cap. Representatives of Thomas Weisel Partners then made a presentation regarding the proposed financial terms of the merger, including the $1.90 per share price, as well as a financial presentation regarding Thomas Weisel Partners' valuation analysis of Imatron and rendered a fairness opinion based on the projections and financial data provided by Imatron's management prior to September 11, 2001. The Imatron board of directors discussed the effects that the reduced sales and earnings forecast might have on the proposed financial terms of the merger. The Imatron board of directors concluded that if the $1.90 per share offer was a fair price to the Imatron shareholders based upon pre-September 11th projections, the $1.90 price would be more favorable to Imatron shareholders in light of possible decreases in projected revenue and earnings as a result of the September 11th attacks. Imatron's counsel then reviewed the directors' fiduciary responsibilities to the Imatron shareholders, as was discussed at the meeting earlier that week. The meeting was adjourned with a direction to Mr. Meyer to seek conclusion to all remaining issues to the transaction.

On September 21, 2001, after extensive discussions between Mr. Meyer, Mr. Karti and Dr. Engelberg, GE Medical Systems agreed that, in exchange for an increase in the cap on Imatron's transaction costs, GE Medical Systems would reduce its offer by $0.01 per share, and as a result GE Medical Systems presented an offer of $1.89 payable in GE shares in a tax-free reorganization. Mr. Meyer agreed to present that offer of $1.89 per share to the Imatron board of directors. At the meeting of the Imatron board of directors, representatives of Thomas Weisel Partners discussed the proposed financial terms of the merger in light of the offer of $1.89 per share. Thomas Weisel Partners delivered its oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in writing) that as of that date and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in the written opinion and explained orally, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Imatron pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view. The Imatron board of directors found the price to be fair, and that the overall terms of the transaction were in the best interests of the Imatron shareholders. Accordingly, upon management's recommendation, the board unanimously approved the merger agreement and the stock option agreement in the form presented to the board subject to such final revisions as management might approve, at the transaction price of $1.89 per outstanding share of Imatron common stock, payable in GE common stock based on the formula set forth in the merger agreement.

Following the meeting, during the evening of September 21, 2001, Imatron and GE executed the stock option agreement, Imatron, GE and Ruby Merger Corp. executed the merger agreement, and GE and S. Lewis Meyer, Jose Maria Salema Garcao, Terry Ross and Douglas P. Boyd executed the shareholder agreement. The proposed merger was publicly announced prior to the opening of trading on September 24, 2001, at which time Imatron also revised its guidance to the investment community regarding projected 2001 results of operations.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE IMATRON BOARD OF DIRECTORS; REASONS FOR THE MERGER

At a meeting held on September 21, 2001, the board of directors of Imatron unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and plan of merger, approved the merger and determined that the merger is advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Imatron and its shareholders. The

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Imatron board unanimously recommends adoption of the merger agreement by Imatron shareholders. The recommendation of the Imatron board is based on a number of factors including the following:

- THE IMPACTS OF IMATRON'S NEED FOR SIGNIFICANT ADDITIONAL CAPITAL TO OPERATE AND COMPETE, AND CURRENT MARKET CONDITIONS AFFECTING ACCESS TO CAPITAL, INCLUDING:
 - the limited ability of Imatron, based on forecasted levels of sales revenues, to produce sufficient internally generated capital to support the aggressive technology, marketing and product development programs required in an environment of increased competition and changing technologies;
 - the possibility that, absent additional capital from outside sources, current development programs would likely have to be curtailed or even eliminated in order to assure continued Imatron operations;
 - the threat to Imatron's ability to compete successfully in an increasingly competitive marketplace for its products and services where there are several competitors, including GE, who possess greater financial resources and lower cost structures than Imatron;
 - current industry, economic, market and other conditions, including the increased volatility and uncertainty in the economy and financial markets decreasing the ability of Imatron's customers to finance purchases of scanners and owning and operating such scanners; and
 - the risk of material dilution to Imatron's existing shareholders in the event substantial capital could be raised.
- THE LACK OF VIABLE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVES, INCLUDING:
 - the limited number of potential acquirers of Imatron, the thoroughness and breadth of the pursuit of potential purchasers, and the lack of any other viable offers being produced during the two year engagement of AmeriCal Securities; and
 - the termination by Philips of its interest in completing and entering into a major distribution agreement for Imatron's products.
- THE RELATIVE STRENGTH OF GE AND THE FINANCIAL TERMS OF THE DEAL, INCLUDING:
 - information, analysis and presentations with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and sales, and prospects for Imatron and GE, comparatively both historically and on a prospective basis, including the risks associated with the current and likely future economic uncertainty relating to the September 11 attacks and subsequent events;
 - the presentations from and discussions with Thomas Weisel Partners, and the written opinion of Thomas Weisel Partners (a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus) that as of the date thereof and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications included in the written opinion the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Imatron pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view;
 - the trading prices of Imatron common stock and the trading volume of

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Imatron common stock compared to the trading prices and volume of GE common stock; and

- the opportunity for Imatron shareholders to become shareholders of GE, which the Imatron board of directors viewed as a highly diversified corporation and with an extremely liquid common stock and a solid history of rewarding shareholders with dividends.

- OTHER SPECIFIC TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, INCLUDING:

- Imatron's right and ability to consider other proposals and the fact that the deal protections proposed by GE would not preclude other offers;
- the structure of the merger, which is intended to permit Imatron shareholders to exchange their Imatron common stock for GE common stock on a tax-free basis, except to the extent they receive cash for fractional interests; and
- the certainty of receiving a fixed value of GE stock, regardless of stock market fluctuations prior to the closing of the merger.

- POTENTIAL STRATEGIC AND OTHER BENEFITS OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING:

- the strategic and other benefits of the merger that would combine the EBT technology of Imatron with the substantial resources and distribution channels of GE Medical Systems to give access to EBT technology to the millions of people who could benefit from the quantification of calcium in the coronary arteries as an aid in diagnosis of pre-clinical coronary artery disease and other unique clinical applications of EBT technology;
- the opportunity for Imatron shareholders to continue their investment in Imatron's EBT technology by exchanging their Imatron shares for GE shares; and
- the interests of constituencies other than the Imatron shareholders, such as employees, customers and suppliers.

The Imatron board did not find it necessary to and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the foregoing factors or determine that any factor was of particular importance. Rather, the Imatron board views its recommendation as being based on the totality of the information presented to and considered by it.

OPINION OF THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS LLC

A COPY OF THE THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS OPINION IS ATTACHED AS ANNEX B TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/ PROSPECTUS. YOU ARE URGED TO READ THE THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS OPINION CAREFULLY IN ITS ENTIRETY FOR THE ASSUMPTIONS MADE, THE PROCEDURES FOLLOWED, THE MATTERS CONSIDERED AND THE LIMITS OF THE REVIEW MADE BY THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS IN CONNECTION WITH ITS OPINION.

OPINION OF THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS LLC

In September 2001, the Board of Directors of Imatron Inc. hired Thomas Weisel Partners LLC to render a fairness opinion in connection with its merger with Ruby Merger Corp., a subsidiary of General Electric Corporation. Thomas Weisel Partners is a nationally recognized merchant bank specializing in advising and investing in companies participating in the growth sectors of the economy including: health care, technology, consumer, business services and telecommunications. On September 21, 2001, Thomas Weisel Partners delivered to Imatron's Board of Directors its oral opinion that, as of that date, the merger consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders (other than General Electric and Ruby Merger Corp.) in connection with the merger was fair to the shareholders from a financial point of view. Thomas Weisel Partners later delivered its written opinion dated September 21, 2001, confirming its oral opinion.

Imatron negotiated the consideration to be received by its shareholders in the merger with General Electric. Imatron did not impose any limitations on Thomas Weisel Partners with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed in rendering its opinion. Further, Imatron did not request the advice of Thomas Weisel Partners with respect to alternatives to the merger, and Thomas Weisel Partners did not assist Imatron in soliciting indications of interest from third parties for all or any part of Imatron or advise Imatron with respect to alternatives to the merger or Imatron's underlying decision to proceed with or effect the merger.

- Thomas Weisel Partners relied on advice of counsel and independent accountants to Imatron as to all legal and financial reporting matters with respect to Imatron, the merger and the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- Thomas Weisel Partners did not assume responsibility for making an independent evaluation, appraisal or physical inspection of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Imatron or General Electric, nor was Thomas Weisel Partners furnished with any of these appraisals.
- Imatron's management informed Thomas Weisel Partners, and Thomas Weisel Partners assumed, that the merger would be recorded as a purchase transaction under GAAP.
- Thomas Weisel Partners based its opinion on economic, monetary and market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Thomas Weisel Partners as of, the date of its opinion. Since Thomas Weisel Partners' opinion was rendered during a period of significant and uncommon volatility in the capital markets, it is subject to the absence of further material changes in economic, monetary and market and other conditions from those existing on the date of the opinion. Accordingly, although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, Thomas Weisel Partners has not assumed any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

The following represents a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by Thomas Weisel Partners in connection with providing its opinion to the board of directors of Imatron. Some of the summaries of financial analyses performed by Thomas Weisel Partners include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by Thomas Weisel Partners, you should read the tables together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data set forth in the tables without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Thomas Weisel Partners.

DISCOUNTED CASH FLOW ANALYSIS. Thomas Weisel Partners used financial cash flow forecasts of Imatron for calendar years 2002 and 2003, as estimated by Imatron's management, and financial cash flow forecasts of Imatron for calendar years 2004 through 2006, as estimated by Thomas Weisel Partners based on conversations with Imatron's management regarding the historical performance of Imatron and management's expectations for the future performance of Imatron, to perform a discounted cash flow analysis. In conducting this analysis, Thomas Weisel Partners assumed that Imatron would perform in accordance with these forecasts. Thomas Weisel Partners first estimated the terminal value of the projected cash flows by applying multiples to Imatron's estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), which multiples ranged from 15.0x to 20.0x. Thomas Weisel Partners then discounted the cash flows projected through 2006 and the terminal values to present values using rates ranging from 11.0% to 13.0%. Using a discount rate of 12.0% (which is the midpoint between 11.0% and 13.0%), this analysis indicated a range of enterprise values (defined as equity value plus total debt less cash and cash equivalents), which were then reduced by Imatron's estimated net debt (defined as total debt less cash and cash equivalents), to calculate a range of equity values. The indicated range of equity values based on this analysis were $174 million to $218 million. Thomas Weisel Partners noted that the value of stock consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders was $203 million.

PRECEDENT TRANSACTIONS ANALYSIS. Based on public and other available information, Thomas Weisel Partners calculated the multiples of enterprise value to LTM (defined, with respect to each transaction (including the merger), as the last 12 months ended on the last day of the calendar quarter prior to the calendar quarter in which such transaction was announced) revenue and LTM EBITDA and the multiple of equity value to LTM net income, for Imatron implied in the following 10 comparable precedent acquisitions of medical equipment companies that have been announced since January 1, 1997:

The indicated range of equity values based on this analysis were $135 million to $220 million. Thomas Weisel Partners noted that the value of stock consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders was $203 million.

ONE DAY PREMIUMS PAID ANALYSIS. Thomas Weisel Partners reviewed the premiums paid by acquirers in selected medical equipment transactions to the closing price one day prior to the announcement of each transaction. The transactions selected were those with an implied target enterprise value between one hundred million and five hundred million dollars.

Transactions with Implied Target Company Enterprise Value between $100 million and $500 million

The range of premiums paid by acquirers to the closing stock price one-day prior to the announcement of each transaction was compared with the implied premium to be paid by General Electric for Imatron in the merger as follows:

The premiums paid analysis indicated a range of enterprise values, which were then reduced by Imatron's estimated net debt, to calculate a range of equity values. The indicated range of equity values based on this analysis were $184 million to $200 million. Thomas Weisel Partners noted that the value of stock consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders was $203 million.

PUBLIC MARKET COMPARABLES ANALYSIS.

Thomas Weisel Partners compared the valuation multiples implied by the merger to those of selected publicly-traded medical equipment companies. Since there are no directly comparable publicly-traded companies, Thomas Weisel Partners analyzed companies with similar business models in two areas: Cardiovascular and Diversified equipment manufacturers. In so doing, Thomas Weisel Partners did not attach any weight to any category. The companies included in each category are:

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

CARDIOVASCULAR	DIVERSIFIED

Boston Scientific	Integra Lifesciences
St. Jude Medical	Vital Signs
Thoratec Corp.	ICU Medical
Abiomed
Zoll Medical Closure Medical Novoste

For each of these companies, Thomas Weisel Partners calculated the multiple of enterprise value to estimates of total revenue and EBITDA for the fiscal year 2001 and equity value to estimates of net income before goodwill for 2001. For purposes of this analysis, Thomas Weisel Partners calculated equity value on the basis of closing stock prices on September 20, 2001. Estimated revenues for the comparable companies were derived from equity research reports published by investment banks. Thomas Weisel Partners then compared the mean and median multiples of enterprise value to revenue and EBITDA estimates for fiscal year 2001 and the mean and median multiples of equity value to net income before goodwill to the multiples of Imatron implied by the consideration to be received in the merger.

The following table sets forth the multiples indicated by this analysis:

ENTERPRISE VALUE TO:	RANGE OF MULTIPLES	PROPOSED MERGER
-----	-----	-----
2001 Revenue.....	1.5x -- 2.5x	2.2x
2001 EBITDA.....	15.0x -- 25.0x	24.1x
EQUITY VALUE TO:	RANGE OF MULTIPLES	PROPOSED MERGER
-----	-----	-----
2001 Net Income.....	20.0x -- 30.0x	27.5x

The comparable companies analysis indicated a range of enterprise values, which were then reduced by Imatron's estimated net debt, to calculate a range of equity values. The indicated range of equity values based on this analysis were $137 million to $219 million. Thomas Weisel Partners noted that the value of stock consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders was $203 million.

No company or transaction used in the comparable company or comparable transactions analyses is identical to Imatron or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the companies to which Imatron and the merger are being compared.

While the comparable company analysis compared Imatron to ten companies in the medical equipment industry, Thomas Weisel Partners did not include every company that could be deemed to be a participant in this same industry, or in the specific sectors of this industry.

31

PROJECTED SHARE PRICE ANALYSIS. Thomas Weisel Partners projected Imatron's share price based on the Company's projected earnings per share for 2001 and 2002 and the Company's current price to earnings multiple. The current price to earnings multiple was computed by dividing Imatron's September 20, 2001 closing share price of $1.49 by management's 2001 earnings per share estimate of $0.07, resulting in a price to earnings ratio of 21.5x. Thomas Weisel Partners calculated Imatron's CY2002 share price by multiplying management's 2002 earnings per share estimate of $0.05 by the current trading multiple of 21.5x, resulting in an estimated stock price of $1.14 per share. Thomas Weisel Partners noted that the value of stock consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders in this transaction is $1.89 per share.

ENTERPRISE VALUE TO: -----	2001E -----	2002E -----
Projected EPS.....	$ 0.07	$0.05
2001 Price to Earnings Multiple.....	21.5x	21.5x
Implied Stock Price.....	$ 1.49	$1.14

The foregoing description is only a summary of the analyses and examinations that Thomas Weisel Partners deems material to its opinion. It is not a comprehensive description of all analyses and examinations actually conducted by Thomas Weisel Partners. The preparation of a fairness opinion necessarily is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Thomas Weisel Partners believes that its analyses and the summary set forth above must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and of the factors considered, without considering all analyses and factors, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its presentation to the board of directors of Imatron. In addition, Thomas Weisel Partners may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. The fact that any specific analysis has been referred to in the summary above is not meant to indicate that this analysis was given greater weight than any other analysis. Accordingly, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be the view of Thomas Weisel Partners with respect to the actual value of Imatron.

In performing its analyses, Thomas Weisel Partners made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Imatron. The analyses performed by Thomas Weisel Partners are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. These analyses were prepared solely as part of the analysis performed by Thomas Weisel Partners with respect to the financial fairness of the merger consideration to be received by Imatron shareholders pursuant to the merger, and were provided to Imatron in connection with the delivery of the Thomas Weisel Partners opinion. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at any time in the future.

As described above, Thomas Weisel Partners' opinion and presentation were among the many factors that the board of directors of Imatron took into consideration in making its determination to approve, and to recommend that the shareholders of Imatron approve, the merger.

Imatron has agreed to pay Thomas Weisel Partners a fee of $1 million upon delivery of its opinion. Further, Imatron has agreed to reimburse Thomas Weisel Partners for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Thomas Weisel Partners, its affiliates, and their respective partners, directors, officers, agents, consultants, employees and controlling persons against specific liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

32

In the ordinary course of its business, Thomas Weisel Partners actively trades the equity securities of Imatron and General Electric for its own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in these securities.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER; CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

In considering the merger, you should be aware of the interests executive officers and directors of Imatron have in the merger that are different from your interests as shareholders. In this regard, you should consider, among other things, the stock option modifications and the agreements described below.

STOCK OPTIONS. The vesting of all Imatron stock options will be accelerated immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and will be cancelled. Just prior to such cancellation, each outstanding Imatron stock option that has an exercise price less than $1.89 will be converted into a right to receive the number of shares of GE common stock (with cash in lieu of fractional shares) determined by multiplying the number of shares of Imatron common stock subject to such Imatron stock option immediately prior to the merger by an amount equal to the product of (A) a fraction, the numerator of which is $1.89 minus the sum of (i) the exercise or purchase price of the Imatron stock option per share and (ii) all taxes required to be held in connection with the stock option per share, and the denominator of which is $1.89, and (B) the amount determined by dividing $1.89 by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of GE common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the closing of the merger.

Each Imatron stock option that has an exercise price equal to or greater than $1.89 per share will terminate. However, each holder of Imatron stock options who will be continuing as an employee of GE after the merger will be offered the opportunity to waive their rights to these out-of-the-money options in exchange for options to purchase GE common stock. The GE stock options will be granted under GE's existing stock option plan and be subject to GE's customary terms and conditions, except that

- the number of shares subject to the new GE stock options will be equal to the number of shares subject to the terminated Imatron stock options, multiplied by the exchange ratio;
- the exercise price of the new GE stock options will be equal to the exercise price of the terminated Imatron stock options divided by the exchange ratio; and

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- the vesting schedule for the new GE stock options will approximate the vesting schedule for the terminated Imatron stock options (without giving effect to any acceleration in connection with the merger), except that future vesting will occur only in September of each subsequent calendar year.

The following table indicates for each person who is one of Imatron's current executive officers or directors and who holds stock options:

- the number of shares of Imatron's common stock subject to those options with an exercise price less than $1.89 as of October 29, 2001 ("In the Money");
- the number of shares of Imatron's common stock subject to those options with an exercise price equal to or greater than $1.89 as of October 29, 2001 ("Out of the Money");
- the aggregate value, net of the exercise price and before any applicable taxes, for "In the Money" options based on a per share price of $1.89;
- the number of GE shares to be received in exchange for In the Money Imatron options in the merger based on a hypothetical exchange ratio of 0.049; and

33

- the number of shares of GE stock subject to new GE stock options as a result of Out of the Money options, in the event such person continues as an employee of GE after the merger, based on a hypothetical exchange ratio of 0.049.

(2) Under Mr. Meyer's Separation Agreement, he will not continue as an employee of GE after the merger. See "--Separation Agreements".

RETENTION AGREEMENTS. After consultation with GE and after the execution of the merger agreement but before the closing, Imatron plans to enter into retention agreements with certain executive officers of Imatron. These agreements become effective when the merger occurs, but if the merger agreement is terminated, the retention agreements will terminate. The retention agreements are intended to induce these executives to remain employed by Imatron. Under each agreement, the executive officer will be paid a retention bonus if the executive officer remains in the employ of GE for a period of one year following the effective time of the merger. Each such person will also receive a termination fee (an amount equal to the retention bonus) if terminated other than for "cause" as defined in the retention agreements, if permanently disabled, and in other related circumstances. Each executive officer has also agreed to confidentiality and non-competition covenants which survive termination of the retention agreements.

The Imatron directors and officers who have executed or will be asked to execute retention agreements, each such person's potential retention payment and termination payment are listed below:

NAME AND TITLE -----	RETENTION AND TERMINATION PAYMENT -----
Douglas P. Boyd, Director.....	$89,580
John Couch, Director.....	32,594
Martin Grimm, VP Manufacturing.....	64,200
Andrew Jeffries, Vice President Engineering.....	79,180
Jack Marquess, Vice President Sales.....	64,200

SEPARATION AGREEMENTS. On September 21, 2001, in order to induce GE to execute the merger agreement, Imatron and S. Lewis Meyer executed a separation agreement. Under this agreement, Mr. Meyer's employment with Imatron will terminate at the effective time of the merger. As a result, Imatron will pay to Mr. Meyer $464,450, half of which is due within 5 days of such termination (but not before January 3, 2002) and the remainder of which is due one year following the initial payment. In addition, Imatron will forgive a promissory note of up to $112,500, and will pay Mr. Meyer $50,000 that was anticipated to be paid under Imatron's bonus plan. Mr. Meyer's stock options will be afforded the same treatment as other Imatron option holders who will not be employees of GE following the merger (that is, they will be exchanged for shares of GE stock to the extent their exercise price is below $1.89 per share), except that he will not be offered any GE stock options. In return, Mr. Meyer has agreed, among other things, to not compete with the business of Imatron for one year following termination, and to release Imatron of any claims he has as of the date of termination. Mr. Meyer and GE also discussed whether entering into a consulting agreement following the merger agreement would be in the parties' best interest. However, no agreement regarding consulting services was reached.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

If terminated, Frank Cahill, by an offer letter given to him in 1999, is entitled to severance and continued benefits for six months after the date of termination.

INDEMNIFICATION; DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INSURANCE. The merger agreement provides that, after the merger, GE will, as permitted by law, indemnify persons who were Imatron's directors or officers immediately before the merger who suffer liabilities or losses from any threatened or actual claim or proceeding based on the merger agreement or on the fact that the person was a Imatron director or officer. The merger agreement further allows Imatron to purchase "tail" coverage under a director and officer liability insurance policy for the people who were Imatron officers and directors immediately prior to the merger for a period not to exceed six years from the merger. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT--Covenants and Agreements--INDEMNIFICATION; DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INSURANCE"

PROCEDURES FOR EXCHANGE OF IMATRON COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES

GE will deposit with its exchange agent, certificates representing the shares of GE common stock and cash instead of any fractional shares that would otherwise be issued to shareholders under the merger agreement in exchange for the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock.

As soon as practicable after the merger occurs, the exchange agent will mail to Imatron shareholders a letter of transmittal. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for the surrender of certificates representing Imatron common stock.

PLEASE DO NOT RETURN IMATRON COMMON STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THE ENCLOSED PROXY AND DO NOT FORWARD YOUR CERTIFICATES TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT UNLESS AND UNTIL YOU HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL FOLLOWING THE MERGER.

Upon surrender of the certificates representing Imatron common stock after the merger, you will be paid cash instead of any fractional shares of GE common stock you would otherwise receive. The amount of cash you receive instead of a fractional share will be equal to:

- the fraction of a share you would otherwise receive, multiplied by
- the average of daily volume weighted prices per share of GE common stock sold during the ten-day trading period which ends on the trading day five calendar days prior to the close of the merger.

GE will pay dividends or other distributions declared on GE common stock only after the merger has occurred and after you have surrendered your Imatron certificates.

If a certificate for Imatron common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue your shares of GE common stock and any cash instead of a fractional share only after you have delivered an affidavit as to the loss, theft or destruction of the certificate and as to your ownership of the certificate. Imatron or the exchange agent may require you to post a bond in an amount as GE or the exchange agent may determine is necessary as an indemnity against any claim that may be made against GE with respect to the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

ANTICIPATED ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

GE will account for the merger under the "purchase" method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Therefore, the total merger consideration paid by GE in connection with the merger, together with the direct costs of the merger, will be allocated to Imatron's assets and liabilities based on their fair market values with any excess being treated as goodwill. The assets and liabilities and results of operations of Imatron will be consolidated into the assets and liabilities and results of operations of GE after the merger.

CHANGES IN STOCK RIGHTS

If we complete the merger, Imatron common stock will stop trading on the Nasdaq National Market. In addition, Imatron will deregister the Imatron common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and, accordingly, will no longer file periodic reports.

After the merger, shareholders of Imatron will become stockholders of GE. After the merger, the rights of all former shareholders of Imatron will be governed by applicable New York law (instead of the New Jersey corporate law), including the New York corporate law, and by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of GE. For a description of the differences between the rights of GE and Imatron shareholders, see "Comparison of Rights of Imatron Shareholders and GE Stockholders."

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion is a summary of material income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, the related Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, existing administrative interpretations and court decisions, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and the conclusions discussed herein and the tax consequences of the merger to GE, Imatron and Ruby Merger Corp. This discussion also assumes that Imatron shareholders hold their shares of Imatron common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. No attempt has been made to comment on all federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to particular holders, including holders that are subject to special tax rules. Some examples of holders that are subject to special tax rules are:

- dealers in securities;
- financial institutions;
- insurance companies;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- holders of shares of Imatron stock as part of a position in a "straddle" or as part of a "hedging" transaction;
- holders who have a "functional currency" other than the U.S. dollar;
- holders who are foreign persons; and
- holders who acquired their shares of Imatron stock through stock option or stock purchase programs or otherwise as compensation.

In addition, we are not addressing any consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction. IMATRON SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

The obligations of Imatron and GE to complete the merger are conditioned upon the delivery of opinions to GE from Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP and to Imatron from Allen Matkins Leck Gamble & Mallory LLP, in each case substantially to the effect that, for federal income tax purposes, the merger will constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Code, and Imatron, Ruby Merger Corp. and GE will each be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions of counsel will be given in reliance on representations and covenants including those contained in certificates executed by officers of Imatron, GE and others. These opinions are not binding on the courts or the Internal Revenue Service, nor do they preclude the Internal Revenue Service from adopting a position contrary to that expressed in the opinions. No assurance can be given that contrary positions will not successfully be asserted by the Internal Revenue Service or adopted by a court if the issues are litigated. Neither Imatron nor GE intends to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Assuming that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the following material federal income tax consequences will result from the Merger:

- none of GE, Ruby Merger Corp. or Imatron will recognize any gain or loss solely as a result of the merger;
- the shareholders of Imatron will not recognize any gain or loss upon the exchange of their shares of Imatron common stock for shares of GE common stock pursuant to the merger, except with respect to any gain or loss attributable to cash received instead of fractional shares of GE common stock;
- the aggregate tax basis of the shares of GE common stock received in exchange for shares of Imatron common stock pursuant to the merger (including a fractional share of GE common stock for which cash is paid) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Imatron common stock surrendered in the merger;
- the holding period for shares of GE common stock received in exchange for shares of Imatron common stock pursuant to the merger will include the holding period for the Imatron common stock surrendered in exchange therefor; and
- cash payments received by Imatron shareholders instead of a fractional share of GE common stock will be treated as received in exchange for that fractional share interest, and gain or loss will be recognized for federal income tax purposes on receipt of the cash payment, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the Imatron common stock allocable to the fractional share interest. The gain or loss will be long term capital gain or loss if the Imatron common stock is considered to have been held for more than one year at the time of the merger.

If the Internal Revenue Service determines successfully that the merger is not a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, Imatron shareholders would be required to recognize gain or loss with respect to each share of Imatron stock surrendered in the merger in an amount equal to the difference between the tax basis in that share of stock and the fair market value of the GE common stock received in exchange therefor. In such event, a Imatron shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the GE common stock received in the merger would equal its fair market value, and the shareholder's holding period for the GE common stock would begin the day after the merger.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

New Jersey corporate law provides that in some mergers, shareholders who oppose a proposed merger or do not vote in favor of the merger and who comply with a series of statutory requirements can request a court to order a fair valuation of the merger consideration. Under the terms of the merger and in accordance with New Jersey corporate law, however, the Imatron shareholders are not entitled to these rights, called appraisal or dissenters' rights.

No appraisal or dissenters' rights are available under the merger because shareholders will receive GE shares, which are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange.

SHAREHOLDER LITIGATION

Since the signing of the merger agreement, two suits have been filed by shareholders of Imatron against Imatron and its directors seeking to enjoin the merger, and seeking monetary relief for alleged breaches of fiduciary duty by the board of directors of Imatron. In the suit styled as "Kirby Hammond v. Imatron, Inc., Douglas P. Boyd, Allen M. Chozen, John L. Couch, William J. McDaniel, S. Lewis Meyer, Richard K. Myler, Terry Ross and Aldo J. Test," filed September 26, 2001 in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Mateo, the plaintiff seeks to certify a class action suit alleging a breach of fiduciary duty, and seeking injunctive and monetary relief. In the suit styled as

"Alan Fisk, Jr., v. Imatron, Inc., Douglas P. Boyd, S. Lewis Meyer, Terry Ross, Allen M. Chozen, John L. Couch, Rear Admiral William J. McDaniel, M.D., Richard K. Myler and Aldo J. Test," filed October 5, 2001, in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Mateo, the plaintiff also seeks to certify a class action suit alleging a breach of fiduciary duty, and seeking injunctive relief. Imatron and its directors believe the suits are without merit and not in the best interests of the shareholders of Imatron, and intend to mount a vigorous defense against these claims.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF SOME OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT. THIS SUMMARY IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT, WHICH IS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE IN ITS ENTIRETY AND ATTACHED TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AS ANNEX A. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE MERGER AGREEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY.

FORM OF THE MERGER

If the holders of Imatron common stock approve and adopt the plan of merger and all other conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived, Imatron will be merged with a subsidiary of GE, with Imatron surviving the merger and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of GE. GE and Imatron anticipate that the closing of the merger will occur as promptly as practicable after the approval of the Imatron shareholders at the special meeting.

MERGER CONSIDERATION

As a result of the merger, each share of Imatron common stock will automatically be converted into the right to receive from GE a fraction of a share of GE common stock. The exact fraction of a GE common share to be exchanged will be equal to $1.89 divided by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of GE common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the closing of the merger. Shareholders will receive shares of GE common stock plus cash instead of fractional shares of GE common stock.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

The merger consideration generally is intended to provide shares of GE common stock in exchange for your Imatron common stock which is valued at $1.89. The exchange ratio is based upon the average GE share price during the ten-day valuation period, and, therefore, a higher average GE share price would result in fewer shares of GE common stock constituting the merger consideration, and a lower average GE share price would result in more shares of GE common stock constituting the merger consideration. For example, if the average GE share price during the ten-day valuation period were equal to $38.77 per share, one Imatron share would become 0.049 shares of GE common stock. An average GE share price during the ten-day valuation period greater than $38.77 would result in fewer than 0.049 shares of GE common stock constituting the merger consideration and an average GE share price less than $38.77 would result in more than 0.049 shares of GE common stock constituting the merger consideration.

The merger agreement provides that the ten-day valuation period will end on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the date of the merger. As a result, the number of shares of GE common stock constituting the merger consideration will be fixed five calendar days before the merger. Because the market price of GE common stock fluctuates, the value of GE common stock that Imatron shareholders will receive in the merger may increase or decrease during the five-day period between the end of the valuation period and the date of the merger. You may call, toll-free, (800) 250-7979 for information concerning the estimated number of shares of GE common stock that will be issued in exchange for each share of Imatron common stock as of the date you call. As part of its ongoing stock repurchase program, GE may reacquire shares of its common stock during the valuation period. For additional information see "Summary Selected Financial Data--Comparative Market Price Data."

Shares of Imatron common stock held by GE and all treasury shares will be cancelled in the merger.

If, between the date of the merger agreement and the merger, the outstanding shares of GE common stock have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class, by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination or exchange of shares, the merger agreement provides that the merger consideration will be correspondingly adjusted to the extent appropriate to reflect such changes.

EFFECTIVE TIME

The merger will become effective when a certificate of merger is received by the Treasurer of the State of New Jersey. GE and Imatron anticipate that the certificate of merger will be filed immediately after the closing. The closing will occur after all the conditions to the merger have been waived or satisfied.

COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS OF IMATRON. Imatron has agreed that, between the date of the merger agreement and the closing of the merger, it will carry on its business in the ordinary course and use its reasonable best efforts to maintain its current business organizations, retain its current officers and key employees and preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers and others having business dealings with it. In addition, the merger agreement limits Imatron's ability, without GE's prior written consent, to:

- pay any dividends or otherwise make any payments to its shareholders; effect a stock split, combination or reclassification or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of shares of its capital stock; or acquire any shares of its capital stock or any rights to acquire any such shares;
- subject to exceptions set forth in the merger agreement, issue, sell or otherwise encumber capital stock or any related warrants or options;
- amend its charter or bylaws;
- acquire, merge or consolidate with, or purchase a substantial portion of the assets of, any other business organization or otherwise acquire, outside of the ordinary course of business, any material assets of any business organization;
- sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its material assets, other than sales of inventory in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;
- incur or guarantee any indebtedness for borrowed money other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and indebtedness between Imatron and any of its wholly owned subsidiaries or between any wholly owned subsidiaries;
- alter the corporate structure or ownership of Imatron or any subsidiary;
- subject to exceptions set forth in the merger agreement, enter into or amend any severance plan, employment agreement or consulting agreement outside of the ordinary course of business;
- subject to exceptions set forth in the merger agreement, increase the compensation payable to its directors, officers or employees or enter into or amend any employment agreement or collective bargaining agreement;
- knowingly violate any applicable material law;
- make any change to accounting policies or procedures;
- take any position with respect to taxes that is inconsistent with positions taken in prior periods;
- make any tax election or settle any material income tax liability;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- commence any litigation or settle any material claims or litigation;
- subject to exceptions set forth in the merger agreement, enter into or amend any material agreement or contract, purchase any real property or agree to make any new capital expenditure in excess of an aggregate of $500,000;
- discharge liabilities and obligations outside of the ordinary course of business;
- make any further loans or advances to Positron without the consent to GE, which consent may not be withheld unreasonably; or
- authorize any of the foregoing.

NO SOLICITATION. The merger agreement prohibits Imatron, its subsidiaries, officers, directors, employees, financial advisors or attorneys or other advisor or representative of Imatron from soliciting, initiating or encouraging the submission of a takeover proposal, entering into any agreement with respect to or approve or recommend any takeover proposal, or providing information to (other than referring a third party to this covenant in the agreement or providing them with a copy of this covenant) or having discussions or negotiations with anyone other than GE for any takeover proposal, unless:

- done in compliance with Rule 14e-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 with regard to a tender or exchange offer; or
- Imatron's board reasonably determines the takeover proposal constitutes a superior proposal, in which case Imatron may, to the extent required by the fiduciary obligations of Imatron's board, as determined in good faith by a majority of the board after consultation with independent counsel, furnish non-public information and participate in discussions or negotiations regarding the superior proposal and enter into an agreement with respect to or approve or recommend to its shareholders a superior proposal.

Under the merger agreement, a takeover proposal is defined as any proposal for a merger, tender offer, or other business combination involving Imatron or any of its subsidiaries or any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner, directly or indirectly, an equity interest in, any voting securities of, or a substantial portion of the assets of Imatron or any of its subsidiaries, other than the merger with GE. Under the merger agreement, a superior proposal is defined as a bona fide proposal made by a third party to acquire Imatron pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a sale of all or substantially all its assets or otherwise on terms which a majority of the disinterested members of the board of directors of Imatron determines at a duly constituted meeting of the board of directors or by unanimous written consent, in its reasonable good faith judgment, after consultation with its financial advisor, to be more favorable to the Imatron shareholders than the merger with GE and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or reasonably capable of being obtained.

Imatron has agreed to advise GE orally and in writing within twenty-four hours of

- its receipt of any takeover proposal, expression of interest or inquiry regarding a potential takeover proposal received by any officer or

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

director of Imatron or, to the knowledge of Imatron, any financial advisor, attorney or other advisor or representative of Imatron;

- the material terms of such takeover proposal, including a copy of any written proposal; and
- the identity of the person making any such takeover proposal or inquiry.

If Imatron intends to participate in discussions with or furnish any information to another party with respect to any inquiry or takeover proposal, Imatron will advise GE in writing of such intention not less than forty-eight hours in advance of providing such information.

THIRD PARTY STANDSTILL AGREEMENTS. From the date of the merger agreement through the closing of the merger, Imatron has agreed not to terminate, amend, modify or waive any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which Imatron is a party, except those involving GE, and to enforce those agreements to the fullest extent permitted by law.

REORGANIZATION. From the date of the merger agreement through the closing of the merger, all the parties to the merger have agreed not to take or fail to take any action with actual knowledge that such action would jeopardize the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Additionally, the parties have further agreed to use all reasonable best efforts to refrain from taking any action or failing to take any action which would cause, or would be reasonably likely to cause, the merger to fail to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

STOCK OPTION PLANS. The vesting of all Imatron stock options will be accelerated immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and will be cancelled. Just prior to such cancellation, each outstanding Imatron stock option that has an exercise price less than $1.89 will be converted into a right to receive the number of shares of GE common stock (with cash in lieu of fractional shares) determined by multiplying the number of shares of Imatron common stock subject to such Imatron stock option immediately prior to the merger by an amount equal to the product of (A) a fraction, the numerator of which is $1.89 minus the sum of (i) the exercise or purchase price of the Imatron stock option per share and (ii) all taxes required to be held in connection with the stock option per share, and the denominator of which is $1.89, and (B) the amount determined by dividing $1.89 by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of GE common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the closing of the merger.

Each Imatron stock option that has an exercise price equal to or greater than $1.89 per share will terminate. However, each holder of an Imatron stock option who will be continuing as an employee of GE after the merger will be offered the opportunity to waive their rights in these out-of-the-money options in exchange for options to purchase GE common stock. The GE stock options will be granted under GE's existing stock option plan and be subject to GE's customary terms and conditions, except that

- the number of shares subject to the new GE stock options will be equal to the number of shares subject to the terminated Imatron stock options, multiplied by the exchange ratio;
- the exercise price of the new GE stock options will be equal to the exercise price of the terminated Imatron stock options divided by the exchange ratio; and

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- the vesting schedule for the new GE stock options will approximate the vesting schedule for the terminated Imatron stock options (without giving effect to any acceleration in connection with the merger), except that future vesting will occur only in September of each subsequent calendar year.

INDEMNIFICATION; DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INSURANCE. The merger agreement provides that, after the merger, GE will, as permitted by law, indemnify persons who were Imatron's directors or officers immediately before the merger who suffer liabilities or losses from any threatened or actual claim or proceeding based on the merger agreement or on the fact that the person was a Imatron director or officer. The merger agreement further allows Imatron to purchase "tail" coverage under a director and officer liability insurance policy for the people who were Imatron officers and directors immediately prior to the merger for a period of not more than six years from the merger. GE also agrees that, after the merger, it will guarantee the obligations of the surviving corporation under the preceding two sentences. In no event, however, will either GE or the surviving corporation be obligated to pay, in the aggregate and including any fines, penalties or other amounts paid to third parties, any amount in excess of $35,600,000.

EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS. The merger agreement provides that for the first year following the closing of the merger, while employed by Imatron, U.S. employees of Imatron will receive base wages and salaries at rates not less favorable to those employees than the rates of wages and salaries paid by Imatron on the date of the merger agreement (excluding bonuses and variable pay). For a period of one year following the closing of the merger, GE shall or shall cause Imatron to maintain in effect U.S. employee benefit plans and arrangements which provide benefits which have a value which is substantially comparable, in the aggregate, to the benefits provided by Imatron's U.S. benefit plans not taking into account the value of any plans which are equity based. For purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and accrual or entitlement to benefits where length of service is relevant, U.S. Imatron employees will receive service credit for service with Imatron and its subsidiaries to the same extent that credit was granted under Imatron's benefit plans, subject to offsets for previously accrued benefits and no duplication of benefits.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN. The merger agreement requires Imatron to suspend all purchases under Imatron's 1994 Employee Stock Purchase Plan beginning with the first payroll period following signing of the merger agreement.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE MERGER

CONDITIONS TO EACH PARTY'S OBLIGATION TO EFFECT THE MERGER. The obligations of GE and Imatron to complete the merger depend on the following conditions being fulfilled:

- Imatron shareholders have approved the plan of merger;
- the GE stock to be issued in the merger and in respect of Imatron options has been listed on the NYSE;
- the waiting period applicable to the merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act has expired or terminated and all other necessary material government consents have been obtained;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- the GE registration statement has been declared effective and no stop order has been given; and
- no act, rule or order has been made or entered that would prohibit the merger.

CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATION OF IMATRON TO EFFECT THE MERGER. The obligation of Imatron to complete the merger depends on the following additional conditions being fulfilled:

- GE and Ruby Merger Corp. have performed in all material respects all their covenants in the merger agreement, and their representations and warranties remain true in all material respects on the closing date;
- Imatron has received an opinion of Allen Matkins Leck Gamble & Mallory LLP, counsel to Imatron, stating that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and Imatron, Ruby Merger Corp. and GE will each be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- there has been no material adverse change with respect to GE; and
- GE has taken all action required to implement the provisions described under "--Covenants and Agreements--STOCK OPTION PLANS" above.

CONDITIONS TO OBLIGATIONS OF GE AND RUBY MERGER CORP. TO EFFECT THE MERGER. The obligations of GE and Ruby Merger Corp. to complete the merger depend on the following additional conditions being fulfilled:

- Imatron has performed in all material respects all its covenants in the merger agreement, and its representations and warranties remain true in all material respects on the closing date;
- GE has received an opinion of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, special counsel to GE, stating that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Imatron, Ruby Merger Corp. and GE will each be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- Imatron has obtained all required material consents or approvals;

46

- GE has received a signed agreement from each of Imatron's affiliates intended to ensure the affiliate's compliance with the Securities Act of 1933;
- there has been no material adverse change with regard to Imatron;
- Imatron has taken all action required to be taken by it to implement the provisions described under "--Covenants and Agreements--STOCK OPTION PLANS" above;
- all of the directors of Imatron and all officers of Imatron designated by GE shall have provided their written resignations to GE;
- GE shall have received the results of its environmental site assessments of Imatron's operations and real properties, and such results shall not have identified (i) any contamination of ground water, surface water or

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

sediment, (ii) any significant contamination of soil or surfaces, or (iii) any other environmental, health and safety concerns requiring cleanup or decontamination or otherwise posing a risk to human health or the environment, whether or not such matters are known by GE prior to the date of the agreement or disclosed in writing to GE (except that this condition will be deemed satisfied if such results fail to identify issues that would cost more than $2,000,000, based on GE's reasonable determination); and

- Imatron shall have terminated its 401(k) Plan and ensured that each participant who has an account in the such plan will be fully vested in his or her account balance in a manner acceptable to GE.

Following the execution of the merger agreement, two civil actions were filed against Imatron and its directors, seeking injunctive relief and damages for, among other things, breach of the directors' fiduciary duties to Imatron shareholders. See "THE MERGER--Shareholder Litigation." If these actions are pending at the proposed effective time for the merger and it is determined that the existence of these actions is material, or if the plaintiffs are successful in enjoining the merger, GE would have the right to refuse to consummate the merger. If this condition were to continue past June 15, 2001, GE could terminate the merger agreement without penalty, as described below in "Termination of the Merger Agreement--TERMINATION"

TERMINATION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

TERMINATION. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the merger, whether before or after approval by the Imatron shareholders:

- by the mutual written consent of GE and Imatron;
- by either GE or Imatron if: the other party has failed to comply in any material respect with its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement and the failure to comply has not been cured within five business days after receiving written notice of the failure to comply; there has been a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty which has the effect of making such representation or warranty not true and correct in all material respects and the breach has not been cured within five business days after receiving written notice of the breach; the merger has not closed on or prior to the close of business on June 15, 2002, or the date that is 75 days after the Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period has expired unless the terminating party caused the delay; any court or other governmental entity having jurisdiction over a party to the merger agreement has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action prohibiting the merger; the Imatron shareholders do not approve the plan of merger at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting; or Imatron enters into a merger, acquisition or other agreement with another party that qualifies as a superior proposal, or the board resolves to do so; except that Imatron may not terminate the merger agreement for this reason unless: Imatron has delivered to GE a written notice of Imatron's intent to enter into such an agreement; forty-eight hours have elapsed following delivery to GE of such written notice by Imatron; and during that period, Imatron has fully cooperated with GE, including informing GE of the terms and conditions of the takeover proposal and the identity of the person making the takeover proposal, with the intent of enabling GE to agree to a modification of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the transactions contemplated thereby may be effected; and Imatron may not terminate the merger agreement unless at the end of the forty-eight hour period the Imatron board still reasonably believes that the takeover proposal is a superior proposal when compared to the GE merger, taking into account any such modification as may be proposed by GE, and concurrently with such termination Imatron pays to GE the amounts specified under "FEES AND EXPENSES" below.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- by GE if: the Imatron board has not recommended, or has resolved not to recommend, or has qualified, modified or withdrawn its recommendation of the merger or its declaration that the merger is advisable and fair to and in the best interest of Imatron and its shareholders, or has resolved to do so; the Imatron board has recommended to the Imatron shareholders any takeover proposal or has resolved to do so; or a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock is made by a third party that is not an affiliate of GE, and the Imatron board does not recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its shareholders.
- by either GE or Imatron if the Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period has not expired or been terminated by June 15, 2002.

EFFECT OF TERMINATION. If the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the agreement will be null and void, and there will be no liability for any party or its officers and directors except as to confidentiality and fees and expenses.

FEES AND EXPENSES

TERMINATION FEE. Imatron has agreed to pay GE a termination fee of up to $11 million if the merger agreement is terminated because Imatron enters into a merger, acquisition or other agreement related to a superior proposal, or:

- by Imatron due to the failure of the merger to close by June 15, 2002 after receipt by Imatron of a superior proposal;
- due to Imatron's failure to comply in any material respect with the covenants of the merger agreement;
- due to the failure by the Imatron board of directors to recommend the plan of merger or merger agreement, its approval of another takeover proposal, or its failure to recommend against a tender or exchange offer as described above in "--TERMINATION";
- due to Imatron's material breach of a representation or warranty after the receipt of a superior proposal; or
- due to the failure of the Imatron shareholders to approve the merger at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement, after the receipt of a superior proposal or after the failure by the Imatron board of directors to recommend the merger agreement, its approval of another takeover proposal, or its failure to recommend against a tender or exchange offer as described above in "--TERMINATION"; and within twelve months of the termination of the merger agreement for one of these reasons, one of the following events occurs:

- any person, entity or group acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;
- any group is formed which beneficially owns 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- Imatron enters into, or announces that it proposes to enter into, any agreement providing for a merger or other business combination involving Imatron or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, Imatron, other than the transaction contemplated in the merger agreement;
- any person, entity or group is granted any option or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire or otherwise become the beneficial owner of shares of Imatron common stock which, together with all shares of Imatron common stock beneficially owned by that person, entity or group, results or would result in such person being the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock; or
- there is a public announcement with respect to a plan or intention by Imatron to effect any of the foregoing transactions.

The $11,000,000 termination fee will be reduced by the net amount realized or realizable by GE under the stock option agreement. In addition, the total of the termination fee and the net amount actually realized by GE under the stock option agreement (after netting out the exercise price) will not exceed $11,000,000.

EXPENSES. Whether the merger is completed, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, including the costs of counsel, financial advisors and accountants, will be paid by the party incurring those costs and expenses. Printing expenses and all filing fees, including filing fees under the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, will be divided equally between GE and Imatron. However, Imatron has agreed to pay GE's costs and expenses up to a maximum of $1.5 million if the merger agreement is terminated:

- by Imatron due to the failure of the merger to close by June 15, 2002, after receipt by Imatron of a superior proposal;
- due to Imatron's failure to comply in any material respect with the covenants of the merger agreement;
- due to Imatron's material breach of a representation or warranty;
- due to the failure by the Imatron board of directors to recommend the merger agreement and plan of merger, its approval of another takeover proposal, or its failure to recommend against a tender or exchange offer as described above in "--TERMINATION";
- due to the failure of the Imatron shareholders to approve the merger at the special meeting after a superior proposal is made by a third party or after the failure by the Imatron board of directors to recommend the merger agreement and plan of merger, its approval of another takeover proposal, or its failure to recommend against a tender or exchange offer as described above in "--TERMINATION"; or
- due to Imatron's agreement to a merger, acquisition or other agreement to effect a superior proposal.

GE has agreed to pay Imatron's costs and expenses up to a maximum of $1.5 million if Imatron terminates the merger agreement due to:

- GE's failure to comply in any material respect with the covenants of the merger agreement; or

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- GE's material breach of a representation or warranty.

AMENDMENT; WAIVER

AMENDMENT. The merger agreement may be changed by GE and Imatron at any time prior to the approval of the plan of merger by the Imatron shareholders. Any change made after the approval of the plan of merger by the Imatron shareholders by law must be approved by the Imatron shareholders. The merger agreement may only be amended in a writing signed by GE, Imatron and Ruby Merger Corp.

WAIVER. At any time prior to the merger, GE and Imatron may agree to:

- extend the time for the performance of any obligation or other act of the other party;
- waive any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered under the terms of the merger agreement; and
- waive compliance with any agreement or condition contained in the merger agreement which may be legally waived.

Any extension or waiver will be valid only if made in writing and signed on behalf of the waiving party.

THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF SOME OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT. THIS SUMMARY IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, WHICH IS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE IN ITS ENTIRETY AND ATTACHED TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AS ANNEX C. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY.

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, GE and Imatron entered into the stock option agreement pursuant to which Imatron granted to GE an option to purchase a number of shares that, immediately prior to issuance, would represent 19.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of Imatron common stock. The option has an exercise price of $1.89 per share, payable in cash. Based on the number of shares of Imatron common stock outstanding on October 29, 2001, the option would be exercisable for 20,960,973 shares of newly issued shares of Imatron common stock.

EXERCISABILITY

The option is exercisable only if one or more of the following events occurs:

- any person, entity or group acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;
- any group is formed which beneficially owns 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;
- any person, entity or group commences a tender or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding Imatron common stock or publicly proposes any merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or substantially all the assets of Imatron or other business combination involving Imatron;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- Imatron enters into, or announces that it proposes to enter into, any agreement providing for a merger or other business combination involving Imatron or any significant subsidiary of Imatron or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, Imatron or a significant subsidiary of Imatron, other than the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement;
- any person, entity or group is granted any option or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire or otherwise become the beneficial owner of shares of Imatron common stock which, together with all shares of Imatron common stock beneficially owned by that person, entity or group, results or would result in such person, entity or group being the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock; or
- there is a public announcement with respect to a plan or intention by Imatron to effect any of the foregoing transactions.

Additionally, GE may not exercise the option if:

- GE or Ruby Merger Corp. has breached any of its material obligations under the merger agreement;
- an injunction or other order issued by any federal or state court which invalidates the grant or prohibits the exercise of the option is in effect;
- the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act has not expired or been terminated; or
- the purchase of the shares will violate Rule 10b-13 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

At any time before the termination of the option, under the circumstances described below, GE has the right to require Imatron to purchase the option from GE at a cash purchase price equal to the product determined by multiplying (A) the number of shares as to which the option has not yet been exercised by (B) the per share cash value of the option as determined in accordance with the stock option agreement.

GE can require Imatron to purchase the option if any of the following events occur:

- any person, entity or group other than GE acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock; or
- Imatron consummates a merger or other business combination with a third party.

REPURCHASE RIGHT

For 90 days after the termination of the option, Imatron has the right to repurchase from GE all of the optioned shares acquired by GE, and with respect to which GE then has beneficial ownership, at a price per share equal to the greater of:

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- the average of the daily volume-weighted quoted on Nasdaq National Market of Imatron common stock during the five trading days immediately before Imatron provides written notice of its intent to repurchase; and
- $1.89, plus interest at a rate per annum equal to the costs of funds to GE at the time of the repurchase.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS

If GE exercises the option, it will have the following registration rights with respect to the option shares:

- subject to certain restrictions set forth in the stock option agreement, piggy-back registration rights which allow GE to participate in any registration of Imatron shares initiated by Imatron so long as GE is requesting participation with respect to at least 20% of the option shares; and
- subject to certain restrictions set forth in the stock option agreement, demand registration rights which allow GE to request that Imatron register GE's shares so long as GE is demanding registration of at least 20% of the option shares.

TERMINATION

The stock option agreement and the option terminate upon the earlier of:

- the closing of the merger; and
- the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

However, the option will not terminate until 12 months after a termination under certain circumstances related to a third party acquisition attempt, and, in such case, Imatron's repurchase right will not terminate until 90 days after the termination of GE's option.

MAXIMUM AMOUNT REALIZABLE BY GE

If GE exercises the option and then sells the stock received by GE under the option or if GE exercises its put right, GE may be required to give some of the money it makes on that sale to Imatron. If the sum of the gross proceeds from the sale of the option shares or the exercise of the put right and the amount of the termination fee received by GE exceeds the sum of $11,000,000, GE must pay to Imatron the amount in excess of $11,000,000 less the exercise price and the cost of discounts and commissions.

EFFECT OF THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

The option might increase the likelihood of closing the merger by discouraging competing offers to acquire Imatron. Imatron entered into the stock option agreement to induce GE to enter into the merger agreement. The stock option agreement may discourage persons who may be interested in acquiring all of or a significant interest in Imatron from considering or proposing an acquisition, even if they were prepared to offer to pay a higher price than $1.89 per share.

THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF SOME OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS. THIS SUMMARY IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS, WHICH ARE INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE IN ITS ENTIRETY AND ATTACHED TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AS ANNEXES D AND E. WE URGE YOU TO READ THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS IN THEIR ENTIRETY.

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, in order to induce GE to enter into the merger agreement, certain shareholders entered into shareholder agreements with GE.

SHARES SUBJECT TO THE SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENTS

The following shareholders entered into the shareholder agreements with respect to the number of shares next to their names:

SHAREHOLDER	OUTSTANDING SHARES	SHARES SUBJECT TO WARRANTS OR OPTIONS	WEIGHTED AVERAGE EXERCISE PRICE OF WARRANT OR OPTION	TOTAL
Douglas P. Boyd.....	1,942,042	175,008 (1)	$1.61	2,117,050

(1) Consists of options to purchase 100,000 shares at $1.70 per share, and 75,008 shares at $1.50 per share

(2) Consists of options to purchase 960,000 shares at $2.19 per share, 500,000 shares at $1.70 per share, and 100,000 shares at $1.50 per share

(3) Represents 70% of shares known to be beneficially owned by Mr. Ross.

(4) Consists of 70% of warrants to purchase 200,000 shares at $1.37 per share, and 360,000 shares at $1.04 per share.

COVENANTS

The shareholder agreements provide, among other things, that the shareholders subject to the agreements:

- will attend the special meeting in person or by proxy, and vote the shares subject to the agreements in favor of the approval of the merger and adoption of the merger agreement and of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

- will vote the shares subject to the agreements against: any merger agreement or merger other than the GE merger or other business combination or any other takeover proposal, or any amendment of the Imatron certificate of incorporation or the bylaws or other proposal or transaction which would in any manner impede, frustrate, prevent or nullify the merger, the merger agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- will not sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of or enter into any arrangement to transfer the shares subject to the agreements, or enter into any voting arrangement, whether by proxy, voting agreement or otherwise, in relation to the shares subject to the agreements;

- will not directly or through a representative solicit, initiate or encourage a third party to make a takeover proposal to Imatron, or take any action to facilitate any third party takeover proposal;
- will use their reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable to support and to close the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement;
- will notify GE in writing of the nature and amount of any acquisition by them of any voting securities of Imatron acquired by them after the date of the shareholder agreements;
- will not knowingly take or fail to take any action which would cause any of the representations and warranties set forth in the tax certificate attached to the shareholder agreements to be untrue or incorrect; and
- will revoke any and all prior proxies or powers of attorney in respect to any shares subject to the agreements and will irrevocably appoint GE and Ruby Merger Corp., at any time during the terms of the shareholder agreements, as its true and lawful attorney and proxy, for and in its name, place and stead, for any and all purposes, including without limitation, to demand that the Secretary of Imatron call a special meeting of the shareholders of Imatron for the purpose of considering any matter related to the merger agreement or voting against another takeover proposal, to vote each of the shares subject to the agreements as its proxy at every meeting of the shareholders of Imatron.

The agreements provide, however, that nothing in the agreement will be construed to limit such shareholder's ability to discharge such shareholder's fiduciary duties as a director of Imatron, including the right to vote for or support a superior offer or proposal.

OPTION GRANT

The shareholders granted to GE options to purchase the shares subject to each shareholder agreement. Each option has an exercise price of $1.89 per share, payable in cash. The options are exercisable only if one or more of the following events occurs:

- any person, entity or group acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;
- any group is formed which beneficially owns 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock;
- any person, entity or group commences a tender or exchange offer for 20%

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

or more of the outstanding Imatron common stock or publicly proposes any merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or substantially all the assets of Imatron, or similar business combination involving Imatron;

- Imatron enters into, or announces that it proposes to enter into, any agreement providing for a merger or other business combination involving Imatron or a significant subsidiary of Imatron or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, Imatron or a significant subsidiary of Imatron, other than the transaction contemplated in the merger agreement;
- any person, entity or group is granted any option or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire or otherwise become the beneficial owner of shares of Imatron common stock which, together with all shares of Imatron common stock beneficially owned by that person, entity or group, results or would result in such person being the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Imatron common stock; or

- there is a public announcement with respect to a plan or intention by Imatron to effect any of the foregoing transactions.

Additionally, GE may not exercise the option if:

- GE or Ruby Merger Corp. has breached any of its material obligations under the merger agreement;
- an injunction or other order issued by any federal or state court which invalidates the grant or prohibits the exercise of the option is in effect;
- the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act has not expired or been terminated; or
- the purchase of the shares will violate Rule 10b-13 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Shares subject to options or warrants that are held by the subject shareholders will become shares subject to the shareholder agreements upon issuance. However, GE does not have the power under the shareholder agreements to force the shareholders to exercise such rights.

TERMINATION

The shareholder agreements terminate on the earlier of six months (or sixty days in the case of Mr. Ross) after the termination of the merger agreement, and the effective time of the merger. However, if the merger agreement is terminated either by the mutual agreement of GE and Imatron or solely by Imatron because of a breach by GE of a covenant in the merger agreement; a material breach of a representation or warranty; the failure of the merger to close by June 15, 2002, or 75 days after the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, unless it follows receipt of a superior proposal; or the issuance of an order by any governmental entity permanently prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, then the shareholder agreements terminate immediately upon the termination of the merger agreement.

REGULATORY MATTERS

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and the rules of the Federal Trade Commission, the merger may not be consummated until notifications have been given and certain information has been furnished to the

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

FTC and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. GE and Imatron each filed notification and report forms with the FTC and the Department of Justice effective October 19, 2001.

GE and Imatron have also made, or expect to make, filings with regulatory authorities pursuant to antitrust laws in countries where such filing is required. It is currently anticipated that necessary clearances under these laws will be obtained prior to the special meeting.

GE and Imatron are not aware of any material governmental or regulatory approvals required to be obtained in order to consummate the merger, other than compliance with the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and foreign antitrust laws, mentioned above and applicable federal and state securities and corporate laws.

SUBMISSION OF FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Due to the contemplated closing of the merger, Imatron does not currently expect to hold a 2002 annual meeting of shareholders because, following the merger, Imatron will not be a publicly-traded company. If the merger is not consummated and the meeting is held, to be eligible for inclusion in Imatron's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the meeting, shareholders' proposals must be delivered to the Secretary of Imatron at the principal executive offices not less than 90 nor more than 120 calendar days in advance of the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting of shareholders.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF IMATRON SHAREHOLDERS AND GE STOCKHOLDERS

THE STATEMENTS SET FORTH UNDER THIS HEADING WITH RESPECT TO THE NEW JERSEY BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT ("NJBCA"), IMATRON'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, IMATRON'S BYLAWS, THE NEW YORK BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW ("NYBCL"), GE'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, AND GE'S BYLAWS, AS AMENDED, ARE BRIEF SUMMARIES AND DO NOT PURPORT TO BE COMPLETE. THE STATEMENTS IN THIS SECTION ARE QUALIFIED IN THEIR ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO AND ARE SUBJECT TO THE DETAILED PROVISIONS OF THE NYBCL, NJBCA, IMATRON'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, IMATRON'S BYLAWS, GE'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND GE'S BYLAWS.

After the merger, shareholders of Imatron will become stockholders of GE. Since GE is a New York corporation, the rights of the stockholders of GE are governed by the applicable laws of the State of New York, including the NYBCL, and by the GE charter and the GE bylaws. Since Imatron is a New Jersey corporation, the rights of the shareholders of Imatron are governed by the applicable laws of the State of New Jersey, including the NJBCA, and by the Imatron certificate of incorporation and the Imatron bylaws.

While there are similarities between the NYBCL and the NJBCA, as well as between the charters and bylaws of GE and Imatron, a number of differences exist. The following is a summary of some of these differences between the current rights of GE stockholders and Imatron shareholders under the NYBCL and the NJBCA, and under the charters and bylaws of GE and Imatron.

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK

GE. The authorized capital stock of GE currently consists of 13,250,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of (i) 13,200,000,000 shares of GE common stock, par value $0.06 per share, and (ii) 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share.

IMATRON. The authorized capital stock of Imatron currently consists of

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

160,000,000 shares of capital stock, consisting of (i) 150,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value per share and (ii) 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

VOTING RIGHTS

Under both the NYBCL and NJBCA, all matters submitted to stockholders for a vote at a meeting require, for approval, the presence of a quorum, consisting of holders of shares entitled to cast a majority of the votes at the meeting, and, except for the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast, unless otherwise provided by statute, a corporation's certificate of incorporation or, under the NYBCL, its bylaws. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation.

Neither GE common stock nor Imatron common stock is divided into classes. Each share of GE common stock and each share of Imatron common stock entitles the holder to one vote on each matter upon which shareholders have the right to vote.

Under the NYBCL, a plan of merger, consolidation, dissolution or disposition of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets is required to be approved (a) for corporations in existence on February 22, 1998 whose certificates of incorporation expressly so provide (or for corporations formed after that date), by a majority of the votes of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and (b) in the case of all other corporations, including GE, by two-thirds of the votes of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

Under the NJBCA, a plan of merger, consolidation, dissolution or disposition of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets is required to be approved (a) for corporations in existence before January 1, 1969, unless otherwise provided by statute or the corporation's certificate of incorporation, by two-thirds of the votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote thereon, and (b) in the case of all other corporations, including Imatron, by a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote thereon. However, no authorizing shareholder vote is required of a corporation surviving a merger unless required by the corporation's certificate of incorporation if:

- the plan of merger does not make an amendment of the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation which is required by the NJBCA to be approved by the shareholders;
- each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and rights immediately after;
- the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the voting shares issuable on conversion of other securities or on exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger will not exceed by more than 40% the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger, and
- the number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable on conversion of other securities or on exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than 40% the number of participating shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Under the NYBCL, amendments to a certificate of incorporation generally must be approved by the board of directors and a majority of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon at a meeting of stockholders. The NYBCL requires that any amendment to the certificate of incorporation of a provision specifying a higher vote requirement than that required by the NYBCL must be approved in compliance with such higher vote requirement.

The GE charter may be amended if the amendment is approved by a majority vote of the board of directors of GE and the affirmative vote of at least a majority of outstanding shares of GE common stock.

Under the NYBCL, except as otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, bylaws may be amended, repealed or adopted by a majority of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election of any directors. When so provided in the certificate of incorporation or a bylaw adopted by the stockholders, bylaws also may be amended, repealed or adopted by the board of directors by such vote as may be specified in the bylaws, which vote may be greater than the vote otherwise prescribed by the NYBCL, but any bylaw adopted by the board of directors may be amended or repealed by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon as provided by the NYBCL.

The GE charter confers upon the GE board the power to amend or repeal the GE bylaws, except that the GE board does not have the authority to amend or repeal any bylaw which is adopted by the GE stockholders after April 20, 1948, unless such authority is granted to the GE board by the specific provisions of a bylaw adopted by the GE stockholders. The GE bylaws provide that the GE bylaws also may be altered, amended or repealed, at any time, in the manner provided in the GE charter.

Under the NJBCA, a proposed amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation requires approval of the board of directors and an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon; provided that in the case of a corporation organized prior to January 1, 1969, the proposed amendment requires board approval and the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon, unless the corporation has adopted the majority voting requirement.

The Imatron certificate of incorporation may be amended in any manner permitted under New Jersey law. Imatron was incorporated after January 1, 1969.

Under the NJBCA, the board of directors of a corporation has the power to make, alter and repeal bylaws unless such power is reserved to the shareholders in the certificate of incorporation, but bylaws made by the board of directors may be altered or repealed or new bylaws may be adopted by the shareholders. In addition, the shareholders may prescribe in the bylaws that any bylaws made by shareholders shall not be altered or repealed by the board of directors.

Under the Imatron certificate of incorporation, the Imatron bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed or new bylaws may be adopted by the Imatron board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares at any annual or special meeting of the shareholders, if notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption is contained in the notice of such meeting or waiver of notice. Bylaws adopted by the Imatron board may be amended or repealed by the shareholders of Imatron. The Imatron bylaws contain provisions that are consistent with the foregoing, and also provide that any amendment or repeal of a bylaw concerning indemnification of officers and directors may only be prospective.

SPECIAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS; CONSENT TO ACTIONS OF STOCKHOLDERS IN LIEU OF

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

MEETING

SPECIAL MEETINGS. Under the NYBCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by any person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

The GE bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the GE board, or by the written request of stockholders holding 40% of the outstanding stock of GE.

Under the NJBCA, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the president or the board of directors, by such other officers, directors or shareholders as may be provided in the bylaws, or by the Superior Court of New Jersey, for good cause, upon the application of holders of at least 10% of all shares entitled to vote at a meeting.

The Imatron bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders of Imatron may be called at any time by the chairman of the board, the president, the board of directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors, or at the written request of holders of shares entitled to cast not less than a majority of the votes at the meeting. Shareholders are entitled to not less than 10 and no more than 60 days notice of any special meeting.

CONSENT OF STOCKHOLDERS IN LIEU OF MEETING. The NYBCL provides that stockholder action may be taken without a meeting upon the written consent of the holders of all the outstanding shares entitled to vote, and also allows, if the certificate of incorporation so provides, stockholder action without a meeting upon the written consent of holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Neither the GE charter nor the GE bylaws contains any provision with respect to actions by stockholders by written consent.

Similarly, the NJBCA allows any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders by statute or a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws to be taken without a meeting if all the shareholders entitled to vote thereon consent thereto in writing, except that in the case of an action to be taken under Chapter 10 of the NJBCA (business combinations), such action may be taken without a meeting only if all shareholders consent thereto in writing, or if all shareholders entitled to vote thereon consent thereto in writing and the corporation provides advance notification (in accordance with the NJBCA) to all other shareholders.

The NJBCA also allows, except as otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders at a meeting of shareholders, other than the annual election of directors, to be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, upon a written consent of holders of not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voting, subject, however, to compliance with statutorily prescribed notice and other requirements and, where required by the NJBCA, dissenters' rights.

The Imatron bylaws provide that any action required by statute to be taken at any meeting of the shareholders, or any action which may be taken at any meeting of shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

The NYBCL generally prohibits a domestic corporation from engaging in a business combination with an "interested stockholder" for a period of five years from the date the stockholder acquired the stock in such domestic corporation, unless certain conditions are met. An interested stockholder is one who is the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the corporation's stock or an affiliate or associate of the corporation who has within the previous five years, beneficially owned 20% or more of the corporation's then outstanding stock.

The domestic corporation may engage in a business combination with the interested stockholder within the five-year period if the interested stockholder's stock purchase made on his stock acquisition date (as defined below) was approved by the corporation's board of directors prior to the date the stockholder became an interested stockholder (the "stock acquisition date"). The business combination is also permitted if any of the following criteria are met:

- the business combination was approved by the board of directors prior to the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date or where the purchase of stock by the interested stockholder on the stockholder's stock acquisition date had been approved by the board of directors prior to the stockholder's stock acquisition date;
- the combination was approved by a majority of the outstanding voting stock not beneficially owned by the interested stockholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder at a meeting called no earlier than five years after the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date; or
- the consideration to be received by stockholders meets certain requirements of the NYBCL with respect to form and amount.

The NJBCA prohibits a corporation from engaging in a business combination with an "interested stockholder" for a period of five years after the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date, unless the board of directors approved the business combination prior to the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date. An interested stockholder is one who is the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the corporation's stock or an affiliate or associate of the corporation who has within the previous five years, beneficially owned 10% or more of the corporation's then outstanding stock. After five years from the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date, the NJBCA continues to prohibit a business combination with an interested stockholder unless:

- the board of directors approved the business combination prior to the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date,
- the business combination is approved by two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder, or
- the consideration to be received by stockholders meets certain requirements of the NJBCA with respect to form and amount.

BUSINESS CONDUCTED AT STOCKHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Under NYBCL, stockholders must be given notice of the time and place of every stockholder meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes of the meeting. The business permitted to be conducted at any special meeting of stockholders is limited to business related to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice of meeting of stockholders.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Under NJBCA, shareholders must be given written notice of the time, place and purpose or purposes of every shareholder meeting, except as otherwise provided in the NJBCA.

DIVIDENDS

Under the NYBCL, a corporation may pay dividends out of surplus; however, no dividends may be paid if the corporation is insolvent, if the dividend payment would render the corporation insolvent or if such payment would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the certificate of incorporation. Under the NJBCA, subject to any restrictions in its certificate of incorporation, a corporation may pay dividends unless, after the distribution of dividends, either of the following would occur:

- the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business, or
- the corporation's total assets would be less than its total liabilities.

DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS

The NYBCL provides that, upon compliance with the applicable statutory requirements and procedures, a dissenting stockholder has the right to receive payment of the fair value of such stockholder's shares if such stockholder objects to:

- certain mergers or consolidations to which the corporation is a party (but not if the corporation's shares are listed on a national securities exchange or quoted on NASDAQ-NMS);
- dispositions of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets requiring stockholder approval other than a transaction wholly for cash where the stockholder's approval thereof is conditioned upon the dissolution of the corporation and the distribution of substantially all of its net assets to stockholders within one year after the date of such transaction;
- specified share exchanges; or
- amendments to the certificate of incorporation which adversely affect the rights of such stockholder in specified respects.

The NJBCA similarly provides that a shareholder of a corporation is generally entitled to receive payment of the fair value of such shareholder's stock if such shareholder dissents from:

- a proposed merger or consolidation,

- stock exchange, or
- sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation.

However, unless otherwise provided for in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, dissenters' rights are not available to holders of shares that are registered on a national securities exchange or quoted on a national securities exchange. Currently, Imatron common stock is quoted on NASDAQ and its shares are held by more than 1,000 holders.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

WARRANTS OR OPTIONS

The NYBCL requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of stockholders for the corporation's issuance of any rights or options to directors, officers or other employees or for a plan to issue such rights or options.

Under the NJBCA, any plan involving the issuance of shares (including options) to directors, officers or other employees of a corporation must be adopted initially by the board of directors or a committee of the board.

NUMBER, TERM AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Under the NYBCL, the board of directors of a corporation must consist of one or more members. The number of directors may be fixed by the bylaws or by action of the stockholders or of the board of directors under the specific provisions of a bylaw adopted by the stockholders. The number of directors may be increased or decreased by amendment of the bylaws or by action of the stockholders or of the board of directors under the specific provisions of a bylaw adopted by the stockholders; provided that, if the board of directors is authorized by the bylaws to change the number of directors, whether by amending the bylaws or by taking action under the specific provisions of a bylaw adopted by the stockholders, such amendment or action will require the vote of a majority of the entire board of directors. Except where the certificate of incorporation or stockholder adopted bylaw provides for a classified board, directors are elected at each annual meeting, to hold office until the next annual meeting.

Under the NJBCA, the board of directors of a corporation also must consist of one or more members. Subject to any provision contained in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, a corporation's by-laws must specify either the number of directors, or that the number of directors shall not be less than a stated minimum or more than a stated maximum, with the actual number to be determined (except for the number constituting the first board) in accordance with the by-laws. Except where the certificate of incorporation provides for more than one class of directors, directors are elected at each annual meeting, to hold office until the next annual meeting

The GE charter provides that the GE board may not consist of less than 10 directors, with the exact number to be determined pursuant to the procedures set forth in the GE bylaws. The GE bylaws provide that the exact number of directors will be determined by a vote of the majority of the entire GE board, except that the number of directors for any year will be fixed by the stockholders of GE at any annual statutory meeting of the stockholders by a majority vote of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. The number of directors of GE is currently fixed at fifteen. The GE bylaws provide that directors shall be elected each year at the annual statutory meeting of stockholders. Directors of GE hold office until the next statutory meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are duly elected and have qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the GE board may be filled for the unexpired term by the GE board. Neither the GE charter nor the GE bylaws permits cumulative voting for the election of directors

The Imatron certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the board of directors must consist of at least three and not more than twelve members. Directors of Imatron hold office until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified. Any vacancy may be filled, until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders, by the Imatron board with the affirmative vote of the majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum. Neither the Imatron certificate of incorporation no the Imatron bylaws permits cumulative voting for the election of directors.

CLASSIFICATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Under the NYBCL, a corporation's certificate of incorporation or a stockholder adopted bylaw may provide that the directors be divided into either two, three or four classes. All classes must be as nearly equal in number as possible. Under the NJBCA, a corporation's board of directors may be divided into classes with staggered terms of office if the corporation's certificate of incorporation so provides. No class of directors can hold office for a term of less than one or more than 5 years and the term of at least one class must expire each year.

The GE charter does not contain a classified board provision. The Imatron certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors shall be divided into three classes of not less than two directors with staggered three-year terms of office.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

The NYBCL provides that any or all of the directors of a corporation may be removed for cause and, if the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation provide, without cause, by vote of the stockholders. A director may also be removed for cause by the board of directors if the certificate of incorporation or a stockholder-adopted bylaw so provides.

Under the NJBCA, a director may generally be removed by the shareholders, with or, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote for the election of directors (subject to any greater voting requirement provided in the certificate of incorporation). A director may also be removed for cause by the board of directors if the certificate of incorporation or a shareholder-adopted bylaw so provides.

Neither the GE charter nor the GE bylaws provides for removal of GE directors. Consequently, GE directors may be removed only for cause by vote of the stockholders of GE.

The Imatron bylaws provide that directors of Imatron may be removed with or without cause upon the vote a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors.

TRANSACTIONS WITH INTERESTED DIRECTORS

Generally, under the NYBCL and NJBCA, a contract or transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors, or between a corporation and any other entity in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, is not void or voidable solely because of such relationship or interest, if any of the following is true:

- the material facts of the contract or transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction, under the NJBCA, by unanimous written consent (as long as one director is disinterested) or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors (even though less than a quorum), and under the NYBCL, by a vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote of the interested director or, if the votes of the disinterested directors are insufficient to constitute an act of the board, by unanimous vote of the disinterested directors;

63

- the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to shareholders entitled to vote thereon, and such contract or transaction is approved in good faith by a vote of such shareholders; or
- under the NJBCA, the contract or transaction is fair to the corporation as of the time it was approved by the board, a committee or the shareholders.

INDEMNIFICATION; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Both the NYBCL and the NJBCA allow a corporation to indemnify a director or officer for certain expenses, liabilities and other amounts incurred by such person in connection with legal proceedings.

The NYBCL requires that, prior to making any indemnification, a determination must be made that the indemnified person has met the applicable statutory standard of conduct. Unless otherwise ordered by a court, that determination is made by (i) a quorum of disinterested directors, (ii) the board, acting upon the written opinion of independent legal counsel if so directed by a quorum of disinterested directors or if a quorum of disinterested directors is not obtainable, or (iii) by the company's shareholders.

The NJBCA requires that, prior to making any indemnification, a determination must be made that the indemnified person has met the applicable statutory standard of conduct. Unless otherwise provided by the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, that determination is made by (i) a quorum of disinterested directors or a committee thereof, (ii) independent legal counsel if so directed by a quorum of disinterested directors or if a quorum of disinterested directors is not obtainable, or (iii) by the company's shareholders if so directed by the certificate of incorporation, bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors or shareholders.

Both statutes allow for the advance payment of expenses prior to the final disposition of an action upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the company.

The NJBCA permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director or officer will not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for breach of any duty owed to the corporation or its shareholders except that such provision will not relieve a director or officer from liability based upon an act or omission:

- in breach of such person's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders,
- not in good faith or involving a violation of law, or
- resulting in receipt by such person of an improper personal benefit

The NYBCL contains a similar provision, but allows a corporation so to limit the liability only of directors, not officers, of the corporation.

The GE charter provides that a person who is or was a director of GE will have no personal liability to GE or its stockholders for damages for any breach of duty except there is no limitation of liability where such liability is imposed under the NYBCL. The GE bylaws provide that GE shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify any person who is or was or has agreed to become a director of GE against damages, provided that no indemnification may be provided to any person if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director establishes that

- his or her acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and, in either case, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated, or

- he or she personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which he or she was not legally entitled

The Imatron bylaws provide that directors, officers and employees of the corporation will be indemnified by the corporation against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement for actions taken by them which they believed to be in the best interests in, or not opposed to the best interests of, the corporation, and, with respect to criminal actions, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. The corporation's determination that an individual has a right to indemnification will be made in accordance with the requirements of the NJBCA.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, representations, warranties and agreements herein contained, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I PLAN OF MERGER

SECTION 1.1 THE MERGER. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, and in accordance with the New Jersey Business Corporation Act (the "NJBCA"), Sub shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2). Following the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the "SURVIVING CORPORATION") and shall succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of Sub in accordance with the NJBCA. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, at the election of Parent, any direct wholly-owned Subsidiary (as hereinafter defined) of Parent may be substituted for Sub as a constituent corporation in the Merger. In such event, the parties agree to execute an appropriate amendment to this Agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent and the Company, in order to reflect such substitution.

SECTION 1.2 EFFECTIVE TIME. The Merger shall become effective when the certificate of merger (the "CERTIFICATE OF MERGER"), executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the NJBCA, and attaching the "PLAN OF MERGER" in the form of Exhibit C, is filed with the Treasurer of the State of New Jersey; provided, however, that, upon mutual consent of the Constituent Corporations, the Certificate of Merger may provide for a later date of effectiveness of the Merger not more than 90 days after the date the Certificate of Merger is filed. When used in this Agreement, the term "EFFECTIVE TIME" shall mean the date and time at which the Certificate of Merger is accepted for filing or such later time established by the Certificate of Merger. The filing of the Certificate of Merger shall be made on the date of the Closing (as defined in Section 1.14).

SECTION 1.3 EFFECTS OF THE MERGER. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and applicable provisions of the NJBCA.

SECTION 1.4 CHARTER AND BY-LAWS; DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

(a) The Certificate of Incorporation of the Company in effect at the Effective Time will be amended in its entirety at the Effective Time to read as set forth in EXHIBIT D hereto and shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law. The By-laws of Sub in effect at the Effective Time will be the By-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

(b) The directors of Sub at the Effective Time shall automatically, and without further action, be the directors of the Surviving Corporation, until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. The officers of Sub at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation, until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

SECTION 1.5 CONVERSION OF SECURITIES. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Sub, the Company or the holders of any securities of the Constituent Corporations:

(a) Each issued and outstanding share of common stock, no par value per share, of Sub shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) All shares of Company Common Stock that are owned by Parent or Sub shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist and no capital stock of Parent or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1.8 hereof, each share of Common Stock, no par value per share, of the Company ("COMPANY COMMON STOCK") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 1.5(b)) shall be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of common stock, par value $0.06 per share, of the Parent ("PARENT COMMON STOCK") determined by dividing $1.89 by the Average Parent Share Price (as defined below) and rounding the result to the nearest one thousandth of a share (the "MERGER CONSIDERATION"); provided, however, that if between the first day of the Valuation Period (as defined below) and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class, by reason of any stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination or exchange of shares, the Merger Consideration shall be correspondingly adjusted to the extent appropriate to reflect such stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination or exchange of shares. The "AVERAGE PARENT SHARE PRICE" means the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of Parent Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange Tape for each of the 10 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the Closing Date, or, if such ending date does not fall on a trading day, then the trading day immediately preceding the fifth calendar day prior to the Closing Date (the "VALUATION PERIOD"). All such shares of Company Common Stock, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive any dividends and other distributions in accordance with Section 1.7, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock into which such shares are converted and any cash, without interest, in lieu of fractional shares to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon the surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 1.6.

SECTION 1.6 PARENT TO MAKE CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE.

(a) EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES. Parent shall authorize a bank, trust company, or such other person or persons as shall be reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company, to act as Exchange Agent hereunder (the "EXCHANGE AGENT"). As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, in trust for the holders of shares of Company Common Stock converted in the Merger, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 1.5(c) in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and cash, as required to make payments in lieu of any fractional shares pursuant to Section 1.8 (such cash and shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the "EXCHANGE FUND"). The Exchange Agent shall deliver the Parent Common Stock contemplated to be issued pursuant to Section 1.5(c) out of the

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Section 1.9, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) EXCHANGE PROCEDURES. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each record holder of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock converted in the Merger (the "CERTIFICATES") a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon actual delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and shall contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares). (c) Except as set forth on Section 3.11(c) of the Company Letter, each Significant Contract is a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Company or its Subsidiaries, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries (or to the Knowledge of the Company, any other party thereto) is in default under any Significant Contract, and none of such Significant Contracts has been canceled by the other party thereto; each Significant Contract is in full force and effect and no event has occurred which, with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute a default, event of default or other breach by the Company or any Subsidiary party thereto which would entitle the other party to such Significant Contract to terminate the same or declare a default or event of default thereunder; the Company and the Subsidiaries are not in receipt of any claim of default under any such agreement; in each instance, except where it would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

(b) Except as listed in Section 3.12(b) of the Company Letter, with respect to the Company Plans, no event has occurred and there exists no condition or set of circumstances in connection with which the Company or any Subsidiary or ERISA Affiliate or Company Plan fiduciary could be subject to any liability under the terms of such Company Plans, ERISA, the Code or any other applicable law which would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. All Company Plans that are intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code have been determined by the IRS to be so qualified, or a timely application for such determination is now pending, and nothing has occurred with respect to the operation of such Company Plans which could cause the loss of such qualification or the imposition of any liability, penalty or tax under ERISA or the Code. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries or ERISA Affiliates has been notified by any Company Multiemployer Plan that such Company Multiemployer Plan is currently in reorganization or insolvency under and within the meaning of Section 4241 or 4245 of ERISA or that such Company Multiemployer Plan intends to terminate or has been terminated under Section 4041A of ERISA. No event has occurred and there exists no condition or set of circumstances that would result in a material increase in the contributions required to be made to any Company Multiemployer Plan by the Company or any Subsidiary or ERISA Affiliate. Except as disclosed in Section 3.12(b) of the Company Letter, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries or ERISA Affiliates has any liability or obligation under any welfare plan to provide benefits after termination of employment to any employee or dependent other than as required by Section 4980B of the Code. The Company and all ERISA Affiliates have at all times complied with the notice and continuation requirements of Code Section 4980B and ERISA Section 601. Neither the Company nor any ERISA Affiliate has incurred any liability for any tax imposed under Section 4971 through 4980B of the Code or civil liability under Section 502(i) or (1) of ERISA.

(d) Section 3.12(d) of the Company Letter contains a list of all (i) severance and employment agreements with employees of the Company and each Subsidiary and ERISA Affiliate, (ii) severance programs and policies of the Company and each Subsidiary and ERISA Affiliate with or relating to its employees and (iii) plans, programs, agreements and other arrangements of the Company and each Subsidiary and ERISA Affiliate with or relating to its employees containing change of control or similar provisions.

(e) Except as set forth in Section 3.12(e) of the Company Letter, with respect to each Company Plan not subject to United States law (a "COMPANY FOREIGN BENEFIT PLAN"), except as would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company, (i) the fair market value of the assets of each funded Company Foreign Benefit Plan, the liability of each insurer for any Company Foreign Benefit Plan funded through insurance or the reserve shown on the Company's consolidated financial statements for any unfunded Company Foreign Benefit Plan, together with any accrued contributions, is sufficient to procure or provide for the projected benefit obligations, as of the Effective Time, with respect to all current and former participants in such plan according reasonable, country specific actuarial assumptions and valuations and no transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall cause such assets or insurance obligations or book reserve to be less than such projected benefit obligations; and (ii) each Company Foreign Benefit Plan required to be registered has been registered and has been maintained in good standing with the appropriate regulatory authorities. No action has been taken, or is currently being considered, to terminate or withdraw from any Company Foreign Benefit Plan.

Except as set forth in Section 3.24 of the Company Letter, the Company or one of its Subsidiaries has fulfilled and performed its obligations under each such agreement, and neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in, or alleged to be in, breach or default thereunder, nor is there or is there alleged to be any basis for termination thereof, and, to the Knowledge of the Company, no other party to any such agreement has breached or defaulted thereunder or has acted or failed to act in any manner that is reasonably likely to result in criminal charges or claims for material damages being brought against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; and except as set forth in Section 3.24 of the Company Letter, no event has occurred and no condition or state of facts exists which, with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default or breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or by any such other party.

SECTION 3.25 INSURANCE. Such assets, together with all assets held by the Company and its Subsidiaries under leases, include all tangible and intangible personal property, contracts and rights necessary or required for the operation of the businesses of the Company as presently conducted.

(b) As of the date hereof, the Company and its Subsidiaries will own, good and marketable title to all of their Real Estate which is material to such persons (excluding, for purposes of this sentence, Real Estate leases) free and clear of any and all Liens, except as set forth in the Company SEC Documents filed with the SEC prior to the date hereof or in Section 3.28 of the Company Letter or such other Liens on Real Estate which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. Such Real Estate assets, together with all Real Estate assets. All Real Estate leases held by the Company and its Subsidiaries, are adequate for the operation of the businesses of the Company as presently conducted. The leases to all Real Estate occupied by the Company and the Subsidiaries are in full force and effect and no event has occurred which with the passage of time, the giving of notice, or both, would constitute a default or event of default by the Company or any Subsidiary or, to the Knowledge of the Company, any other person who is a party signatory thereto, other than such defaults or events of default which, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. SECTION 5.13 SUSPENSION OF 1994 EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN. The Company shall amend, effective as of the date hereof, the 1994 Employee Stock Purchase Plan to halt purchases under the plan at the end of the payroll period in which this Agreement is executed.

SECTION 5.14 EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS. For the first year following the Effective Time while employed by the Surviving Corporation, employees of the Surviving Corporation will receive base wages and salaries at rates no less favorable to such employees than the rates of base wages and salaries paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to such employees on the date of this Agreement (excluding bonuses and other variable pay). For a period of one year immediately following the Effective Time, Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect employee benefit plans and arrangements which provide benefits which have a value which is substantially comparable, in the aggregate, to the benefits provided by the benefits plans of the Company on the date of this Agreement (not taking into account the value of any benefits under any such plans which are equity based). For purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and accrual or entitlement to benefits where length of service is relevant under any employee benefit plan or arrangement of the Surviving Corporation, employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time shall receive service credit for service with the Company and its Subsidiaries to the same extent such credit was granted under the Company Plans, subject to offsets for previously accrued benefits and no duplication of benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 5.14 shall require any action on the part of Parent or the Surviving Corporation with respect to any employees subject the foreign laws or regulations relating to employee benefits.

(ii) In obtaining any approval or consent required to consummate any of the transactions contemplated herein, in the Stock Option Agreement or the Shareholder Agreement, no Governmental Entity shall have imposed or shall have sought to impose any condition, penalty or requirement which, in the reasonable opinion of Parent, individually or in aggregate would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or Parent.

determination of Parent.

(k) TERMINATION OF 401(K) PLAN. ARTICLE VII TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 7.1 TERMINATION. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after any approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if the other party shall have failed to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement required to be complied with prior to the date of such termination, which failure to comply has not been cured within five business days following receipt by such other party of written notice of such failure to comply;

(c) by Parent if (i) there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of the Company that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of the Parent's and Sub's obligations to effect the Merger pursuant to Section 6.3(a)(ii) or by Company if (ii) there has been a breach of a representation or warranty of the Parent or Sub that gives rise to a failure of the fulfillment of a condition of the Company's obligations to effect the Merger pursuant to Section 6.2(a)(ii), in each case which breach has not been cured within five business days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of the breach;

(d) by either Parent or the Company if:

(i) the Merger has not been effected on or prior to the close of business on the later of June 15, 2002, or the date 75 days after the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the HSR Act has expired or been terminated; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(d)(i) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any of its obligations contained in this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Merger to have occurred on or prior to the aforesaid date; or

(ii) Any court or other Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over a party hereto shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (which order, decree, ruling or other action the parties shall have used their reasonable efforts to resist, resolve or lift, as applicable, subject to the provisions of Section 5.8) permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

(e) By either Parent or the Company if the shareholders of the Company do not approve this Agreement at the Shareholder Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof;

(f) By Parent if

(i) The Board of Directors of the Company shall not have recommended, or shall have resolved not to recommend, or shall have qualified, changed, modified or withdrawn its recommendation of the Merger or declaration that the Merger is advisable and fair to and in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, or shall have resolved to do so,

(ii) The Board of Directors of the Company, shall have recommended to the shareholders of the Company any Takeover Proposal or shall have resolved to do so, or

(iii) A tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding stocks of capital stock of the Company is commenced by a third party that is not an Affiliate of Parent, and the Board of Directors of the Company fails to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its shareholders (including by taking no position with respect to the acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its shareholders);

(g) By Parent or the Company if the Company enters into a merger, acquisition or other agreement (including an agreement in principle) to effect a Superior Proposal or the Board of Directors of the Company resolves to do so; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(g) unless (i) the Company has delivered to Parent a written notice of the Company's intent to enter into such an agreement to effect the Superior Proposal, (ii) 48 hours have elapsed following delivery to Parent of such written notice by the Company and (iii) during such 48-hour period the Company has fully cooperated with Parent, including informing Parent of the terms and conditions of the Takeover Proposal and the identity of the person making the Takeover Proposal, with the intent of enabling Parent to agree to a modification of the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be effected; PROVIDED, FURTHER, that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(g) unless at the end of such 48 hour period the Board of Directors of the Company continues reasonably to believe that the Takeover Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal when compared to the Merger (taking into account any such modification as may be proposed by Parent) and concurrently with such termination the Company pays to Parent the amounts specified under Sections 5.6(a), (b) and (c);

(h) By Company if the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the HSR Act has not expired or been terminated on or prior to June 15, 2002; or

(i) By Parent if the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the HSR Act has not expired or been terminated on or prior to June 15, 2002.

The right of any party hereto to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any party hereto, any person controlling any such party or any of their respective officers or directors, whether prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.2 EFFECT OF TERMINATION. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or the Company, as provided in Section 7.1, this

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability hereunder on the part of the Company, Parent, Sub or their respective officers or directors (except for the last sentence of Section 5.3 and the entirety of Section 5.6, which shall survive the termination); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing contained in this Section 7.2 shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any willful breach of a representation or warranty contained in this Agreement or the breach of any covenant contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 7.3 AMENDMENT. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by or pursuant to action taken by their respective Boards of Directors, in the case of Sub or the Company, or a Senior Vice President of Parent, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of the Company, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by law or the rules of the Nasdaq National Market requires further approval by such shareholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

SECTION 7.4 WAIVER. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein which may legally be waived. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. No delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any waiver on the part of any party hereto of any right, power or privilege hereunder operate as a waiver of any other right, power or privilege hereunder, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder. Unless otherwise provided, the rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies which the parties hereto may otherwise have at law or in equity. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

ARTICLE VIII GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 8.1 NON-SURVIVAL OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; NO OTHER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The representations and warranties in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall terminate at the Effective Time. Each party hereto agrees that, except for the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, or the documents, certificates and instruments contemplated hereby, none of the Company, Parent or Sub makes any other representations and warranties, and each hereby disclaims any other representations and warranties made by itself or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, financial and legal advisors or other representatives, with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the documents and the instruments referred to herein, or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, notwithstanding the delivery or disclosure to the other party or the other party's representatives of any documentation or other information with respect to any one or more of the foregoing.

SECTION 8.3 INTERPRETATION.

(a) When a reference is made in this Agreement to a Section, such reference shall be to a Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation."

(b) "SUBSIDIARY" means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture or other legal entity of which Parent or Company, as the case may be (either alone or through or together with any other Subsidiary), owns or controls, directly or indirectly, 50% or more of the stock or other equity interests the holders of which are generally entitled to vote for the election of the board of directors or other governing body of such corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture or other legal entity.

SECTION 8.4 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

A-45

SECTION 8.5 ENTIRE AGREEMENT; NO THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES. This Agreement, except for the Stock Option Agreement and as provided in the last sentence of Section 5.3, constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement, except for the provisions of Section 5.11, is not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder.

SECTION 8.6 GOVERNING LAW. Except to the extent that the laws of the State of New Jersey are mandatorily applicable to the Merger, this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws thereof.

SECTION 8.7 ASSIGNMENT. Subject to Section 1.1, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors or assigns.

SECTION 8.8 SEVERABILITY. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law, or public policy, all other terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic and legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby are not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

SECTION 8.9 ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof such remedy being in addition to any other remedy to which any party is entitled at law or in equity. Each party hereto irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Each party hereto waives any right to a trial by jury in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding and waives any objection based on forum non conveniens or any other objection to venue thereof.

SECTION 8.10 PERFORMANCE BY SUB. Parent hereby agrees to cause Sub to comply with its obligations hereunder and to cause Sub to consummate the Merger as contemplated herein and whenever this Agreement requires Sub to take any action, such requirement shall be deemed to include an undertaking of Parent to

Members of the Board:

We understand that the General Electric Company, a New York corporation ("Parent"), Ruby Merger Corp., a New Jersey corporation and a subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), and Imatron Inc., a New Jersey corporation ("Company"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into Company, which will be the surviving entity (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the Merger, as more fully described in the draft dated September 20, 2001 of the Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding share of common stock, no par value per share, of Company ("Company Common Stock"), excluding shares held by Parent or Merger Sub, will be converted into the right to receive that number of shares of common stock, $0.06 par value per share, of Parent ("Parent Common Stock") determined by dividing $1.89 by the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices per share of Parent Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange Tape for each of the ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day which is five calendar days prior to the closing of the Merger, or, if such ending date does not fall on a trading day, then the trading day immediately preceding the fifth calendar day prior to the closing of the Merger, subject to certain adjustments (such consideration to be paid pursuant to the Merger for each share of Company Common Stock shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Merger Consideration"). The terms and conditions of the Merger are set forth in more detail in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as investment bankers as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of Company (other than Parent and Merger Sub) pursuant to the Merger is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof. As you are aware, we were not retained to nor did we advise Company with respect to alternatives to the Merger or Company's underlying decision to proceed with or effect the Merger. Further, we were not requested to nor did we solicit or assist Company in soliciting indications of interest from third parties for all or any part of Company.

In connection with our opinion, we have, among other things, (i) reviewed certain publicly available financial and other data with respect to Company and Parent, including the consolidated financial statements for the most recent year ending December 31, 2000 and the interim periods ending June 30, 2001 and certain other relevant financial and operating data relating to Company and Parent made available to us from published sources and from the internal records of Company; (ii) reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the draft dated September 20, 2001 of the Merger Agreement; (iii) reviewed certain publicly available information concerning the stock market trading history for Parent Common Stock and Company Common Stock; (iv) compared Company and Parent from a financial point of view with certain other companies in the medical equipment industry which we deem to be relevant; (v) considered the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected recent business combinations of companies in the medical equipment industry which we deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to the Merger; (vi) reviewed and discussed with representatives of the management of Company certain information of a business and financial nature regarding Company, furnished to us by them, including financial forecasts and related assumptions of Company; (vii) made inquiries regarding and discussed the Merger and the Merger Agreement and other matters related thereto with Company's counsel; and (viii) performed such other analyses and examinations as we have deemed appropriate.

In connection with our review, we have not assumed any obligation independently to verify the foregoing information and have relied on its being accurate and complete in all material respects. With respect to the financial forecasts for Company provided to us by Company's management, upon their advice and with your consent we have assumed for purposes of our opinion that the forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best available estimates and judgments of Company's management at the time of preparation as to the future financial performance of Company and that they provide a reasonable basis upon which we can form our opinion. We have also assumed that there have been no material changes in Company's or Parent's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the respective dates of their last financial statements made available to us, except to reflect changes which were publicly disclosed by Parent. We have relied on advice of counsel and independent accountants to Company as to all legal and financial reporting matters with respect to Company, the Merger and the Merger Agreement. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. In addition, we have not assumed responsibility for making an independent evaluation, appraisal or physical inspection of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Company or Parent, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. The Company management team has informed us, and we have assumed, that the Merger will be recorded as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles. Finally, our opinion is based on economic, monetary and market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Since this opinion is being rendered during a period of significant and uncommon volatility in the capital markets, it is subject to the absence of further material changes in economic, monetary, market and other conditions from those existing on the date hereof. Accordingly, although subsequent developments may affect this opinion, we have not assumed any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion.

We have further assumed with your consent that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms described in the draft dated September 20, 2001 of the Merger Agreement, without any further amendments thereto, and without waiver by Company of any of the conditions to its obligations thereunder.

We have been engaged to render a fairness opinion with respect to the Merger Consideration and will receive a fee for our services. In the ordinary course of our business, we actively trade the equity securities of both Parent and Company for our own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Based upon the foregoing and in reliance thereon, it is our opinion as investment bankers that the Merger Consideration to be received by shareholders of Company (other than Parent and Merger Sub) pursuant to the Merger is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof.

This opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Company in its consideration of the Merger and is not a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Merger. Further, this opinion addresses only the financial fairness of the Merger Consideration to the shareholders of Company and does not address the relative merits of the Merger and any alternatives to the Merger, Company's underlying decision to proceed with or effect the Merger, or any other aspect of the Merger. This opinion may not be used or referred to by Company, or quoted or disclosed to any person in any manner, without our prior written consent, which consent is hereby given to the inclusion of this opinion in the proxy statement/prospectus to be filed with the Securities and

Exchange Commission in connection with the Merger, provided that this opinion be disclosed in its entirety in such proxy statement/prospectus and that any description of or reference to us or summary of this opinion or related valuation analyses be in form and substance acceptable to us and our legal counsel. In furnishing this opinion, we do not admit that we are experts within the meaning of the term "experts" as used in the Securities Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, nor do we admit that this opinion constitutes a report or valuation within the meaning of the Section 11 of the Securities Act.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Very truly yours,

THOMAS WEISEL PARTNERS LLC

ANNEX C

STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, dated as of September 21, 2001 (the "AGREEMENT"), between General Electric Company, a New York corporation ("PARENT"), and Imatron Inc., a New Jersey corporation (the "COMPANY").

RECITALS

A. Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Parent, Ruby Merger Corp., a newly formed New Jersey corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("SUB"), and the Company are entering into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the "MERGER AGREEMENT"), which provides for the merger of Sub with and into the Company (the "Merger");

B. As a condition to Parent's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, Parent has requested that the Company grant to Parent an option to purchase up to 19.9% of the authorized and unissued shares of Company Common Stock, upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof; and

C. In order to induce Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed to grant Parent the requested option.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. THE OPTION; EXERCISE; ADJUSTMENTS. The Company hereby grants to Parent an irrevocable option (the "OPTION") to purchase from time to time up to a number of shares equal to 19.9% of the authorized and issued shares of Common Stock, no par value per share, of the Company (the "COMPANY COMMON STOCK") outstanding at the time of the Stock Exercise Notice (as defined below), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein (the "OPTIONED SHARES"). Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 2, the Option may be exercised by Parent in whole or from time to time in part, at any time following the occurrence of a Triggering Event (as defined below) and prior to the termination of the Option in accordance with Section 19. If Parent wishes to exercise the Option, Parent shall send a written notice to the Company (the "STOCK EXERCISE NOTICE") specifying the total number of Optioned Shares it wishes to purchase and a date (not later than 20 business days and not earlier than two business days from the date such notice is given) for the closing of such purchase (the "CLOSING DATE"). Parent may revoke an exercise of the Option at any time prior to the Closing Date by written notice to the Company. If any change in the number of issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock by reason of any stock dividend, stock split, split-up, recapitalization, merger or other change in the corporate or capital structure of the Company, the number of Optioned Shares subject to the Option and the Exercise Price (as hereinafter defined) per Optioned Share shall be appropriately adjusted. In the event that any additional shares of Company Common Stock are issued after the date of this Agreement (other than pursuant to an event described in the preceding sentence or pursuant to this Agreement), the number of Optioned Shares subject to the Option shall be adjusted so that, after such issuance, it equals (but does not exceed) 19.9% of the number of shares of Company Common Stock then issued and outstanding and 19.9% of the voting power of shares of capital stock of the Company then issued and outstanding, after reduction, to the extent necessary to comply with the exception to the shareholder approval requirements of the Nasdaq National Market ("NASDAQ") for any shares issued pursuant to the Option.

C-1

2. CONDITIONS TO EXERCISE OF OPTION AND DELIVERY OF OPTIONED SHARES.

(a) Parent's right to exercise the Option is subject to the following conditions:

(i) Neither Parent nor Sub shall have breached any of its material obligations under the Merger Agreement;

(ii) No preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction in the United States invalidating the grant or prohibiting the exercise of the Option or the delivery of the Optioned Shares shall be in effect;

(iii) All waiting periods under the HSR Act (as defined below) that are applicable to the exercise of the Option shall have expired or been terminated; and

(iv) One or more of the following events (a "TRIGGERING EVENT") shall have occurred on or after the date hereof: (A) any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity or group (such person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity or group, other than Parent or an affiliate of Parent, being referred to hereinafter, singularly or collectively, as a "PERSON"), acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock; (B) any group is formed which beneficially owns 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock; (C) any Person shall have commenced a tender or exchange offer for 20% or more of the then outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or publicly proposed any bona fide merger, consolidation or acquisition of all or substantially all the assets of the Company, or other similar business combination involving the Company; (D) the Company enters into, or announces that it proposes to enter into, an agreement, including, without limitation, an agreement in principle, providing for a merger or other business combination involving the Company or a "significant subsidiary" (as defined in Rule 1.02(w) of Regulation S-X as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC")) of the Company or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, the Company or a significant subsidiary (other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement); (E) any Person is granted any option or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire or otherwise become the beneficial owner of shares of Company Common Stock which, together with all shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by such Person, results or would result in such Person being the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock; or (F) there is a public announcement with respect to a plan or intention by the Company, other than Parent or its affiliates, to effect any of the foregoing transactions. For purposes of this subparagraph (iv), the terms "group" and "beneficial owner" shall be defined by reference to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "EXCHANGE ACT"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) Parent's obligation to purchase the Optioned Shares following the exercise of the Option, and the Company's obligation to deliver the Optioned Shares, are subject to the conditions that:

(i) No preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction in the United States prohibiting the delivery of the Optioned Shares shall be in effect;

(ii) The purchase of the Optioned Shares will not violate Rule 10b-18 promulgated under the Exchange Act; and

(iii) All waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR ACT") applicable to the exercise of the Option shall have expired or been terminated.

C-2

3. EXERCISE PRICE FOR OPTIONED SHARES. At any Closing Date, the Company will deliver to Parent a certificate or certificates representing the Optioned Shares in the denominations designated by Parent in its Stock Exercise Notice and Parent will purchase the Optioned Shares from the Company at a price per Optioned Share equal to $1.89 (the "EXERCISE PRICE"), payable in cash. Payment made by Parent to the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer of federal funds to a bank designated by the Company or a check payable in immediately available funds. After payment of the Exercise Price for the Optioned Shares covered by the Stock Exercise Notice, the Option shall be deemed exercised to the extent of the Optioned Shares specified in the Stock Exercise Notice as of the date such Stock Exercise Notice is given to the Company.

4. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY. The Company represents and warrants to Parent that (a) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms; (b) the Company has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize and reserve the Optioned Shares for issuance upon exercise of the Option, and the Optioned Shares, when issued and delivered by the Company to Parent upon exercise of the Option, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights; (c) except as otherwise required by the HSR Act and, except for filings required under the blue sky laws of any states and routine filings and subject to Section 7, the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby do not require the consent, approval or authorization of, or filing with, any person or public authority and will not violate or conflict with the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, or Bylaws, or result in the acceleration or termination of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, license, approval, agreement, understanding or other instrument, or any statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order or other restriction binding upon or applicable to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective properties or assets; (d) the Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of New Jersey and has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; and (e) the Company has taken all appropriate actions so that the restrictions on business combinations contained in the New Jersey Corporation Takeover Bid Disclosure Law and the Business Corporation Act of New Jersey will not apply with respect to or as a result of the transactions contemplated hereby.

5. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT. Parent represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Parent and this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Parent; and (b) Parent is acquiring the Option and, if and when it exercises the Option, will be acquiring the Optioned Shares issuable upon the exercise thereof, for its own account and not with a view to distribution or resale in any manner which would be in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "SECURITIES ACT"), and will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Optioned Shares except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or a valid exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

6. THE CLOSING. Any closing hereunder shall take place on the Closing Date specified by Parent in its Stock Exercise Notice pursuant to Section 1 at 10:00 A.M., local time, or the first business day thereafter on which all of the conditions in Section 2 are met, at the principal executive office of the Company, or at such other time and place as the parties hereto may agree.

7. FILINGS RELATED TO OPTIONED SHARES. The Company will make such filings with the SEC as are required by the Exchange Act, and will use its best efforts to effect all necessary filings by the Company under the HSR Act and to have the Optioned Shares approved for quotation on NASDAQ.

C-3

8. REGISTRATION RIGHTS. (a) If the Company effects any registration or registrations of shares of Company Common Stock under the Securities Act for its own account or for any other shareholder of the Company at any time after the exercise of the Option (other than a registration on Form S-4, Form S-8 or any successor forms), it will allow Parent to participate in such registration or registrations with respect to any or all of the Optioned Shares acquired upon the exercise of the Option; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that any request of Parent pursuant to this Section 8(a) shall be with respect to at least 20% of the Optioned Shares and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that if the managing underwriters in such offering advise the Company that, in their written opinion, the number of Optioned Shares requested by Parent to be included in such registration exceeds the number of shares of Company Common Stock which can be sold in such offering, the Company may exclude from such registration all or a portion, as may be appropriate, of the Optioned Shares requested for inclusion by Parent.

(b) At any time after the exercise of the Option, upon the request of Parent, the Company will promptly file and use its best efforts to cause to be declared effective a registration statement under the Securities Act (and applicable Blue Sky statutes) with respect to any or all of the Optioned Shares acquired upon the exercise of the Option; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that any request of Parent pursuant to this Section 8(b) shall be with respect to at least 20% of the Optioned Shares and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that the Company shall not be required to have declared effective more than two registration statements hereunder and shall be entitled to delay the effectiveness of each such registration statement, for a single period not to exceed 90 days during any 365 day period, if the commencement of such offering would, in the reasonable good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company, require premature disclosure of any material corporate development or otherwise materially interfere with or materially adversely affect any pending or proposed offering of securities of the Company. In connection with any such registration requested by Parent, the costs of such registration (other than fees of Parent's counsel and underwriting fees and commissions) shall be borne by the Company, and the Company and Parent each shall provide the other and any underwriters with customary indemnification and contribution agreements.

9. OPTIONAL PUT; OPTIONAL REPURCHASE.

(a) Prior to the termination of the Option in accordance with Section 19, if a Put Event has occurred, Parent shall have the right, upon three business days' prior written notice to the Company, to require the Company to purchase the Option from Parent (the "PUT RIGHT") at a cash purchase price (the "PUT PRICE") equal to the product determined by multiplying (A) the number of Optioned Shares as to which the Option has not yet been exercised by (B) the Spread (as defined below). As used herein, "PUT EVENT" means the occurrence on or after the date hereof of any of the following: (i) any Person (other than Parent or its affiliates) acquires or becomes the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or (ii) the Company consummates a merger or other business combination involving the Company or a "significant subsidiary" (as defined in Rule 1.02(w) of Regulation S-X as promulgated by the SEC) of the Company or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, the Company or a significant subsidiary (other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement). As used herein, the term "SPREAD" shall mean the excess, if any, of (i) the greater of (x) the highest price (in cash or fair market value of securities or other property) per share of Company Common Stock paid or to be paid within 12 months preceding the date of exercise of the Put Right for any shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by any Person who shall have acquired or become the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock after the date hereof or (y) the average of the daily volume-weighted sales prices quoted on NASDAQ of the Company Common Stock during the five trading days immediately preceding the written notice of exercise of the Put Right over (ii) the Exercise Price.

C-4

(b) For a period of 90 days after the termination of the Option granted hereunder pursuant to Section 19, the Company shall have the right, upon three business days' prior written notice, to repurchase from Parent (the "Repurchase Right"), all (but not less than all) of the Optioned Shares acquired by the Parent hereby and with respect to which the Parent then has beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) at a price per share equal to the greater of (i) the average of the daily volume-weighted sales price quoted on NASDAQ of the Company Common Stock during the five trading days immediately preceding the written notice of exercise of the Repurchase Right and (ii) the Exercise Price, plus interest at a rate per annum equal to the costs of funds to Parent at the time of exercise of the Repurchase Right, subject to paragraph (c) below.

(c) Parent shall deliver to the Company all "Excess Compensation" realized upon the sale of any Optioned Shares. "Excess Compensation" shall mean the amount, if any, by which the sum of (i) the aggregate gross proceeds received upon the sale of any Optioned Shares, and (ii) any Termination Fee paid by the Company under Section 5.6 of the Merger Agreement, exceeds the sum of (x) $11,000,000, (y) the aggregate Exercise Price paid, and (z) any underwriters discount or selling commission incurred by Parent in connection with the acquisition and disposition of the Optioned Shares.

10. EXPENSES. Each party hereto shall pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 or as specified in the Merger Agreement.

11. SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, such remedy being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

All notices, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be deemed to have been duly given and made if in writing and if served by personal delivery upon the party for whom it is intended or if sent by telex or telecopier (and also confirmed in writing) to the person at the address set forth below, or such other address as may be designated in writing hereafter, in the same manner, by such person:

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT, dated as of September 21, 2001 (this "AGREEMENT"), by the undersigned shareholders (collectively, the "SHAREHOLDERS") of Imatron Inc., a New Jersey corporation (the "COMPANY"), for the benefit of General Electric Company, a New York corporation ("PARENT").

RECITALS

A. Parent, Ruby Merger Corp., a New Jersey corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("SUB"), and the Company are entering into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the "MERGER AGREEMENT"), whereby, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock, no par value per share, of the Company ("COMPANY COMMON STOCK"), not owned directly or indirectly by Parent or the Company, will be converted into shares of Common Stock, par value $.06 per share, of Parent ("PARENT COMMON STOCK");

B. As of the date hereof, each Shareholder owns that number of shares of Company Common Stock appearing opposite his name on SCHEDULE A (such shares of Company Common Stock together with any other shares of capital stock of the Company acquired by such Shareholder, individually, after the date hereof during the term of this Agreement, whether upon the exercise of options or by means of purchase, dividend, distribution or otherwise, being collectively referred to herein as the "SUBJECT SHARES"); and

C. As a condition to its willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, Parent has required that the Shareholders agree, and in order to induce Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement the Shareholders have agreed, to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. COVENANTS OF SHAREHOLDERS. Until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 3, the Shareholders agree as follows:

(a) The Shareholders shall attend the Shareholder Meeting, in person or by proxy, and at the Shareholder Meeting (or at any adjournment thereof) or in any other circumstances upon which a vote, consent or other approval with respect to the Merger and the Merger Agreement is sought, the Shareholders shall vote (or cause to be voted) the Subject Shares in favor of the Merger, the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the terms thereof and each of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(b) At any meeting of shareholders of the Company or at any adjournment thereof or in any other circumstances upon which the Shareholders' vote, consent or other approval is sought, the Shareholders shall vote (or cause to be voted) the Subject Shares against (i) any merger agreement or merger (other than the Merger Agreement and the Merger), consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of or by the Company or any Subsidiary or any Takeover Proposal or (ii) any amendment of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, or By-laws or other proposal or transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, which amendment or other proposal or transaction would in any manner impede, frustrate, prevent or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or change in any manner the voting rights of any class of capital stock of the Company. The Shareholders further agrees not to commit or agree to take any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

(d) The Shareholders shall not, nor shall the Shareholders authorize any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of the Shareholders to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of, any Takeover Proposal or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to the Company or any Subsidiary in connection with, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal.

(e) The Shareholders shall use the Shareholders' reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with Parent in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to support and to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(f) The Shareholders agree to promptly notify Parent in writing of the nature and amount of any acquisition by such Shareholder of any voting securities of the Company acquired by such Shareholder hereafter.

(g) The Shareholders shall not knowingly take or fail to take any action which would cause any of the representations and warranties set forth in the Shareholder Tax Certificate attached hereto as SCHEDULE B to be untrue or incorrect.

(h) The Shareholder hereby revokes any and all prior proxies or powers of attorney in respect of any of Subject Shares and constitutes and appoints Sub and Parent, or any nominee of Sub and Parent, or any of them, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, at any time during the term hereof, as its true and lawful attorney and proxy (its "Proxy"), for and in its name, place and stead (i) to demand that the Secretary of the Company call a special meeting of the shareholders of the Company for the purpose of considering any matter referred to in Section 1(a) and 1(b) hereof, (ii) to vote each of such Subject Shares as provided in Sections 1(a) and 1(b) as its proxy at every annual, special, adjourned or postponed meeting of the shareholders of the Company, including the right to sign its name (as shareholder) to any consent, certificate or other document relating to the Company that New Jersey Law may permit or require as provided in Sections 1(a) and 1(b) and (iii) to approve any other motion or action in furtherance of the foregoing.

THE FOREGOING PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY ARE IRREVOCABLE AND COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST THROUGHOUT THE TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT.

2. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. Each Shareholder represents and warrants with respect to himself to Parent as follows:

D-2

(b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Shareholder. Assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent, this Agreement constitutes the valid and binding agreement of the Shareholder enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Shareholder does not and will not conflict with any agreement, order or other instrument binding upon the Shareholder, nor require any regulatory filing or approval, other than pursuant to the HSR Act (as defined below).

(c) To the knowledge of the Shareholder, the representations set forth in the Shareholder Tax Certificate attached hereto as Schedule B, if made on the date hereof (assuming the Merger were consummated as of the date hereof), would be true and correct.

3. THE OPTION; EXERCISE; ADJUSTMENTS. Each Shareholder hereby grants to Parent an irrevocable option (the "OPTION") to purchase from time to time the Subject Shares, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein (the "OPTIONED SHARES"). Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 4, the Option may be exercised by Parent in whole or from time to time in part, at any time following the occurrence of a Triggering Event (as defined below) and prior to the termination of the Option in accordance with Section 8. In the event Parent wishes to exercise the Option, Parent shall send a written notice to the applicable Shareholder (the "STOCK EXERCISE NOTICE") specifying the total number of Optioned Shares it wishes to purchase and a date (not later than 20 business days and not earlier than two business days from the date such notice is given) for the closing of such purchase (the "CLOSING DATE"). Parent may revoke an exercise of the Option at any time prior to the Closing Date by written notice to the applicable Shareholder. In the event of any change in the number of issued and outstanding shares of Subject Shares by reason of any stock dividend, stock split, split-up, recapitalization, merger or other change in the corporate or capital structure of the Company, the number of Optioned Shares subject to the Option and the Exercise Price (as hereinafter defined) per Optioned Share shall be appropriately adjusted.

4. CONDITIONS TO EXERCISE OF OPTION AND DELIVERY OF OPTIONED SHARES.

(a) Parent's right to exercise the Option is subject to the following conditions:

(i) Neither Parent nor Sub shall have breached any of its material obligations under the Merger Agreement;

(iii) All waiting periods under the HSR Act (as defined below) applicable to the exercise of the Option shall have expired or been terminated; and

(iv) One or more of the following events shall have occurred on or after the date hereof: (A) any person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity or group (such person, corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity or group, other subsidiary" (as defined in Rule 1.02(w) of Regulation S-X as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC")) of the Company or the acquisition of a substantial interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets, business or operations of, the Company or a significant subsidiary (other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement); (E) any Person is granted any option or right, conditional or otherwise, to acquire or otherwise become the beneficial owner of shares of Company Common Stock which, together with all shares of Company Common Stock beneficially owned by such Person, results or would result in such Person being the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock; or (F) there is a public announcement with respect to a plan or intention by the Company, other than Parent or its affiliates, to effect any of the foregoing transactions. For purposes of this subparagraph (iii), the terms "group" and "beneficial owner" shall be defined by reference to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "EXCHANGE ACT"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) Parent's obligation to purchase the Optioned Shares following the exercise of the Option, and the Company's obligation to deliver the Optioned Shares, are subject to the conditions that:

(i) No preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction in the United States prohibiting the delivery of the Optioned Shares shall be in effect;

(ii) The purchase of the Optioned Shares will not violate Rule 10b-18 promulgated under the Exchange Act; and

(iii) All applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR ACT"), shall have expired or been terminated.

5. EXERCISE PRICE FOR OPTIONED SHARES. At any Closing Date, the applicable Shareholder will deliver to Parent a certificate or certificates representing the Optioned Shares in the denominations designated by Parent in its Stock Exercise Notice and Parent will purchase the Optioned Shares from such Shareholder at a price per Optioned Share equal to $1.89 (the "EXERCISE PRICE"), payable in cash. Payment made by Parent to such Shareholder pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer of federal funds to a bank designated by such Shareholder or a check payable in immediately available funds. After payment of the Exercise Price for the Optioned Shares covered by the Stock Exercise Notice, the Option shall be deemed exercised to the extent of the Optioned Shares specified in the Stock Exercise Notice as of the date such Stock Exercise Notice is given to such Shareholder.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT. Parent represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Parent and this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Parent; and (b) Parent is acquiring the Option and, if and when it exercises the Option, will be acquiring the Optioned Shares issuable upon the exercise thereof, for its own account and not with a view to distribution or resale in any manner which would be in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "SECURITIES ACT"), and will not sell or otherwise dispose of the Optioned Shares except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or a valid exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

7. THE CLOSING. Any closing hereunder shall take place on the Closing Date specified by Parent in its Stock Exercise Notice pursuant to Section 3 at 10:00 A.M., local time, or the first business day thereafter on which all of the conditions in Section 4 are met, at the principal executive office of the Company, or at such other time and place as the parties hereto may agree.

8. TERMINATION. The obligations of the Shareholders hereunder shall terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) 6 months after the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 thereof and (ii) the Effective Time; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(b), (c) or (d) thereof (other than a termination pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(i) following receipt of a Superior Proposal) or if the Merger Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1(a) thereof, then such obligations shall terminate upon the termination of the Merger Agreement. No such termination of this Agreement shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement prior to termination.

9. WAIVER OF REGISTRATION RIGHTS. The Shareholders hereby waive, relinquish and forego any and all registration rights and or obligations of the Company, Parent, the Surviving Corporation, or any of their respective affiliates to register any equity securities of the Company or any equity securities of Parent received in exchange for securities of the Company.

10. FURTHER ASSURANCES. The Shareholders will, from time to time, execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such additional or further consents, documents and other instruments as Parent may reasonably request for the purpose of effectively carrying out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

11. SUCCESSORS, ASSIGNS AND TRANSFEREES BOUND. Any successor, assignee or transferee (including a successor, assignee or transferee as a result of the death of the Shareholder, such as an executor or heir) shall be bound by the terms hereof, and the Shareholders shall take any and all actions necessary to obtain the written confirmation from such successor, assignee or transferee that it is bound by the terms hereof.

12. AFFILIATE LETTER; SHAREHOLDER TAX CERTIFICATE. The Shareholders agree to execute and deliver on a timely basis, when and if requested by Parent, (i) a written agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit E to the Merger Agreement and (ii) the Shareholder Tax Certificate attached hereto as SCHEDULE B.

13. REMEDIES. The Shareholders acknowledge that money damages would be both incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by it, and that any such breach would cause Parent irreparable harm. Accordingly, the Shareholders agree that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, Parent, in addition to any other remedies at law or in equity it may have, shall be entitled, without the requirement of posting a bond or other security, to equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance.

14. SEVERABILITY. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement in such jurisdiction, or the validity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

15. AMENDMENT. This Agreement may be amended only by means of a written instrument executed and delivered by both the Shareholders and Parent.

16. JURISDICTION. Each party hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York in any action, suit or proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement, and agrees that any such action, suit or proceeding shall be brought only in such courts (and waives any objection based on FORUM NON CONVENIENS or any other objection to venue therein). Each party hereto waives any right to a trial by jury in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding.

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT, dated as of September 21, 2001 (this "AGREEMENT"), by the undersigned shareholders (collectively, the "SHAREHOLDERS") of Imatron, Inc., a New Jersey corporation (the "COMPANY"), for the benefit of General Electric Company, a New York corporation ("PARENT").

RECITALS

A. Parent, Ruby Merger Corp., a New Jersey corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("SUB"), and the Company are entering into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the "MERGER AGREEMENT"), whereby, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock, no par value per share, of the Company ("COMPANY COMMON STOCK"), not owned directly or indirectly by Parent or the Company, will be converted into shares of Common Stock, par value $.06 per share, of Parent ("PARENT COMMON STOCK");

B. As of the date hereof, each Shareholder owns that number of shares of Company Common Stock appearing opposite his name on SCHEDULE A (a number of shares equal to 70% of (i) such shares of Company Common Stock, and (ii) any other shares of capital stock of the Company acquired by such Shareholder after the date hereof during the term of this Agreement, whether upon the exercise of options or warrants or by means of purchase, dividend, distribution or otherwise, being collectively referred to herein as the "SUBJECT SHARES"); and

1. COVENANTS OF SHAREHOLDERS. Until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8, the Shareholders agree as follows:

(b) At any meeting of shareholders of the Company or at any adjournment thereof or in any other circumstances upon which the Shareholders' vote, consent or other approval is sought, the Shareholders shall vote (or cause to be voted) the Subject Shares against (i) any merger agreement or merger (other than the Merger Agreement and the Merger), consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of or by the Company or any Subsidiary or any Takeover Proposal or (ii) any amendment of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, or By-laws or other proposal or transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, which amendment or other proposal or transaction would in any manner impede, frustrate, prevent or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or change in any manner the voting rights of any class of capital stock of the Company. The Shareholders further agrees not to commit or agree to take any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

(c) The Shareholders agree not to (i) sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of (including by gift) (collectively, "TRANSFER"), or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement (including any profit-sharing arrangement) with respect to the Transfer of the Subject Shares to any person or (ii) enter into any voting arrangement, whether by proxy, voting agreement or otherwise, in relation to the Subject Shares, and agree not to commit or agree to take any of the foregoing actions.

(d) The Shareholders shall not, nor shall the Shareholders authorize any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of the Shareholders to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of, any Takeover Proposal or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to the Company or any Subsidiary in connection with, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal.

(e) The Shareholders shall use the Shareholders' reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with Parent in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to support and to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(f) The Shareholders agree to promptly notify Parent in writing of the nature and amount of any acquisition by such Shareholder of any voting securities of the Company acquired by such Shareholder hereafter.

(g) The Shareholders shall not knowingly take or fail to take any action which would cause any of the representations and warranties set forth in the Shareholder Tax Certificate attached hereto as SCHEDULE B to be untrue or incorrect.

(h) The Shareholder hereby revokes any and all prior proxies or powers of attorney in respect of any of Subject Shares and constitutes and appoints Sub and Parent, or any nominee of Sub and Parent, or any of them, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, at any time during the term hereof, as its true and lawful attorney and proxy (its "Proxy"), for and in its name, place and stead (i) to demand that the Secretary of the Company call a special meeting of the shareholders of the Company for the purpose of considering any matter referred to in Section 1(a) and 1(b) hereof, (ii) to vote each of such Subject Shares as provided in Sections 1(a) and 1(b) as its proxy at every annual, special, adjourned or postponed meeting of the shareholders of the Company, including the right to sign its name (as shareholder) to any consent, certificate or other document relating to the Company that New Jersey Law may permit or require as provided in Sections 1(a) and 1(b) and (iii) to approve any other motion or action in furtherance of the foregoing.

(c) To the knowledge of the Shareholder, the representations set forth in the Shareholder Tax Certificate attached hereto as Schedule B, if made on the date hereof (assuming the Merger were consummated as of the date hereof), would be true and correct.

3. THE OPTION; EXERCISE; ADJUSTMENTS. 7. THE CLOSING. Any closing hereunder shall take place on the Closing Date specified by Parent in its Stock Exercise Notice pursuant to Section 3 at 10:00 A.M., local time, or the first business day thereafter on which all of the conditions in Section 4 are met, at the principal executive office of the Company, or at such other time and place as the parties hereto may agree.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 721 of the New York Business Corporation Law ("NYBCL") provides that, in addition to indemnification provided in Article 7 of the NYBCL, a corporation may indemnify a director or officer by a provision contained in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws or by a duly authorized resolution of its stockholders or directors or by agreement, PROVIDED that no indemnification may be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer establishes that his acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and were material to the cause of action so adjudicated, or that he personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled.

Section 722(a) of the NYBCL provides that a corporation may indemnify a director or officer made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action other than a derivative action, whether civil or criminal, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, if such director or officer acted, in good faith, for a purpose which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, in criminal actions or proceedings, in addition, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 722(c) of the NYBCL provides that a corporation may indemnify a director or officer, made or threatened to be made a party in a derivative action, against amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein if such director or officer acted, in good faith, for a purpose which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification will be available under Section 722(c) of the NYBCL in respect of (1) a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of, or (2) any claim as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought, or, if no action was brought, any court of competent jurisdiction, determines upon application, that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such portion of the settlement amount and expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 723 of the NYBCL specifies the manner in which payment of indemnification under Section 722 of the NYBCL or indemnification permitted under Section 721 of the NYBCL may be authorized by the corporation. It provides that indemnification by a corporation is mandatory in any case in which the director or officer has been successful, whether on the merits or otherwise, in defending an action. In the event that the director or officer has not been successful or the action is settled, indemnification must be authorized by the appropriate corporate action as set forth in Section 723.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL ELECTRIC CO - Form S-4/A

Section 724 of the NYBCL provides that, upon application by a director or officer, indemnification may be awarded by a court to the extent authorized under Section 722 and Section 723 of the NYBCL. Section 725 of the NYBCL contains certain other miscellaneous provisions affecting the indemnification of directors and officers.

Section 726 of the NYBCL authorizes a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance to indemnify (1) a corporation for any obligation which it incurs as a result of the indemnification of directors and officers under the provisions of Article 7 of the NYBCL, (2) directors and officers in instances in which they may be indemnified by a corporation under the provisions of Article 7 of the NYBCL, and (3) directors and officers in instances in which they may not otherwise be indemnified by a corporation under such section, provided the contract of insurance covering such directors and officers provides, in a manner acceptable to the New York State Superintendent of Insurance, for a retention amount and for co-insurance.

Section 6 of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, of GE provides in part as follows:

A person who is or was a director of the corporation shall have no personal liability to the corporation or its stockholders for damages for any breach of duty in such capacity except that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit liability where such liability is imposed under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

Article XI of the bylaws, as amended, of GE provides, in part, as follows:

The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as the same exists or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify any person who is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer of the Company and who is or was made or threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor and an action by or in the right of any other corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, which such person is serving, has served or has agreed to serve in any capacity at the request of the Company, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was or has agreed to become a director or officer of the Company, or is or was serving or has agreed to serve such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise in any capacity, against judgments, fines, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement, taxes or penalties, and costs, charges and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in connection with such action or proceeding or any appeal therein, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that no indemnification shall be provided to any such person if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer establishes that (i) his or her acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and, in either case, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated, or (ii) he or she personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he or she was not legally entitled. The benefits of this Paragraph A shall extend to the heirs and legal representatives of any person entitled to indemnification under this paragraph.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial BONA FIDE offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant undertakes as follows: that any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such
