THOMPSON CREEK ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Thompson Creek Metals Company Inc. ("Company"), one of the world's largest publicly traded, pure molybdenum producers, today announced the appointment of S. Scott Shellhaas as Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

The appointment follows the decision by the Company to close the Vancouver, British Columbia office requiring the Chief Operating Officer to work out of its principal executive offices in Denver, Colorado. As previously announced on June 5, 2009, Ken Collison, the Company's former Chief Operating Officer, who was working in the Vancouver office, had chosen not to relocate to Denver. Mr. Collison will remain with the Company for the coming months as Operations Consultant and continue to work on specific projects.

"We are very pleased to welcome Scott Shellhaas to our management team and look forward to working with him. Scott has extensive minerals management experience, both domestic and international, involving a number of different metals. We are fortunate to be able to attract Scott to Thompson Creek," said Kevin Loughrey, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Shellhaas joins Thompson Creek with over 25 years of international executive management and operating experience within the mining industry.

From 2000 to 2007, Mr. Shellhaas was the CEO designate for venture capital development projects involving coal, iron and steel producers within the United States.
