Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

| Standard | Description | Financial Statement Effect or Other Significant Matters |
|--|--|--|
| ASU No. 2016-02 Leases (Topic 842) | The standard requires lessees to recognize most leases as assets and liabilities on the balance sheet, but record expenses on the statement of operations in a manner similar to current accounting. For lessors, the guidance modifies the classification criteria and accounting for sales-type and direct financing leases. The standard also requires additional disclosures about leasing arrangements and requires a modified retrospective transition approach for existing leases, whereby the standard will be applied to the earliest year presented. The provisions of the standard are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. | The Company continues to evaluate the impact of the standard on the Company's consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The new standard requires lessees to recognize a lease liability and right of use asset on the balance sheet. While the adoption will result in an increase to assets and liabilities on the Company's balance sheet, we do not expect that the impact will be material. In addition, the Company does not expect that the adoption will result in a material impact to our consolidated statement of operations. The Company intends to adopt this guidance by applying the transition provisions on a modified retrospective basis as of the effective date January 1, 2019. Planned date of adoption: Q1 2019 |

(4) REVENUE

Sales includes revenue from contracts with customers from roof and foundation ventilation products; centralized mail systems and electronic package solutions; rain dispersion products and roofing accessories; expanded and perforated metal; perimeter security solutions; expansion joints and structural bearings; designing, engineering, manufacturing and installation of solar racking systems and greenhouse structures.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when, or as, the Company transfers control of promised products or service to a customer in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring those products or service. Refer to Note 16 of this quarterly report on Form 10Q for additional information related to revenue recognized by timing of transfer of control by reportable segment.

Payment terms and conditions vary by contract, although terms generally include a requirement of payment within a range from 30 to 60 days, or in certain cases, up front deposits. In circumstances where the timing of revenue recognition differs from the timing of invoicing, the Company has determined that the Company's contracts generally do not include a significant financing component. Taxes collected from customers, which are subsequently remitted to governmental authorities, are excluded from sales.

Performance obligations satisfied at a point in time and significant judgments

The majority of the Company's revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when the Company transfers control of the promised product at a point in time, which is determined when the customer has legal title and the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the asset, and the Company has a present right to payment for the product. These contracts with customers include promised products, which are generally capable of being distinct and accounted for as separate performance obligations. Accordingly, the Company allocates the transaction price, which is generally the quoted price per terms of the contract and the consideration the Company expects to receive, to each performance obligation in an amount based on an observable price of the products as the Company frequently sells these products separately in similar circumstances and to similar customers. These products are generally sold with rights of return and these contracts may provide other credits or incentives, which are accounted for as variable consideration. Variable consideration is estimated at the most likely amount to predict the consideration to which the Company will be entitled, and only to the extent it is probable that a subsequent change in estimate will not result in a significant revenue reversal when estimating the amount of revenue to recognize. Sales returns, allowances, and customer incentives, including rebates, are treated as reductions to the sales transaction price and based largely on an assessment of all information (i.e., historical, current and forecasted) that is reasonably available to the Company, and estimated at contract inception and updated at the end of each reporting period as additional information becomes available.

Performance obligations satisfied over time and significant judgments

For contracts with customers which the Company satisfies a promise to the customer to construct a certain asset that the customer controls as it is being created or enhanced, or a promise to provide a product that has no alternative use to the Company and the Company has enforceable rights to payment, the Company satisfies the performance obligation and recognizes revenue over time. For the contracts to construct a certain asset, the Company determines that the customer controls the asset while it is being constructed. For the contracts for products that have no alternative use and for which the Company has an enforceable right to payment, the Company identifies these products as products that are not a standard inventory item or the Company cannot readily direct the product to another customer or use without incurring a significant economic loss, or significant costs to rework the product.

When the promised products and services are to construct a certain asset that the customer controls, the entire contract is accounted for as one performance obligation. The Company determines the transaction price for each contract based on the consideration the Company expects to receive for the promised products and services under the entire contract, which is generally the stated contract price based on an expected cost plus a margin approach.

When the promised products do not have an alternative use to the Company, and the Company has enforceable rights to payment, the transaction price is determined for each contract based on the consideration the Company expects to receive for the promised products under the contract and is generally the stated contract price based on an expected cost plus a margin approach for each performance obligation. These promised products are generally capable of being distinct and accounted for as separate performance obligations.

For the above contracts with customers with respect to which the Company satisfies a performance obligation over time, the Company recognizes revenue based on the extent of progress towards completion of the performance obligation. The cost-to-cost measure of progress best depicts the transfer of control to the customer which occurs as the Company incurs costs on the contract as the incurred costs are proportionate to the Company's progress in satisfying the performance obligation. Under the cost-to-cost measure of progress, the extent of progress toward completion is measured based on the ratio of costs incurred to date to the total estimated costs at completion of the performance obligation. Revenues are recognized proportionally as costs are incurred. Costs to fulfill a contract include all direct costs related to contract performance. Selling and administrative expenses are charged to operations as incurred. Provision for loss on an uncompleted performance obligation is recognized in the period in which such loss is determined.

The Company regularly reviews the progress and performance of the performance obligation recognized over time under the cost-to-cost method. Any adjustments to net sales, cost of sales, and the related impact to operating income are recognized as necessary in the period they become known. Changes in estimates of net sales, cost of sales, and the related impact to operating income are recognized on a cumulative catch-up basis, which recognizes in the current period the cumulative effect of the changes on current or prior periods based on a performance obligation's cost-to-cost measure of progress.

The Company also recognizes revenues from services contracts over time. For these contracts, the transaction price is determined for each contract based on the consideration the Company expects to receive for the promised service under the contract, which generally is the stated contract price. In order to estimate the standalone selling price of the performance obligation, the Company evaluates the market in which the promised service is sold and estimates the price that customers in the market would be willing to pay. Further, the Company recognizes revenue over time during the term of the agreement as the customer is simultaneously receiving and consuming the benefits provided throughout the Company's performance. Therefore due to control transferring over time, the Company recognizes revenue on a straight-line basis throughout the contract period.

Remaining performance obligations

As of September 30, 2018, the Company's remaining performance obligations are part of contracts that have an original expected duration of one year or less. Therefore, any remaining performance obligations are not required to be disclosed.

Contract assets

Contract assets consist of costs in excess of billings. Costs in excess of billings includes unbilled amounts resulting from revenues under contracts with customers that are satisfied over time and when the cost-to-cost measurement method of revenue recognition is utilized and revenue recognized exceeds the amount billed to the customer, and right to payment is not just subject to the passage of time. Amounts may not exceed their net realizable value. Costs in excess of billings are classified as current assets and are reported net of contract billings on a contract-by-contract basis at the end of each reporting period.

Contract liabilities

Contract liabilities consist of billings in excess of cost. Billings in excess of cost includes billings in excess of revenue recognized and deferred revenue, which includes advanced payments, up-front payments, and progress billing payments. Billings in excess of cost are reported net of contract cost on a contract-by-contract basis at the end of each reporting period and are classified as current liabilities. To determine the revenue recognized in the period from the beginning balance of billings in excess of cost, the contract liability as of the beginning of the period is recognized as revenue on a contract by contract basis when the Company incurs costs to satisfy the performance obligation related to the individual contract. Once the beginning contract liability balance for an individual contract has been fully recognized as revenue, any additional payments received in the period are recognized as revenue once the related costs have been incurred.

Costs to obtain a contract with a customer

The Company recognizes an asset for the incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer if the Company expects the benefit of those costs to be longer than one year. As of September 30, 2018, the Company does not have any open contracts with an original expected duration of greater than one year, and therefore, we expense such costs as incurred. These incremental costs include, but are not limited to, sales commissions incurred to obtain a contract with a customer.

(1) Due to the adoption of ASC 606 effective January 1, 2018, the Company recorded a transition adjustment to the opening balance of "Costs in excess of billings" at January 1, 2018. There were no transition adjustments to the opening balance of "Billings in Excess of Cost" at January 1, 2018. Refer to "Transition disclosures" below for further explanation of cumulative effect of the changes made to the Company's consolidated January 1, 2018 balance sheet for the adoption of ASC 606.

Transition disclosures

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted the accounting standard ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, only for contracts that were not completed at the date of initial application using the modified retrospective method. The Company recognized the cumulative effect of initially applying ASC 606 as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings. The comparative period information has not been restated and continues to be reported under the accounting standards in effect for that period. The Company does not expect the adoption of this standard to have a material impact to the Company's net income on an ongoing basis.

A majority of the Company's revenues continue to be recognized when products are shipped or service is provided and the customer takes ownership and assumes the risk of loss. For certain custom fabricated products for which there is no alternative use and the Company has enforceable rights to payment for performance to date where revenue was previously recognized upon transfer of title and risk of loss, the Company now recognizes revenue as the Company satisfies its performance over time in accordance with ASC 606.

The results of SolarBOS have been included in the Company's consolidated financial results since the date of acquisition (within the Company's Renewable Energy and Conservation segment). The preliminary aggregate purchase consideration for the acquisition of SolarBOS was $6.5 million, which includes a working capital adjustment and certain other adjustments provided for in the stock purchase agreement. The acquisition was financed through cash on hand.

The preliminary purchase price for the acquisition was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their respective fair values. The excess consideration was recorded as goodwill and approximated $2.8 million, all of which is deductible for tax purposes. Goodwill represents future economic benefits arising from other assets acquired that could not be individually identified including workforce additions, growth opportunities, and increased presence in the solar renewable energy markets.

On May 4, 2018, the shareholders of the Company approved the adoption of the Gibraltar Industries, Inc. 2018 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2018 Plan"). The 2018 Plan provides for the issuance of up to 1,000,000 shares of common stock and supplements the remaining shares available for issuance under the existing Gibraltar Industries, Inc. 2015 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2015 Plan"). Both the 2018 Plan and the 2015 Plan allow the Company to grant equity-based incentive compensation awards, in the form of non-qualified options, restricted shares, restricted stock units, performance shares, performance stock units, and stock rights, to eligible participants.

In 2016, the shareholders of the Company approved the adoption of the Gibraltar Industries, Inc. 2016 Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors ("Non-Employee Directors Plan") which allows the Company to grant awards of shares of the Company's common stock to non-employee Directors of the Company and permits the Directors to defer receipt of such shares pursuant to the terms of the Non-Employee Directors Plan.

Equity Based Awards - Settled in Stock

The following table sets forth the number of equity-based awards granted during the nine months ended September 30, which will convert to shares upon vesting, along with the weighted average grant date fair values:

| Awards | 2018 | | 2017 | |
|-------------------------|----------------------|--|----------------------|--|
| | Number of Awards (1) | Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value | Number of Awards (2) | Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value |
| Performance stock units | 135,540 | $ 33.60 | 108,748 | $ 42.72 |
| Restricted stock units | 95,674 | $ 36.81 | 120,048 | $ 37.14 |
| Options | — | $ — | 25,000 | $ 42.35 |

| Common shares | 2,113 | $ 35.50 | 2,034 | $ 34.42 |

(1) Performance stock units granted will convert to shares based on the Company's actual return on invested capital ("ROIC") relative to the ROIC targeted for the performance period ended December 31, 2018.

(2) Performance stock units granted include 78,482 units awarded in February 2017 which will convert to 23,546 shares to be issued in February 2020, representing 30% of the targeted 2017 award, based on the Company's actual ROIC compared to ROIC target for the performance period ended December 31, 2017. The remaining performance stock units granted include 20,000 units awarded in February 2017 and 10,266 units awarded in April 2017. The number of these shares to be issued to the recipients will be determined based upon the ranking of the Company's total shareholder return ("TSR") over a three (3) year performance period ended February 1, 2020 compared to the TSR of companies in the S&P Small Cap Industrial Sector over the same three year period.

Equity Based Awards - Settled in Cash

The Company's equity-based liabilities include performance based stock units settled in cash and a management stock purchase plan. As of September 30, 2018, the Company's total share-based liabilities recorded on the consolidated balance sheet were $38.5 million, of which $23.0 million was included in non-current liabilities.

Performance Stock Units - Settled in Cash

The Company awarded performance stock units ("PSUs") that will convert to cash after three years based upon a one year performance period. The cost of these awards is recognized over the requisite vesting period. The PSUs earned over the performance period are determined based on the Company's actual ROIC relative to the ROIC targeted for the performance period.

During the 2016 performance period, the participants earned an aggregate of 256,000 PSUs, representing 200% the targeted 2016 award of 128,000. This award will convert to cash payable in the first quarter of 2019.

During the 2015 performance period, the participants earned an aggregate of 438,000 PSUs, representing 200% of the targeted 2015 award of 219,000. This award converted to cash and was paid in the first quarter of 2018.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the compensation expense recognized for the PSUs, which will convert to cash, for the three and nine months ended September 30, (in thousands):

| | Three Months Ended September 30, 2018 | | Nine Months Ended September 30, 2017 | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------|--------------------------------------|---------|
| PSUs compensation expense | $1,518 | $(405) | $3,126 | $1,673 |

Management Stock Purchase Plan

The Management Stock Purchase Plan ("MSPP") provides participants the ability to defer a portion of their compensation or Directors' fees, which deferral is converted to restricted stock units, and credited to an account. Employees eligible to defer a portion of their compensation also receive a company-matching award in restricted stock units equal to a percentage of their deferral. Directors do not receive any company-matching on amounts deferred. The account represents a share-based liability that is converted to and settled in cash payable to participants upon retirement or a termination of their service to the Company.

The following table provides the number of restricted stock units credited to active participant accounts and the payments made with respect to restricted stock units issued under the MSPP during the nine months ended September 30,

| | 2018 | 2017 |
|---|---------|---------|
| Restricted stock units credited | 74,180 | 90,754 |
| Share-based liabilities paid (in thousands) | $4,986 | $2,392 |

(11) FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Depending on the nature of the asset or liability, various techniques and assumptions can be used to estimate fair value. A financial asset or liability's classification within the hierarchy is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as follows:

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.
- Level 3 - Inputs that are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The Company had no financial assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at September 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017. The Company's only financial instrument for which the carrying value differs from its fair value is long-term debt. At September 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, the fair value of outstanding debt net of unamortized debt issuance costs was $211.8 million and $213.8 million, respectively, compared to its carrying value of $210.2 million and $210.0 million, respectively. The fair value of the Company's 6.25% Notes is classified as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy and was estimated based on quoted market prices adjusted for unamortized debt issuance costs.

(12) DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

For certain divestiture transactions completed in prior years, the Company has agreed to indemnify the buyer for various liabilities that may arise after the disposal date, subject to limits of time and amount. The Company is a party to certain claims made under these indemnification provisions. As of September 30, 2018, the Company has a contingent liability recorded for such provisions related to discontinued operations. Management does not believe that the outcome of these claims, or other claims, would significantly affect the Company's financial condition or results of operation.

(13)EXIT ACTIVITY COSTS AND ASSET IMPAIRMENTS

Table of Contents

The Company has incurred exit activity costs and asset impairment charges as a result of its 80/20 simplification and portfolio management initiatives. These initiatives have resulted in the identification of low-volume, low margin, internally-produced products which have been or will be outsourced or discontinued, and in the sale and exiting of less profitable businesses or products lines.

Exit activity costs were incurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2018 which related to contract terminations, severance, and other moving and closing costs. During this time, the Company also incurred asset impairment charges related to the write-down of inventory, impairment of machinery and equipment and intangible assets associated with either discontinued product lines or reduced sales of lower margin products. In conjunction with these initiatives, the Company also sold and leased back a facility which resulted in a gain, as well as closed two other facilities during the first nine months of 2018.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2017, the Company incurred asset impairment charges and exit activity costs resulting from the above initiatives. Also, as a result of these initiatives, the Company closed three facilities during the first nine months of 2017.

Table of Contents

The following tables set forth the asset impairment charges and exit activity costs incurred by segment during the three and nine months ended September 30, related to the restructuring activities described above (in thousands):

(14) INCOME TAXES

The following table summarizes the provision for income taxes for continuing operations (in thousands) for the three and nine months ended September 30, and the applicable effective tax rates:

| | Three Months Ended September 30, | | Nine Months Ended September 30, | |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------|----------|---------------------------------|----------|
| | 2018 | 2017 | 2018 | 2017 |
| Provision for income taxes | $6,473 | $11,184 | $15,574 | $21,090 |
| Effective tax rate | 24.9 % | 35.2 % | 23.5 % | 35.8 % |

The change in the effective tax rate year over year is primarily due to the reduction in the U.S. federal statutory tax rate from 35% to 21%. The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018 was greater than the U.S. federal statutory rate of 21% due to state taxes and nondeductible permanent differences partially offset by favorable discrete items, including a $2.6 million tax benefit related to performance share unit vesting. The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 was greater than the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% due to state taxes and $2.2 million of pretax losses generated by the European residential solar racking business for which no tax benefit had been recorded as such benefit is not expected to be realizable, partially offset by net deductible permanent differences and favorable discrete items.

On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Reform Act") was signed into law. On this day, the SEC staff issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 118 ("SAB 118") to address the application of U.S. GAAP in situations when a registrant does not have the necessary information available, prepared, or analyzed (including computations) in reasonable detail to complete the accounting for certain income tax effects of the Tax Reform Act. The Company recognized the provisional tax impacts related to the one-time transition tax, withholding tax and the revaluation of deferred tax assets and liabilities and included these amounts in its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017. Our preliminary estimate of the one-time transition tax and the re-measurement of our deferred tax assets and liabilities is subject to the finalization of management's analysis related to certain matters, such as developing interpretations of the provisions of the Tax Reform Act, changes to certain estimates and amounts related to the earnings and profits of certain subsidiaries and the filing of our tax returns, U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations or court decisions interpreting the Tax Reform Act may require further adjustments and changes in our estimates.

During the nine month period ended September 30, 2018, the Company recognized an adjustment to the provisional amounts recorded at December 31, 2017. The following table sets forth the components of the adjustment which were recorded in income tax expense from continuing operations during nine month period ended September 30, 2018, (in thousands):

|---|-------|
| Remeasurement of certain deferred tax balances (1) | 174 |
| One-time transition tax (1) | (363) |
| Non-deductible performance based compensation (2) | 366 |
| Net adjustment recorded to provisional income tax expense | 177 |

(1) Provisional amounts primarily related to return to provision adjustments.

(2) Provisional amounts primarily related to further guidance of Notice 2018-68 (guidance on performance-based compensation issued in the third quarter).

The Company has elected to account for global intangible low-taxed income ("GILTI") tax in the period in which it is incurred, and therefore has not provided any deferred tax impacts of GILTI in its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, or during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2018. As a result of proposed regulations issued in the third quarter of 2018, the impact of GILTI on our current annual effective tax decreased the impact on the effective rate from 0.6% to 0.3%. If future guidance differs from our interpretations, this amount may change.

Table of Contents

The final determination of the one-time transition tax and the re-measurement of our deferred assets and liabilities will be completed as additional information becomes available, but no later than one year from the enactment of the Tax Reform Act.

In January 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-02, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Reclassification of Certain Tax Effects from Accumulated other Comprehensive Income, which gives entities the option to reclassify retained earning tax effects resulting from Tax Reform related to items in AOCI that the FASB refers to as having been stranded in AOCI. The Company must adopt this guidance for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted for periods for which financial statements have not yet been issued or made available for issuance, including the period Tax Reform was enacted. We elected to early adopt ASU 2018-02. As a result of adopting this standard, we reclassified $350,000 from AOCI to retained earnings.

| Weighted average shares and conversions | 32,571 | 32,210 | 32,524 | 32,216 |

The weighted average number of diluted shares does not include potential anti-dilutive common shares issuable pursuant to equity based incentive compensation awards, aggregating to 247,000 and 489,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and 328,000 and 523,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

(16) SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company is organized into three reportable segments on the basis of the production process and products and services provided by each segment, identified as follows:

- (i) Residential Products, which primarily includes roof and foundation ventilation products, centralized mail systems and electronic package solutions, rain dispersion products and roofing accessories;
- (ii) Industrial and Infrastructure Products, which primarily includes expanded and perforated metal, expansion joints, structural bearings and perimeter security; and
- (iii) Renewable Energy and Conservation, which primarily includes designing, engineering, manufacturing and installation of solar racking systems and greenhouse structures.

When determining the reportable segments, the Company aggregated operating segments based on their similar economic and operating characteristics.

Business Strategy

Our business strategy focuses on significantly elevating and accelerating the growth and financial returns of the Company. We strive to deliver best-in-class, sustainable value creation for our shareholders for the long-term, and to generate more earnings at a higher rate of return with a more efficient use of capital year over year.

Our business strategy has four key elements, or "pillars," which consist of operational excellence, product innovation, portfolio management and acquisitions as a strategic accelerator. We believe that the continuing implementation of these pillars will produce transformational change in the Company's portfolio and performance, resulting in sustainable value creation for our shareholders.

Operational excellence is our first pillar in this strategy. We focus on reducing complexity, adjusting costs and simplifying our product offering through 80/20 initiatives ("80/20"). 80/20 is the practice of focusing on our largest and best opportunities (the "80") and eliminating complexity associated with less profitable opportunities (the "20"). Implementation of 80/20 across our businesses, along with in-lining and market rate of demand replenishment initiatives, and outsourcing initiatives for our lower volume products provided to our customers to achieve our value proposition, will improve our profitability. Our next step in operational excellence is to concentrate on selling and marketing strategies, known as trade focus, to drive organic growth by developing new and innovative products which respond to our customers' needs to simplify their operations.

Product innovation is our second strategic pillar where we focus on products with patent protection, developed internally or through acquired product lines. Innovation is centered on the allocation of new and existing resources to opportunities that we believe will produce sustainable returns. Our focus is on driving top line growth with new and innovative products. We are focused on the development or acquisition of those products and technologies that we believe have relevance to the end-user and can be differentiated from our competition. We believe that development of these innovative products and technologies will support our objectives to produce sustainable returns for our shareholders.

The third pillar of our strategy is portfolio management, which involves the evaluation of our product lines, customers and end markets with the objective of allocating leadership time and financial resources to the highest-potential platforms and businesses. We view portfolio management as a continuous process that will remain an important part of our strategy as we look to improve the Company's long-term financial performance. We are currently supporting all of the businesses in our portfolio today.

The fourth pillar of our strategy is acquisitions, which we consider an important part of the Company's transformation. Our low leverage, high liquidity and strong cash flow enables us to consider larger acquisition targets. Our executive leadership team continues to invest time and energy in prospecting for and vetting of potential acquisition candidates. However, we remain committed to only making acquisitions which will contribute long-term value to the Company and its shareholders. We continue to seek acquisition prospects in attractive end markets, with unique value propositions and patented products or technologies. Our target markets include postal and parcel solutions, residential building products, perimeter security, infrastructure, renewable energy and conservation. Our recent acquisition of SolarBOS in August 2018 was the direct result of this strategy.

Overall, we believe our business strategy has enabled us to achieve stronger financial results, make more efficient use of capital, and deliver higher shareholder returns. We have and expect to continue to restructure our operations, including consolidation of facilities, reducing overhead costs, and controlling investments in inventory, which enables us to better react to fluctuations in commodity costs and customer demand and has contributed to both improved margins and cash flows.

Acquisitions and Divestitures

On August 21, 2018, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of SolarBOS for approximately $6 million subject to a working capital adjustment and certain other adjustments provided for in the stock purchase agreement. The acquisition was financed through cash on hand. SolarBOS is a provider of electrical balance of systems products, which consists of electrical components such as wiring, switches, and combiner boxes that support photovoltaic systems, for the U.S. solar renewable energy market. The results of operations of SolarBOS have been included in the Renewable Energy and Conservation segment of the Company's consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition.

On February 22, 2017, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Package Concierge for approximately $19 million subject to a working capital adjustment and certain other adjustments provided for in the stock purchase agreement. The acquisition was financed through cash on hand. Package Concierge is a leading provider of multifamily electronic package delivery locker systems in the United States. The results of operations of Package Concierge have been included within the Residential Products segment of the Company's consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition.

On February 6, 2017, the Company completed the sale of substantially all of its U.S. bar grating product line assets to a third party. The Company had previously announced, on December 2, 2016, its intentions to exit its U.S. bar grating product line and its European residential solar racking business as part of its portfolio management initiative. This action also resulted in the sale and closing of 3 facilities in early 2017. These assets were a part of our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment.

Economic Conditions

The end markets our businesses serve are subject to economic conditions that are influenced by various factors. These factors include but are not limited to changes in general economic conditions, interest rates, exchange rates, commodity costs, demand for residential construction, demand for repair and remodeling, governmental policies and funding, tax policies and incentives, tariffs, trade policies, the level of non-residential construction and infrastructure projects, need for protection of high value assets, demand for renewable energy sources, and climate change. We believe the key elements of our strategy will allow us to respond timely to changes in these factors.

| Net income | $19,503 | 7.0 % | $20,619 | 7.5 % |

The following table sets forth the Company's net sales by reportable segment for the three months ended September 30, (in thousands):

| | 2018 | 2017 | Total Change |
|--|-----------|-----------|-----------------|
| Net sales: | | | |
| Residential Products | $125,839 | $129,501 | $(3,662) |
| Industrial and Infrastructure Products | 56,033 | 57,162 | (1,129) |
| Less: Intersegment sales | (272) | (224) | (48) |
| Net Industrial and Infrastructure Products | 55,761 | 56,938 | (1,177) |
| Renewable Energy and Conservation | 98,486 | 88,135 | 10,351 |
| Consolidated | $280,086 | $274,574 | $5,512 |

Consolidated net sales increased by $5.5 million, or 2.0%, to $280.1 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2017. The 2.0% increase, the net result of a 5.0% increase in pricing to customers, partially offset by a 3.0% decrease in volume, was driven by strong growth in our Renewable Energy and Conservation segment, which included a $1.6 million contribution from the recently acquired SolarBos. This growth was partially offset by lower revenues in both the Residential Products segment and the Industrial and Infrastructure Products segments.

Net sales in our Residential Products segment decreased 2.9%, or $3.7 million, to $125.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $129.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease from the prior year quarter was primarily due to higher storm-related roofing activity in the third quarter of 2017, and a slight decline in the commercial/multi-family construction market, partially offset by steady customer demand for rain dispersion products.

Net sales in our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment decreased 2.1%, or $1.2 million, to $55.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $56.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. Strong performance from the Industrial business, and demand for innovative products, was more than offset by lower demand in the Infrastructure business. The Company expects continued demand for innovative products in its Industrial business and growing demand in its Infrastructure business.

Net sales in our Renewable Energy and Conservation segment increased 11.8%, or $10.4 million, to $98.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $88.1 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The increase was the result of strong domestic demand, continued growth in innovative products, and a $1.6 million contribution from the recently acquired SolarBos.

Our consolidated gross margin slightly increased to 25.1% for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 25.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2017. This increase was the result of contributions from our new innovative products, 80/20 profit improvement initiatives and a more favorable alignment of material costs to customer selling prices.

Selling, general, and administrative (SG&A) expenses increased by $7.8 million, or 23.7%, to $40.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 from $33.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The $7.8 million increase was the combined result of $5.0 million of higher performance-based compensation expenses, a $1.3 million increase in restructuring charges relating to our 80/20 initiatives, along with a $1.0 million increase in senior leadership transition costs as compared to the prior year quarter. The higher performance-based compensation costs are the result of improvements in return on invested capital year over year and an increasing average stock price in 2018. SG&A expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to 14.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 12.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2017.

The following table sets forth the Company's income from operations and income from operations as a percentage of net sales by reportable segment for the three months ended September 30, (in thousands):

| | 2018 | | 2017 | | Total Change |
|--|----------|---------|----------|---------|-----------------|
| Income from operations: | | | | | |
| Residential Products | $20,138 | 16.0 % | $23,764 | 18.4 % | $(3,626) |
| Industrial and Infrastructure Products | 2,892 | 5.2 % | 2,554 | 4.5 % | 338 |
| Renewable Energy and Conservation | 15,072 | 15.3 % | 11,549 | 13.1 % | 3,523 |
| Unallocated Corporate Expenses | (8,698) | (3.1)% | (2,174) | (0.8)% | (6,524) |
| Consolidated income from operations | $29,404 | 10.5 % | $35,693 | 13.0 % | $(6,289) |

Our Residential Products segment generated an operating margin of 16.0% during the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 18.4% during the three months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease in operating margin resulted from unfavorable product mix, and to a lesser extent, volume leverage, along with higher charges for restructuring initiatives in the current year quarter.

Our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment generated an operating margin of 5.2% during the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 4.5% during the three months ended September 30, 2017. The improvement was the result of demand for our higher-margin innovative products, operational efficiencies resulting from the Company's 80/20 initiatives, and a more favorable alignment of material costs to customer selling prices, partially offset by higher charges for restructuring initiatives as compared to the prior year.

The Renewable Energy and Conservation segment generated an operating margin of 15.3% in the current year quarter compared to 13.1% in the prior year quarter. The improvement was primarily the result of the continued benefit of operational improvements from our 80/20 initiatives and leverage from the continued strong demand for our renewable energy and conservation products and services.

Unallocated corporate expenses increased $6.5 million from $2.2 million during the three months ended September 30, 2017 to $8.7 million during the three months ended September 30, 2018. This increase from the prior year quarter was largely due to a $3.7 million increase in performance-based compensation expenses, the result of improvements in return on invested capital year over year and increasing average stock price in 2018, along with a $1.1 million increase in senior leadership transition costs as compared to the prior year quarter.

The Company recorded other expense of $0.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 and other expense of $0.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The increase in other expense from the prior year quarter was primarily the result of foreign currency fluctuations.

Interest expense decreased by $0.6 million to $2.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $3.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease in expense was due to the offsetting effect of income earned on our interest-bearing cash balances for the current year quarter compared to the prior year quarter. During the three months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, no amounts were outstanding under our revolving credit facility.

We recognized a provision for income taxes of $6.5 million and $11.2 million, with effective tax rates of 24.9% and 35.2% for the three months ended September 30, 2018, and 2017, respectively. The change in the effective tax rate year over year is primarily due to the reduction in U.S. federal statutory tax rate from 35% to 21%. The effective tax rate for the third quarter of 2018 exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 21% due to state taxes and nondeductible permanent differences largely offset by favorable discrete items. The effective tax rate for the third quarter of 2017 exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% due to state taxes and $2.2 million of pretax losses generated by the European residential solar racking business for which no tax benefit had been recorded as such benefit is not expected to be realizable, partially offset by net deductible permanent differences and favorable discrete items.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2018 Compared to the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2017

| Net sales: | | | |
| Residential Products | $360,915 | $361,304 | $(389) |

| Renewable Energy and Conservation | $229,187 | $202,690 | 26,497 |
| Consolidated | $761,459 | $728,806 | $32,653 |

Consolidated net sales increased by $32.7 million, or 4.5%, to $761.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The 4.5% increase, the combined result of a 3.8% increase in pricing to customers and a 0.7% increase in volume, was driven by strong growth in our Renewable Energy and Conservation segment, including a $1.6 million contribution from the recently acquired SolarBos, along with higher revenues in our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment.

Net sales in our Residential Products segment decreased 0.1%, or $0.4 million, to $360.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $361.3 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease from the prior year was primarily due to higher storm-related roofing activity in 2017, and a slight decline in the commercial/multi-family construction market, partially offset by steady customer demand for rain dispersion products.

Net sales in our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment increased 3.9%, or $6.5 million, to $171.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $164.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. Pricing actions along with contributions from new innovative industrial products drove the increased revenues.

Net sales in our Renewable Energy and Conservation segment increased 13.1%, or $26.5 million, to $229.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $202.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The increase was the result of strong demand in both our domestic renewable energy and conservation markets and continued traction of innovative products.

Our consolidated gross margin slightly increased to 24.8% for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 24.7% for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. This increase was the result of contributions from our new innovative products, 80/20 profit improvement initiatives and a more favorable alignment of material costs to customer selling prices.

Selling, general, and administrative (SG&A) expenses increased by $4.1 million, or 3.7%, to $113.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 from $109.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The increase was primarily due to a $5.6 million increase in performance-based compensation expenses and an $0.8 million increase in senior leadership transition costs as compared to the prior year, partially offset by a $2.5 million decrease in restructuring charges related to our 80/20 initiatives. SG&A expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased to 14.9% in the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 15.0% in the nine months ended September 30, 2017.

The following table sets forth the Company's income from operations and income from operations as a percentage of net sales by reportable segment for the nine months ended September 30, (in thousands):

| Consolidated income from operations | $75,521 | 9.9 % | $70,302 | 9.6 % | $5,219 |

Our Residential Products segment generated an operating margin of 16.0% during the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 17.2% during the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease in operating margin is primarily due to the effects of product mix.

Our Industrial and Infrastructure Products segment generated an operating margin of 7.1% during the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to 3.6% during the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The improvement was largely the result of operational efficiencies resulting from the Company's 80/20 initiatives along with higher demand for our innovative products and a more favorable alignment of material costs to customer selling prices.

The Renewable Energy and Conservation segment generated an operating margin of 12.5% during the first nine months of the current year compared to 9.1% in the same period of the prior year. The improvement was primarily the result of volume and operational improvements from our 80/20 initiatives along with lower charges for these initiatives as compared to the prior year.

Unallocated corporate expenses increased $6.9 million from $16.0 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2017 to $22.8 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2018. The higher expense in the current year was the result of a $5.8 million increase in performance-based compensation expenses along with $1.2 million increase in senior leadership transition costs as compared to the prior year.

The Company recorded other income of $0.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and other expense of $0.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The increase in other income from the prior year was primarily the result of foreign currency fluctuations.

Interest expense decreased by $1.3 million to $9.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 compared to $10.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017. The decrease in expense was due to the offsetting effect of income earned on our interest-bearing cash balances for the current year compared to the prior year. During the nine months ended September 30, 2018 and 2017, no amounts were outstanding under our revolving credit facility.

We recognized a provision for income taxes of $15.6 million and $21.1 million, with effective tax rates of 23.5% and 35.8% for the nine months ended September 30, 2018, and 2017, respectively. The change in the effective tax rate year over year is primarily due to the reduction in U.S. federal statutory tax rate from 35% to 21%. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 21% due to state taxes and nondeductible permanent differences partially offset by favorable discrete items, including a $2.6 million tax benefit related to performance share unit vesting. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 exceeded the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% due to state taxes and $2.2 million of pretax losses generated by the European residential solar racking business for which no tax benefit has been recorded as such benefit is not expected to be realizable, partially offset by net deductible permanent differences and favorable discrete items.

Outlook

For the remainder of 2018, we continue to be optimistic about innovative products driving organic growth across all of our segments, and we are confident in the end markets these products are targeting.

Our goals for the fourth quarter are to drive sustainable growth through the acceleration of new product development initiatives, to work with our customers to manage cost volatility, to implement 80/20 simplification projects, and to seek value-added acquisitions in attractive end markets.

For the full year, we expect to continue to deliver on our objective to make more money at a higher rate of return with a more efficient use of capital, and create long-term value creation for our shareholders.

We expect 2018 consolidated revenues to exceed $1 billion, however, we are lowering our revenues expectations from 2-4% growth to 1-2% growth, considering activity levels across the Company's end markets. At the same time, we are narrowing our full-year 2018 earnings guidance to the high end of the previous range as a result of demand for higher-margin innovative products and 80/20 simplification initiatives. GAAP EPS for full-year is now expected to be in the range of $1.82 to $1.87, compared with $1.95 in 2017, which included the aforementioned one-time $0.39 per share benefit from tax reform.

Table of Contents

For the fourth quarter of 2018, we expect revenue in the range of $239 million to $249 million as a result of growing demand from innovative products. GAAP EPS for the fourth quarter 2018 is expected to be between $0.26 and $0.31 per diluted share.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

General

Our principal capital requirements are to fund our operations' working capital and capital improvements and to fund acquisitions. We will continue to invest in growth opportunities as appropriate while focusing on working capital efficiency and profit improvement opportunities to minimize the cash invested to operate our business. During the three months ended September 30, 2018, we invested cash in our working capital to meet the upcoming higher seasonal demands from our customers as noted below in "Cash Flows."

On December 9, 2015, we entered into the Company's Fifth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the "Senior Credit Agreement") which includes a 5-year, $300 million revolving credit facility and provides the Company with access to capital and improved financial flexibility. As of September 30, 2018, our liquidity of $535.9 million consisted of $245.4 million of cash plus $290.5 million of availability under our revolving credit facility. We believe this liquidity, together with the cash expected to be generated from operations, should be sufficient to fund working capital needs and simplification initiatives that likely will need cash to fund transitions and future growth. We continue to search for strategic acquisitions and larger acquisitions may require additional borrowings and/or the issuance of our common stock.

Our Senior Credit Agreement provides the Company with liquidity and capital resources for use by our U.S. operations. Historically, our foreign operations have generated cash flow from operations sufficient to invest in working capital and fund their capital improvements. As of September 30, 2018, our foreign subsidiaries held $31.4 million of cash in U.S. dollars. As a result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Reform Act") signed into law on December 22, 2017, the majority of cash held by foreign subsidiaries as of December 22, 2017, is expected to be repatriated to the U.S.

Over the long-term, we expect that future obligations and strategic business opportunities such as acquisitions, may be financed through a number of sources, including internally available cash, availability under our revolving credit facility, new debt financing, the issuance of equity securities, or any combination of the above. Any potential acquisitions are evaluated based on our acquisition strategy, which includes the enhancement of our existing products, operations, or capabilities, expanding our access to new products, markets, and customers, and the improvement of shareholder value. Our 2018 acquisition of SolarBOS and our 2017 acquisition of Package Concierge were funded by cash on hand.

These expectations are forward-looking statements based upon currently available information and may change if conditions in the credit or equity markets deteriorate or other circumstances change. To the extent that operating cash flows are lower than current levels, or sources of financing are not available or not available at acceptable terms, our future liquidity may be adversely affected.

Cash Flows

The following table sets forth selected cash flow data for the nine months ended September 30, (in thousands):

| | 2018 | 2017 |
|---|----------|-----------|
| Cash (used in) provided by: | | |
| Operating activities of continuing operations | $38,210 | $48,831 |
| Investing activities of continuing operations | (8,861) | (10,711) |
| Financing activities of continuing operations | (5,606) | (1,733) |
| Effect of exchange rate changes | (610) | 1,468 |
| Net increase in cash and cash equivalents | $23,133 | $37,855 |

During the nine months ended September 30, 2018, net cash generated from operating activities totaling $38.2 million was primarily driven by net income of $50.7 million and $24.5 million from non-cash charges including depreciation, amortization, stock compensation, intangible asset impairment charges and exit activities, partially offset by an investment in working capital and other net assets of $37.0 million. Net cash provided by operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 totaled $48.8 million, primarily composed of net income of $37.8 million plus $20.7 million from non-cash charges including depreciation, amortization, stock compensation, and exit activities, partially offset by an investment in working capital and other net assets of $9.7 million.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2018, the cash invested in working capital and other net assets of $37.0 million included a $30.5 million and a $16.3 million increase in accounts receivable and inventories, respectively, as well as a $0.5 million decrease in accrued expenses and other non-current liabilities, partially offset by a $9.2 million increase in accounts payable and a $1.0 million decrease in other current assets and other assets. The increase in accounts receivable relate to seasonal increases in demand activity. Inventory increases are primarily due to seasonality as well as continued material cost increases. Accounts payable increased due to the seasonal increase in demand activity. The decrease in accrued expenses and other non-current liabilities was largely due to payments related to the Company's performance based incentive plans, largely offset by costs correlated to the timing of customer payments. Total other current assets and other assets primarily decreased due to the timing of prepaid expenses.

Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 of $8.9 million consisted of capital expenditures of $6.8 million and net cash paid for the acquisition of SolarBOS of $5.2 million partially offset by net proceeds of $3.2 million from the sale and lease-back of property and equipment. Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 of $10.7 million primarily consisted of $18.3 million of net cash paid for the acquisition of Package Concierge, capital expenditures of $5.1 million and a payment of $0.2 million related to the final purchase adjustment for the acquisition of Nexus. These payments were partially offset by net proceeds of $12.9 million from the sale of property and equipment.

Net cash used in financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2018 of $5.6 million consisted of the purchase of treasury stock of $6.5 million due to a large number of performance awards that vested in June 2018 and payment of long-term debt borrowings of $0.4 million partially offset by the proceeds received from the issuance of common stock of $1.3 million due to stock option exercises. Net cash used in financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 of $1.7 million consisted of the purchase of treasury stock of $2.0 million and payment of long-term debt borrowings of $0.4 million partially offset by the proceeds received from the issuance of common stock of $0.7 million due to stock option exercises.

Senior Credit Agreement and Senior Subordinated Notes

Our Senior Credit Agreement is committed through December 9, 2020. Borrowings under the Senior Credit Agreement are secured by the trade receivables, inventory, personal property, equipment, and certain real property of the Company's significant domestic subsidiaries. The Senior Credit Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility and letters of credit in an aggregate amount of $300 million. The Company can request additional financing from the banks to increase the revolving credit facility to $500 million or to provide a term loan of up to $200 million subject to conditions set forth in the Senior Credit Agreement. The Senior Credit Agreement contains three financial covenants. As of September 30, 2018, the Company is in compliance with all three covenants.

Interest rates on the revolving credit facility are based on the LIBOR plus an additional margin that ranges from 1.25% to 2.25% for LIBOR loans based on the Total Leverage Ratio. In addition, the revolving credit facility is subject to an undrawn commitment fee ranging between 0.20% and 0.30% based on the Total Leverage Ratio and the daily average undrawn balance.

As of September 30, 2018, we had $290.5 million of availability under the Senior Credit Agreement net of outstanding letters of credit of $9.5 million. No amounts were outstanding under our revolving credit facility as of either September 30, 2018 or December 31, 2017.

In addition to our Senior Credit Agreement, the Company issued $210.0 million of 6.25% Notes in January 2013 which are due February 1, 2021. Provisions of the 6.25% Notes include, without limitation, restrictions on indebtedness, liens, and distributions from restricted subsidiaries, asset sales, affiliate transactions, dividends, and other restricted payments. Dividend payments are subject to annual limits and interest is paid semiannually on February 1 and August 1 of each year.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

In addition to the other information set forth in this report, you should carefully consider the risks discussed in “Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017. These risks and uncertainties have the potential to materially affect our business, financial condition, results of operation, cash flows, and future prospects. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may materially adversely impact our business, financial condition, or operating results. We are providing the following information regarding changes that have occurred to the previously disclosed risk factors in our Form 10-K. Except for such additional information, we believe there have been no material changes from the risk factors previously disclosed in our Form 10-K.

Recently imposed tariffs and potential future tariffs may result in increased costs and could adversely affect our results of operations

On June 1, 2018, the United States imposed Section 232 tariffs on certain steel (25%) and aluminum (10%) products imported into the U.S. These tariffs have created volatility in the market and have increased the costs of these inputs. Increased costs for imported steel and aluminum products have lead domestic sellers to respond with market-based increases to prices for such inputs as well. The new tariffs, along with any additional tariffs or trade restrictions that may be implemented by the U.S. or other countries, could result in further increased costs, shifting in competitive positions and a decreased available supply of steel and aluminum as well as additional imported components and inputs. We may not be able to pass price increases on to our customers and may not be able to secure adequate alternative sources of steel and aluminum on a timely basis. While retaliatory tariffs imposed by other countries on U.S. goods have not yet had a significant impact, we cannot predict further developments. The tariffs could adversely affect the operating profits for certain of our businesses and customer demand for certain of our products which could have a material adverse effect on our consolidated results of operations, financial position and cash flows.
