Edgar Filing: LOWES COMPANIES INC - Form S-8

All documents filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act after the date of this prospectus and prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment that indicates that all securities offered have been sold or that deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this prospectus and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such documents. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of the prospectus.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

This registration statement covers, among other things, deferred compensation obligations that may be offered under the Lowe's Companies, Inc. 1994, 1997 and 2001 Incentive Plans (the "Plans"). The following summary of the deferred compensation obligations is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Plan documents, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to, or incorporated by reference in, this registration statement.

Under the deferred compensation program, the Company will provide a select group of management and highly-compensated employees the opportunity to enter into agreements for the deferral of compensation. The Company's obligations under such agreements are contractual in nature and represent the Company's unsecured general obligations to pay the deferred compensation in the future in accordance with the terms of the Plans.. The deferred compensation program is unfunded, and participants and their beneficiaries have no right, title, or interest in the benefits deferred under the program or any claim against them. The Company will not segregate any funds or assets for deferred benefits or issue any notes or security for the payment of any deferred benefits.

The deferred compensation program is available to executives who are selected by the administrator or who earn a "mandatory deferred benefit." A participant earns a "mandatory deferred benefit" to the extent his or her applicable compensation would exceed the limit in Section 162(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and is deferred under procedures established by the administrator. An eligible employee not earning a mandatory deferred benefit becomes a participant in the program by filing a deferral election form with the administrator.

Deferred benefits may be "deferred cash benefits" or "deferred stock benefits". Deferred cash benefits are mandatory deferred benefits attributable to an eligible employee's base salary and are credited to a deferred cash account on the date the base salary otherwise would have been paid, with interest at a specified rate credited on the first date of each month. A deferred cash benefit is immediately and fully vested. Deferred stock benefits are deferred benefits attributable to deferred stock awards, performance share awards (including mandatory deferred benefits attributable to forfeited stock awards and performance share awards) and gain on the exercise of non-qualified stock options. These benefits are credited to a deferred stock account on the day following the election date or the date of exercise, as the case may be. Deferred stock benefits attributable to the gain on the exercise of non-qualified stock options and mandatory deferred benefits are immediately and fully vested. Deferred stock attributable to stock awards and performance share awards are vested at the time the deferred award would otherwise have become vested, except that a participant's entire deferred benefit vests upon a change in control of the Company (as defined in the 1997 Incentive Plan).

Deferred cash benefits are distributed in cash. Deferred stock benefits are distributed in shares of the Company's common stock. Benefits are paid in a lump sum unless a participant elects to have his benefits distributed in annual installments over a period of up to five years. If a participant's employment is terminated due to disability, the participant's benefit will be distributed over a five year period. Unless otherwise specified by a participant, distribution of benefits begins on the March 15th following the earlier of the participant's 65th birthday or the termination of employment. A participant may specify that payments are to begin on any of the following dates:

- . March 15 following termination of employment without regard to age;
- . March 15 following termination of employment and attainment of a specified age, or
- . March 15 following the attainment of a specified age.

In any event, mandatory deferred benefits will be paid in a lump sum no later than the last day of the Company's fiscal year in which the distribution would not cause the participant's compensation to exceed the limit in Code Section 162(m) (1). A participant's entire deferred cash account and deferred stock account will be distributed upon a change in control of the Company. Accelerated distributions may be permitted in the event of certain financial emergencies.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article IV of the Company's Bylaws provides that the Company will indemnify any person as an officer or director of the Company or as an officer, director, trustee or partner of another corporation, trust, partnership or employee benefit plan at the request of the Company, against any liability incurred in connection with any proceeding arising out of such service. To the extent that such person is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such proceeding, the Company will indemnify him against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in such defense. No indemnification is available if, at the time of the activities which are the subject of the proceeding, such person knew or believed that such activities were clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Company. Further, Section 55-8-51 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation may not indemnify a director in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which such director was adjudged liable to the corporation or in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him.

The Company maintains an insurance policy for the benefit of directors and officers insuring them against claims that are made against them by reason of any wrongful act (as defined) committed in their capacity as directors or officers.

Item 9. Undertakings

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described under Item 6 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
