Notes:Attach as many copies of the second part of the cover page as are needed, one reporting person per page.

Filing persons may, in order to avoid unnecessary duplication, answer items on the schedules (Schedule 13D, 13G or 14D1) by appropriate cross references to an item or items on the cover page(s). This approach may only be used where the cover page item or items provide all the disclosure required by the schedule item. Moreover, such a use of a cover page item will result in the item becoming a part of the schedule and accordingly being considered as "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section of the Act.

Reporting persons may comply with their cover page filing requirements by filing either completed copies of the blank forms available from the Commission, printed or typed facsimiles, or computer printed facsimiles, provided the documents filed have identical formats to the forms prescribed in the Commission's regulations and meet existing Securities Exchange Act rules as to such matters as clarity and size (Securities Exchange Act Rule 12b-12).

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLYING WITH SCHEDULE 13G

Under Sections 13(d), 13(g), and 23 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder, the Commission is authorized to solicit the information required to be supplied by this schedule by certain security holders of certain issuers. Disclosure of the information specified in this schedule is mandatory, except for I.R.S. identification numbers, disclosure of which is voluntary. The information will be used for the primary purpose of determining and disclosing the holdings of certain beneficial owners of certain equity securities. This statement will be made a matter of public record. Therefore, any information given will be available for inspection by any member of the public. Because of the public nature of the information, the Commission can use it for a variety of purposes, including referral to other governmental authorities or securities self-regulatory organizations for investigatory purposes or in connection with litigation involving the Federal securities laws or other civil, criminal or regulatory statutes or provisions. I.R.S. identification numbers, if furnished, will assist the Commission in identifying security holders and, therefore, in promptly processing statements of beneficial ownership of securities. Failure to disclose the information requested by this schedule, except for I.R.S. identification numbers, may result in civil or criminal action against the persons involved for violation of the Federal securities laws and rules promulgated thereunder.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

William R. Hough & Co. and sixteen other major brokerage firms entered into an agreement with various agencies of the United States Government to settle an ongoing, industry-wide investigation into a practice known as yield burning on April 6, 2000. The investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Department of Justice (DOJ) included broker/dealers which played a significant role in underwriting municipal bonds between 1990 and 1994. Four firms had settled earlier, five firms settled in August, 2000 and four additional firms settled in November, 2000. Under the terms of this settlement, William R. Hough & Co. agreed to pay $3.26 million in connection with transactions which occurred six to ten years ago. William R. Hough & Co. neither admitted nor denied various charges asserted by the SEC in its order.

With respect to an advance refunding transaction in Collier County, our firm, as a co-manager along with Raymond James & Associates, Inc., had an action filed against it by the Clerk of Collier County in March, 1999.

The claims against this firm relate to a certificate it signed opining as to the market price of escrow securities supplied by another dealer. Our firm filed a motion to dismiss the action. William R. Hough & Co. continues to serve as Financial Advisor to Collier County. Other industry participants were named as defendants in a similar federal class action.

In May 2001, to avoid the costs of litigation, the following firms entered into a settlement of the federal and state court class actions that has been approved by the U. S.
