CELLCOM ISRAEL LTD. ANNOUNCES MOC RESPONSE TO COMPANY'S NETWORK SHARING AGREEMENTS WITH GOLAN

Netanya, Israel – March 29, 2015 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (TASE: CEL) (hereinafter: the "Company") announced today that following the previously reported network sharing agreements with Golan Telecom Ltd., or Golan, which are subject to the approvals of the Israeli Ministry of Communications, or MOC, and the Israeli Antitrust Commissioner, the MOC notified the Company and Golan that the agreements require substantial changes before the MOC reviews them in detail. The Company is studying the implications of such requested changes and is working with Golan to implement such changes in order to receive the MOC's approval to the agreements.

For additional details see the Company's most recent annual report for the year ended December 31, 2014 on Form 20-F, filed on March 16, 2015, under "Item 3. Key Information – D. Risk Factors – Risks Related to our Business – We operate in a heavily regulated industry, which can harm our results of operations. In recent years, regulation in Israel has materially adversely affected our results" and "We face intense competition in all aspects of our business", and "Item 4. Information on the Company – B. Business Overview – Network and Technology - Network and Cell Sites Sharing Agreements" and "Government Regulation – Network Sharing".

Forward looking statement

The information included in this press release contains, or may be deemed to contain, forward-looking statements (as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and the Israeli Securities Law, 1968). Said forward-looking statements, relating to the approval of such agreements are subject to uncertainties and assumptions about the implications of the changes requested by the MOC and the parties' ability to reach agreements in relation thereof. The actual conditions the Company may face could lead to materially different outcome than that set forth above.
