Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust
LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS - NOVEMBER 30, 2002

Dear Shareholder:

During the six months ended November 30, 2002, U.S. economic indicators fluctuated between stronger and weaker growth. The economy continued to recover from recession and the aftermath of September 11. Real gross domestic product (GDP) accelerated to an annual growth rate of 5.0 percent in the first quarter of 2002. In the spring, the economy began to send mixed signals and the recovery lost momentum. Weakness in manufacturing and capital spending combined with corporate-accounting scandals and geopolitical turmoil to slow GDP to a 1.3 percent annual growth rate in the second quarter. The strongest consumer spending of the year and the restocking of inventories led to 4.0 percent annual GDP growth in the third quarter. The choppiness in the recovery pattern is expected to continue.

As the economy gained strength in the first few months of 2002, a general consensus developed that the Federal Reserve Board would begin to tighten monetary policy and raise short-term interest rates. The bond market reacted to these concerns in March and yields rose. By late spring, however, the consensus shifted to favoring bonds as labor market and capital-spending indicators remained soft and new disclosures on corporate ethics spurred a flight to quality. Most importantly, the Federal Reserve changed its monetary policy bias from neutral toward one of easing. The market's expectations of eventual rate hikes were scaled back and bonds rallied. A mid-October surge in the equity markets created a downdraft in bonds, but renewed concerns about the economy helped bond prices improve by month-end. On November 6, 2002, the Federal Reserve lowered the federal funds rate from 1.75 to 1.25 percent. This marked the first change by the central bank in nearly one year.

Municipal Market Conditions

The economic environment and unsettled equity markets lowered municipal yields to levels last seen in the 1960s. During the first 11 months of 2002, the yield on the 30-year insured municipal bond index ranged from a high of 5.43 percent in March to a low of 4.74 percent in September. The index yield stood at 5.10 percent at the end of November 2002. Throughout this period, the yield spread between BBB-rated general obligation bonds and AAA-rated bonds provided an average of 80 basis points of additional yield. At the end of November, more than 60 percent of Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust's holdings were below low investment grade or nonrated.

The ratio of municipal yields as a percentage of U.S. Treasury yields is used as a gauge of the relative value of municipals. A rising yield ratio indicates weaker relative performance by municipals. The ratio of 30-year insured municipal bond yields to 30-year Treasuries fell from 98 percent in December 2001 to 94 percent in March. As municipals lagged the summer rally in Treasuries, the ratio jumped to 102 percent in September. The ratio remained above 100 percent during October and November. These levels imply that municipals are cheap relative to Treasuries.

State and local governments took advantage of lower interest rates to refinance outstanding debt in a manner similar to homeowners refinancing their mortgages. Refinancing activity contributed to a surge in municipal bond underwriting, and long-term volume increased 27 percent to a record $328 billion in the first eleven months of 2002. Refunding issues represented almost one-quarter of the total. Issuance is on track to raise calendar year 2002's volume to $350 billion. In California, volume surged after the California Department of Water Resources sold $6.3 billion of bonds to reimburse the state for electric purchases made during the 2001 power crisis. This was the largest issue in municipal market history and increased California's share of national volume to 14 percent. Florida, New York and Texas, the next largest states in terms of issuance, represented an additional 27 percent of the national total.

Performance

During the six-month period ended November 30, 2002, the net asset value (NAV) of Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust (OIA) decreased from $7.88 to $7.82 per share. Based on this change, plus a reinvestment of tax-free dividends totaling $0.28 per share, the Fund's total NAV return was 2.76 percent. OIA's value on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) decreased from $8.08 to $7.38 per share during this period. Based on this change plus reinvestment of tax-free dividends, OIA's total market return was -5.42 percent. As of November 30, 2002, OIA's share price was at a 5.63 percent discount to its NAV.

Monthly dividends for the fourth quarter of 2002 were declared in September. Beginning with the October payment, the monthly dividend was decreased from $0.0475 to $0.045 per share. The new dividend reflects the level of the Fund's undistributed net investment income and projected earnings power. The Fund's level of undistributed net investment income was $0.077 per share on November 30, 2002, versus $0.085 per share six months earlier.

Portfolio Structure

The Fund's net assets of $163.3 million were diversified among 11 long-term sectors and 70 credits. At the end of November, the portfolio's average maturity was 18 years. Average duration, a measure of sensitivity to interest-rate changes, was 7.4 years. Three credits, representing 3 percent of net assets, were accruing income but may have difficulty with near term debt service payments. The accompanying charts provide current information on the portfolio's credit ratings, maturity distribution and sector concentrations. Optional call provisions by year and their respective cost (book) yields are also shown.

Looking Ahead

The Federal Reserve Board's cautious approach toward assuring economic recovery helped stabilize the fixed-income markets earlier this year. In fact, the Fed's current willingness to be accommodative resulted in a major bond rally during the second and third calendar quarters. We believe that the yields on tax-exempt securities continue to favor municipal bonds as an attractive choice for tax-conscious investors. For many investors, the taxable equivalent yields available on municipal bonds may offer a significant advantage.

The Fund's procedure for reinvestment of all dividends and distributions on common shares is through purchases in the open market. This method helps support the market value of the Fund's shares. In addition, we would like to remind you that the Trustees have approved a procedure whereby the Fund may, when appropriate, purchase shares in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions at a price not above market value or net asset value, whichever is lower at the time of purchase.

We appreciate your ongoing support of Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust and look forward to continuing to serve your investment needs.

Very truly yours,

Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - NOVEMBER 30, 2002 (UNAUDITED)

1. ORGANIZATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust (the "Fund") is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund's investment objective is to provide a high level of current income which is exempt from federal income tax. The Fund was organized as a Massachusetts business trust on June 22, 1988 and commenced operations on September 19, 1988.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

A. Valuation of Investments -- Portfolio securities are valued by an outside independent pricing service approved by the Trustees. The pricing service uses both a computerized matrix of tax-exempt securities and evaluations by its staff, in each case based on information concerning market transactions and quotations from dealers which reflect the bid side of the market each day. The portfolio securities are thus valued by reference to a combination of transactions and quotations for the same or other securities believed to be comparable in quality, coupon, maturity, type of issue, call provisions, trading characteristics and other features deemed to be relevant. Short-term debt securities having a maturity date of more than sixty days at time of purchase are valued on a mark-to-market basis until sixty days prior to maturity and thereafter at amortized cost based on their value on the 61st day. Short-term debt securities having a maturity date of sixty days or less at the time of purchase are valued at amortized cost.

B. Accounting for Investments -- Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed). Realized gains and losses on security transactions are determined by the identified cost method. Discounts are accreted and premiums are amortized over the life of the respective securities. Interest income is accrued daily except where collection is not expected.

C. Federal Income Tax Policy -- It is the Fund's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute substantially all of its taxable and nontaxable income to its shareholders. Accordingly, no federal income tax provision is required.

D. Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders -- Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends and distributions from net investment income and net realized capital gains are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. These "book/tax" differences are either considered temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification. Dividends and distributions which exceed net investment income and net realized capital gains for financial reporting purposes but not for tax purposes are reported as dividends in excess of net investment income or distributions in excess of net realized capital gains. To the extent they exceed net investment income and net realized capital gains for tax purposes, they are reported as distributions of paid-in-capital.

E. Use of Estimates -- The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. INVESTMENT ADVISORY/ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENTS

Pursuant to an Investment Advisory Agreement with Morgan Stanley Investment Advisors Inc. (the "Investment Advisor"), the Fund pays an advisory fee, calculated weekly and payable monthly, by applying the annual rate of 0.50% to the Fund's weekly net assets.

Pursuant to an Administration Agreement with Morgan Stanley Services Company Inc. (the "Administrator"), an affiliate of the Investment Advisor, the Fund pays an administration fee, calculated weekly and payable monthly, by applying the annual rate of 0.30% to the Fund's weekly net assets.

3. SECURITY TRANSACTIONS AND TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

The cost of purchases and proceeds from sales of portfolio securities, excluding short-term investments, for the six months ended November 30, 2002 aggregated $7,921,260 and $12,823,348, respectively.

Morgan Stanley Trust, an affiliate of the Investment Advisor and Administrator, is the Fund's transfer agent. At November 30, 2002, the Fund had transfer agent fees and expenses payable of approximately $1,100.

The Fund has an unfunded noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering all independent Trustees of the Fund who will have served as independent Trustees for at least five years at the time of retirement. Benefits under this plan are based on years of service and compensation during the last five years of service. Aggregate pension costs for the six months ended November 30, 2002 included in Trustees' fees and expenses in the Statement of Operations

Morgan Stanley Municipal Income Opportunities Trust

5. FEDERAL INCOME TAX STATUS

At May 31, 2002, the Fund had a net capital loss carryover of approximately $20,796,000, which may be used to offset future capital gains to the extent provided by regulations, which is available through May 31 of the following years:

AMOUNT IN THOUSANDS
2003	2004	2006	2008	2009
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----
$10,137	$5,243	$700	$87	$4,629

Capital losses incurred after October 31 ("post-October losses") within the taxable year are deemed to arise on the first business day of the Fund's next taxable year. The Fund incurred and will elect to defer net capital losses of approximately $1,117,000 during fiscal 2002.

As of May 31, 2002, the Fund had temporary book/tax differences primarily attributable to post-October losses and book amortization of discounts on debt securities.

6. DIVIDENDS

The Fund declared the following dividends from net investment income:

December 31, 2002	$0.045	March 7, 2003	March 21, 2003

7. EXPENSE OFFSET

The expense offset represents a reduction of the custodian fees for earnings on cash balances maintained by the Fund.

8. RISKS RELATING TO CERTAIN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Fund may invest a portion of its assets in residual interest bonds, which are inverse floating rate municipal obligations. The prices of these securities are subject to greater market fluctuations during periods of changing prevailing interest rates than are comparable fixed rate obligations.
