GE Interest Plus for Businesses Frequently Asked Questions Q: What is GE Interest Plus for Businesses? A: GE Interest Plus for Businesses is an investment designed to provide businesses with a convenient way to invest directly in triple-A rated General Electric Capital Corporation (GECC). It is an unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligation of GECC and is not a bank account or a money market fund. It is not a bank deposit and is not FDIC insured. It is offered in the U.S. by prospectus only. Complete information concerning GE Interest Plus for Businesses is contained in the prospectus. Q: How does GE Interest Plus for Businesses set its rates? A: Rates are reviewed weekly by the GE Interest Plus Committee and may be reset as often. Q: How do I add to or redeem from my investment? A: When you invest, you will be enrolled in our Quick Transaction Service. This service lets you electronically transfer money to and from your linked bank checking account. Other ways to invest include mailing in a check or wiring in funds. You can also redeem by wire. Q: How safe is my investment? A: There is risk with any investment you make. However, with GE Interest Plus for Businesses, you benefit from the creditworthiness of General Electric Capital Corporation, the sole obligor of the GE Interest Plus for Businesses Notes. GECC is rated AAA by Standard & Poor's Corporation (S&P) and Aaa by Moody's Investors Service (Moody's). S&P awards a AAA rating to companies they define as the best quality companies, reliable and stable. Moody's assigns their Aaa rating to companies they judge to be of the highest quality, with minimal credit risk. Have questions? Ready to find out more?
