Item 1. Subject Company Information.

The name of the subject company to which this solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9 (this Statement) relates is I-trax, Inc. (I-trax), a Delaware corporation. The principal executive offices of I-trax are located at 4 Hillman Drive, Suite 130, Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania 19317. The telephone number of the principal executive offices of I-trax is (610) 459-2405.

This Statement relates to shares of I-trax common stock, par value $0.001 per share (Common Shares) and Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (Preferred Shares) and together with the Common Shares, the Shares). As of March 24, 2008, there were 41,896,247 Common Shares and 217,126.3 Preferred Shares issued and outstanding; 5,743,944 Common Shares reserved for issuance upon exercise of outstanding stock options and warrants; and 2,171,263 Common Shares reserved for issuance upon conversion of outstanding Preferred Shares.

Item 2. Identity and Background of Filing Person.

The name, business address and business telephone number of I-trax are set forth in Item 1 above. I-trax is the person filing this Statement and the subject company.

The Offer

As disclosed in a tender offer statement on Schedule TO filed by Putter Acquisition Sub, Inc. (Offeror), a wholly owned subsidiary of Walgreen Co. (Walgreens), with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on March 28, 2008 (such Schedule TO, as amended or supplemented from time to time hereafter being the Schedule TO), Walgreens, through Offeror, is offering to purchase all of the issued and outstanding Common Shares and Preferred Shares of I-trax for $5.40 per Common Share (the Common Offer) and $54.00 plus the Dividend Amount per Preferred Share (the Preferred Offer), in each case in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated March 28, 2008 (as amended and supplemented from time to time, the Offer to Purchase), and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with any amendments or supplements to the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal, collectively constitute the Offers). The Dividend Amount applicable to a Preferred Share purchased in the Preferred Offer means the product of (1)(A) the amount of accrued and unpaid dividends on such Preferred Share at the time the Offeror accepts shares tendered pursuant to the Preferred Offer (the Acceptance Time) divided by (B) $3.84, which amount is the average market price of the Common Shares for the ten (10) consecutive trading days prior to and including the date of the Merger Agreement and (2) $5.40 in cash or such greater amount as may have been paid to any holder of Common Shares in the Common Offer. Offeror's Offers are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Offers. The Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal are included as Exhibits (a)(1) and (a)(2) to this Statement, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The Offers are being made pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 14, 2008, by and among Walgreens, Offeror and I-trax (the Merger Agreement). A copy of the Merger Agreement is filed as Exhibit (e)(1) to this Statement and is incorporated herein by reference. As set forth in the Offer to Purchase and set forth in the Schedule TO, the principal executive offices of each of Walgreens and the Offeror are located at 200 Wilmot Road, Deerfield, Illinois 60015.

The Merger

The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time (as defined below), Offeror will be merged with and into I-trax (the Merger). Following the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Offeror will cease and I-trax will continue as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Walgreens. The Merger Agreement further provides that the closing of the Merger (the Closing) will take place on a date to be specified by Walgreens and I-trax (the Closing Date), which will be no later than the third business day after satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. At the Closing, I-trax will cause the certificate of merger, in a form jointly prepared by Walgreens and I-trax prior to the Closing (the Certificate of Merger), to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and will make all other filings or recordings required under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) to effect the Merger. The Merger will become effective when such Certificate of Merger has been duly filed or at such later date or time as may be agreed by Walgreens and I-trax and specified in the Certificate of Merger in accordance with the DGCL (the effective time of the Merger being thereafter referred to as the Effective Time). By virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the I-trax or Offeror stockholders, at the Effective Time, each Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (a) any Shares directly owned by I-trax as treasury stock or owned by Walgreens or Offeror (other than shares held on behalf of third parties), and (b) Shares held by a holder who has not voted in favor of or consented to the Merger and who has properly demanded and perfected his right to be paid the fair value of such Shares (Appraisal Shares) in accordance with the provisions of the DGCL, which Appraisal Shares will only be entitled to the rights granted under the DGCL), will be cancelled and cease to exist, and each holder of any such shares will cease to have any rights except the right to receive the consideration discussed herein. Each Common Share will automatically be converted into the right to receive $5.40. Each Preferred Share will automatically be converted into the right to receive $54.00 plus the applicable Dividend Amount.

Offeror commenced the Offers on March 28, 2008. The Offers and withdrawal rights are currently scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, at the end of Thursday, April 24, 2008, unless Offeror extends it in accordance with the terms of the Offers.

Certain information provided by I-trax and relating to the Offers, the full text of which has previously been filed with the SEC as preliminary communications made before commencement of the Offers, is available at www.I-trax.com.

Item 3. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements.

Except as set forth in this Item 3, or in the Information Statement of I-trax attached to this Schedule as Annex I (the Information Statement) or as incorporated by reference herein, as of the date hereof, there are no material agreements, arrangements or understandings or any actual or potential conflicts of interest between I-trax or its affiliates and (i) its executive officers, directors or affiliates; or (ii) Walgreens or Offeror or their respective executive officers, directors or affiliates. The Information Statement is being furnished to I-trax's stockholders pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Rule 14f-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act, in connection with Walgreens' possible designation, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, of certain persons to be appointed to the Board of Directors of I-trax (the I-trax Board) other than at a meeting of the stockholders of I-trax. The Information Statement is incorporated herein by reference.

In considering the recommendation of the I-trax Board with respect to the Offers and the Merger, you should be aware that certain executive officers and directors of I-trax have interests in the Offers and the Merger that are described below and in the Information Statement and which are different from those of stockholders generally. The I-trax Board was aware of any such contracts, agreements, arrangements or understandings and considered them along with other matters described in Item 4 below.

Walgreens

Confidentiality Agreement

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Walgreens and I-trax have entered into a Confidentiality Agreement dated July 26, 2007, as amended on January 18, 2008 (the Confidentiality Agreement), pursuant to which Walgreens and I-trax agreed, among other things, not to disclose the proprietary information of the disclosing party to any third party other than for the purpose of evaluating a possible transaction between Walgreens and I-trax. In addition, pursuant to the Confidentiality Agreement, Walgreens agreed to not purchase I-trax stock for nine months outside of the context of the proposed acquisition. Each party also agreed to not solicit the other's employees for a year. The Confidentiality Agreement is included as Exhibit (e)(2) to this Statement.

Table of Contents*Merger Agreement*

Walgreens, Offeror and I-trax have entered into the Merger Agreement. A summary of the terms of the Offers and the Merger Agreement is incorporated herein by reference to the sections of the Offer to Purchase entitled The Terms of the Offers and Purpose of the Offers; The Merger Agreement; Appraisal Rights; Going Private Transactions; Plans for I-trax. Such summaries and descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference and included as Exhibit (e)(1) to this Statement.

Directors and Officers of I-trax*Equity Compensation Plans*

At the Effective Time of the Merger, each outstanding equity award, whether vested or unvested (each, an I-trax Equity Award), under I-trax's 2000 Equity Compensation Plan and Amended and Restated 2001 Equity Compensation Plan (collectively the I-trax Equity Plans) will be cancelled and exchanged promptly following the Effective Time for a cash payment from Walgreens or I-trax, as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the amount of each cash payment will be equal to the difference between $5.40 and the exercise price of the applicable I-trax Equity Award, multiplied by the number of shares of Common Shares that are subject to such I-trax Equity Award immediately prior to the Merger, without interest and less any required withholding taxes. It is the intention of the parties that following the Effective Time, no holder of any I-trax Equity Award or any participant in any I-trax Equity Plan or other employee benefit arrangement of I-trax shall have any right thereunder to acquire any capital stock of I-trax, any of its subsidiaries or the surviving corporation.

Each I-trax Equity Award in the form of an unvested stock option award shall accelerate in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The following table shows the total number of unvested stock option awards held as of March 24, 2008 by each executive officer and director that are expected to accelerate and become fully vested in connection with the completion of the Merger. The options have exercise prices between the ranges of $1.40 and $3.60. The intrinsic value of the unvested options is based on the difference between the exercise price of the unvested options and the closing stock price of Common Shares on March 24, 2008 ($5.30).

Table of Contents*Transition Compensation Plan*

In order to promote a smooth transition under the Merger Agreement, the Compensation Committee of the I-trax Board approved and adopted a Transition Compensation Plan (the Transition Plan). The Transition Plan provides transition compensation to certain key employees of I-trax upon the consummation of the Merger. If the Merger or a change in control (as defined in the plan) does not occur, the Transition Plan will be cancelled. The Transition Plan provides for the payment to certain employees of a transaction bonus and a retention bonus. The transaction bonuses are only payable upon closing of the Merger and require no additional service to I-trax subsequent to the Merger as a condition to the receipt of such bonus. The transaction bonus amounts are as follows:

Executive Officer	Transaction Bonus
Frank A. Martin Chairman	$ 400,480
R. Dixon Thayer Chief Executive Officer	193,120
Dr. Raymond J. Fabius President and Chief Medical Officer	180,710
Peter Hotz Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer	95,406
Bradley S. Wear Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	72,000
Yuri Rozenfeld Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary	210,625

A retention bonus may be awarded to certain employees for their continued employment with I-trax for a designated period of time following the Merger (the Retention Period). The Retention Period will be included in an agreement between I-trax and any participating employees. No portion of any retention bonus will be paid if, prior to the end of the Retention Period, the participating employee resigns or is terminated (for certain specified reasons) from I-trax. Additionally, all retention bonuses awarded under the Transition Plan are subject to the participating employee's continued compliance with any non-compete, non-solicitation, confidentiality and non-disparagement requirements, if any, in such participating employee's employment agreement or similar arrangement with I-trax.

Employment Agreements

I-trax has employment agreements with each of the executive officers, which are described in the Information Statement. Each executive officer's employment agreement, other than Mr. Wear's, provides for the acceleration of stock options upon a change in control. In addition, Messrs. Martin's and Thayer's employment agreements provide that a change in control constitutes good reason for termination.

Director and Officer Indemnification; Insurance

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Walgreens and I-trax, as the surviving corporation in the Merger, will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless (including advancement of expenses) the current and former directors and officers of I-trax or any of its subsidiaries with respect to actions occurring on or prior to the Effective Time to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL. Walgreens will not amend or repeal the indemnifications provisions of I-trax's Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement for a period of six years after the closing of the Merger. I-trax, as the surviving company, must either (i) maintain, for six years following the Merger, directors and officers liability insurance policies on terms not materially less favorable than I-trax's existing insurance coverage, subject to a cap on the premium paid for such coverage equal to 300% of the last annual premium paid by I-trax for its existing coverage (the Maximum Premium), or (ii) purchase tail insurance coverage that provides coverage substantially equivalent to I-trax's existing directors and officers liability insurance policies for a period of six years. If I-trax's existing insurance expires, is terminated or cancelled during such six-year period or exceeds the Maximum Premium, the Surviving Corporation shall obtain as much directors and officers liability insurance coverage as can be obtained for the remainder of such period for an annualized premium not in excess of the Maximum Premium.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At a meeting held March 14, 2008, the I-trax Board: (1) resolved that the terms of the Merger Agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, I-trax and I-trax's stockholders, and declared it advisable to enter into the Merger Agreement; (2) authorized the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement; (3) approved, authorized and adopted the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (4) recommended acceptance of the Offers and the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the I-trax stockholders; and (5) took action to exempt the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement from the restrictions set forth in Section 203 of DGCL.

I-TRAX'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS, BY VOTE OF THE DIRECTORS ON MARCH 14, 2008, RECOMMENDS THAT I-TRAX'S STOCKHOLDERS ACCEPT THE OFFERS AND TENDER THEIR SHARES PURSUANT TO THE OFFERS.

BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER

I-trax's management and the I-trax Board have periodically assessed potential strategic opportunities to acquire, be acquired by, or combine with other companies.

Before June 2006, I-trax's management had discussions with several potential strategic and financial buyers. From June 2006 and through 2007, I-trax continued to hold discussions with a number of potential acquisition targets as well as with various parties interested in acquiring I-trax. In connection with these discussions, I-trax originally engaged the investment banking firm of Bryant Park Capital, Inc. (Bryant Park Capital) on June 22, 2006 to assist I-trax in its merger and acquisition-related activities. That engagement was extended on January 1, 2007.

Beginning in June 2006, I-trax engaged in in-depth discussions with one potential strategic acquirer, but the discussions ended in January 2007 because the parties could not reach an agreement on price.

On July 9, 2007, Hal F. Rosenbluth, senior strategy consultant for health care at Walgreens and co-founder and chairman of Take Care Health Systems, contacted Frank A. Martin, Chairman of I-trax, via telephone to discuss how Take Care Health and I-trax could work together. As a follow-up to that telephone conversation, Messrs. Martin and Rosenbluth met in person to further discuss how I-trax's and Take Care Health's services could be linked together.

Based on the progress of the discussions between Messrs. Martin and Rosenbluth, Mr. Martin was invited to attend Walgreens' strategic planning meeting on July 25 and July 26, 2007 in North Dakota. The meeting was attended by the following representatives of Walgreens: Mr. Rosenbluth, Robert Zimmerman, Vice President and current Chief Strategy Officer, John W. Gleeson, former Senior Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer and Kim Rhodes, Chief Strategist for Take Care Health. During the course of that meeting, the participants discussed the potential opportunities for I-trax and Walgreens to work together in the employer-sponsored healthcare space. At that meeting, the parties also discussed potential structure and implementation of such a relationship in general terms and agreed to enter into a joint Confidentiality Agreement, which was executed on or about August 3, 2007 and related to a possible acquisition of I-trax by Walgreens.

At the same time, as part of its strategic mergers and acquisitions plans, I-trax management, with the help of Bryant Park Capital, continued to engage in discussions with several potential acquisition targets in the health and wellness space, including discussions relating to a potential merger with a publicly-traded company. The discussions with the publicly-traded company continued until September 2007, but were terminated shortly thereafter as the parties could not agree on the consideration to be received by the publicly-traded company's stockholders in the merger. In addition, on July 27, 2007, Mr. Martin and R. Dixon Thayer, Chief Executive Officer and Director of I-trax, along with representatives of Bryant Park Capital, met with a private equity firm to explore a potential investment in I-trax to raise funds to finance specific acquisitions I-trax was then actively considering. The private equity firm indicated it was not interested in making a significant investment in I-trax because of I-trax's high valuation.

On August 6, 2007, Walgreens began its due diligence regarding the proposed acquisition in coordination with its financial advisor.

On August 10, 2007, Mr. Martin, Raymond J. Fabius, M.D., I-trax's President and Chief Medical Officer, and Peter Hotz, I-trax's Chief Operating Officer, met with a representative from another potential strategic acquirer to discuss that company's potential interest in acquiring I-trax. The meeting was held at the request of the potential acquirer.

Strategic discussions with Walgreens continued on August 15 and August 27, 2007, when Mr. Martin and other I-trax executives met with Mr. Rosenbluth and Ms. Rhodes. Among other things, discussions focused on I-trax's unique ability to deliver wellness and disease management services utilizing I-trax's trusted clinicians at the workplace, as well as the ability of the combined companies to substantially augment I-trax's onsite services through Walgreens retail business.

Table of Contents

On August 29, 2007, Mr. Martin and other members of I-trax management had a telephone call with representatives of the other potentially interested company during which I-trax presented its five-year strategic plan. The discussions were terminated shortly thereafter as the parties could not agree on a price range for acquisition of I-trax.

On September 11, 2007, the management of I-trax, including Messrs. Martin, Thayer, Fabius and Hotz, with the assistance of Bryant Park Capital, made management presentations to representatives of Walgreens, including among others Mr. Rosenbluth, Ms. Rhodes and Mark Vainisi, Director - Merger & Acquisitions for Walgreens and Chris L. Noble, Director of Acquisitions for Walgreens Health Services. The discussion continued with emphasis on the strategic opportunities that could present themselves to the combined businesses.

Following the September 11, 2007 presentation, Walgreens and its financial advisor continued to conduct due diligence through the month of October. In October, in response to Walgreens' request for more in-depth due diligence materials, representatives of I-trax advised representatives of Walgreens that, to advance the acquisition discussions and expand the scope of I-trax information available to Walgreens for due diligence purposes, Walgreens needed to provide I-trax with a preliminary price range for the proposed acquisition. Walgreens representatives requested more specific financial information to help them arrive at that introductory price range.

On October 9, 2007, Mr. Martin and members of I-trax's financial advisor, Bryant Park Capital, presented financial and operating information regarding I-trax, including I-trax's 2007 and 2008 preliminary budget, high-level financial goals, and business model and strategic plan, to Walgreens' financial advisor, Peter J. Solomon Company, L.P. (PJSC) at PJSC's offices in New York, New York. Representatives of I-trax again communicated to representatives of Walgreens that, to advance the acquisition discussions and expand the scope of I-trax information available to Walgreens for due diligence purposes, Walgreens needed to provide I-trax with a preliminary price range for the proposed acquisition. Walgreens representatives again requested more specific financial information to help them arrive at that preliminary price range.

In October 2007, concurrently with the discussions with Walgreens and with the assistance of Bryant Park Capital, I-trax's management intensified its negotiations to acquire two health and wellness providers. I-trax also began to seek sources for the funding required to fund such acquisitions. After detailed discussion with its senior secured creditor, third party creditor, and a financial advisor that specializes in raising equity capital, I-trax's management concluded that it could fund the acquisition of the smaller of the two companies with existing cash flow and additional borrowings under its existing senior secured credit facility. I-trax would require supplemental equity capital in the form of a private investment in public equity (PIPE) transaction to fund the proposed acquisition of the second company. On October 28, 2007, Mr. Martin first met with a placement agent to discuss a PIPE transaction to raise capital to be used in the execution of I-trax's acquisition strategy.

On October 29, 2007, representatives of I-trax, Bryant Park Capital and Walgreens' financial representatives met by conference telephone to discuss certain due diligence matters.

On October 31, 2007, Walgreens' financial advisor contacted I-trax's financial advisors and requested additional detailed financial information in order for Walgreens to be in a position to suggest a preliminary acquisition price range and prepare an indication of interest letter. After further discussions between the parties, Walgreens' financial advisor advised Mr. Martin that Walgreens must undertake further strategic analysis before it could propose an indication of interest that would be acceptable to I-trax.

During October and November 2007, I-trax and its financial and legal advisors negotiated with Minute Men, Incorporated to acquire Pro Fitness Health Solutions, LLC (Pro Fitness), a provider of employer-sponsored wellness and fitness programs. On November 27, 2007, I-trax signed a definitive agreement to purchase Pro Fitness and, on December 14, 2007, I-trax completed the acquisition of Pro Fitness.

During November and December 2007, I-trax and its placement agent prepared to commence the PIPE offering to finance the acquisition of the second health and wellness target, which was being negotiated with the assistance of I-trax's financial and legal advisors. I-trax had several meetings with potential investors concerning the PIPE transaction and received an offer to raise the desired amount in a PIPE offering. Because overall market conditions worsened substantially in December, and the proposed terms of the offering involved selling equity at a significant discount to market price coupled with warrants to buy additional shares of I-trax Common Shares, the I-trax Board decided not to pursue the PIPE offering at the terms offered and the PIPE transaction was postponed. The I-trax Board also discussed whether I-trax might secure better terms for the PIPE in January 2008.

On December 19, 2007, Mr. Vainisi called Mr. Martin to inform him that Walgreens was prepared to deliver an initial, non-binding indication of interest letter to Mr. Martin and commence full due diligence. The letter expressed interest in pursuing a transaction between I-trax and Walgreens and included an initial indication of interest, subject to due diligence, in the price range of $5.00 to $5.50 per share in cash for each share of I-trax Common Shares outstanding or underlying outstanding preferred stock, equity awards and warrants. Mr. Martin shared the letter with the I-trax Board, Messrs. Thayer and Fabius, Yuri Rozenfeld, I-trax's Senior Vice President and General Counsel, representatives of Bryant Park Capital and representatives of Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP (Ballard Spahr), I-trax's corporate and securities counsel. I-trax ended its efforts to complete the PIPE upon receipt of the letter from Walgreens. In addition, as a result of the letter from Walgreens, I-trax informed the second health and wellness target company that it was postponing acquisition discussions.

On December 21, 2007, Messrs. Vainisi and Rosenbluth and Ms. Rhodes met with Messrs. Martin and Rozenfeld at I-trax's Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania headquarters to discuss the due diligence process.

On December 28, 2007, I-trax received a preliminary due diligence request from Walgreens, followed by a comprehensive list on January 3, 2008.

Beginning on December 28, 2007, I-trax worked to establish an electronic due diligence data room.

On January 11, 2008, the I-trax Board met by conference telephone to review and discuss the Walgreens indication of interest. At that meeting, representatives from Bryant Park Capital made a presentation regarding the elements of the financial analyses Bryant Park Capital would perform in reviewing a finalized offer from Walgreens. A representative of Ballard Spahr made a presentation on the I-trax Board's fiduciary duties when considering such proposals. After discussion, the I-trax Board established a special committee of the I-trax Board (the Special Committee) consisting of Gail F. Lieberman, Mr. Martin, Haywood D. Cochrane, Jr. and Phillip D. Green, all but one of whom are independent directors, to oversee the regular progress of the potential transaction with Walgreens. The Special Committee adopted a charter that provides that the Special Committee is responsible for exploring the sale of I-trax, negotiating the terms of a sale transaction and providing recommendation to the I-trax Board regarding such transactions. The I-trax Board discussed and confirmed the fact that, since the only transaction then being considered by I-trax was the sale of I-trax to a third party and not to any member of management or any buyer affiliated with management, the Walgreens acquisition did not present any conflict among I-trax's management or directors, and that, therefore, the Special Committee did not need to consist entirely of independent directors.

On January 14, 2008, Dr. Fabius, Messrs. Thayer and Hotz and Bradley S. Wear, I-trax's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, met with representatives of Walgreens and Take Care Health, including Mr. Rosenbluth. At the meeting, participants again focused on general opportunities that should be available for the combined business in the healthcare market and reviewed the roles and responsibilities of the present I-trax management.

On January 17, 2008, the Special Committee met by conference telephone. The status of the potential transaction with Walgreens was discussed and the engagement of Bryant Park Capital to render the fairness opinion in connection with the proposed transaction was approved and the terms of Bryant Park Capital's existing engagement were ratified and confirmed. The Special Committee considered engaging another financial advisor to deliver a fairness opinion, but decided upon Bryant Park Capital based upon its knowledge of I-trax as a result of the services Bryant Park Capital had previously provided to I-trax, the time that would be required for I-trax's management to educate another financial advisor about I-trax, and the high quality of the services performed by Bryant Park Capital for I-trax over the years. In addition, the Special Committee considered the time that would be required for I-trax's management to educate another financial advisor and concluded that any benefits of engaging another investment banker would be outweighed by the delay and cost associated with procuring an additional opinion.

On January 18, 2008, I-trax and Walgreens signed an amendment to the Confidentiality Agreement pursuant to which Walgreens agreed to not purchase I-trax stock for nine months outside of the context of the proposed acquisition. Each party also agreed to not solicit the other's employees for a year. On January 20, 2008, Walgreens, its financial advisors, its tax advisors, Kirkland & Ellis LLP (Kirkland & Ellis) and Barnes & Thornburg LLP, Walgreens' outside counsels, began reviewing the materials in the electronic due diligence room. Extensive due diligence continued throughout the remainder of January, February and the beginning of March. As diligence progressed through this period, I-trax and its financial advisors communicated to Walgreens and its financial advisor that I-trax would not provide Walgreens any information that would correlate specific clients with applicable revenues and margins because of competitive concerns. During the course of due diligence, I-trax and Walgreens representatives engaged in multiple conversations, and I-trax provided additional documentation and information regarding I-trax's business, employee benefits and regulatory matters, as they were requested.

On January 27, 2008, the I-trax Board met by conference telephone to discuss I-trax's 2008 business plan, I-trax's five-year strategic plan, which was delivered to the directors prior to the meeting, and the status of the Walgreens transaction. A representative of Bryant Park Capital attended the meeting. At that meeting, the I-trax Board approved the proposed budget for 2008. Management also presented to the Board its five-year strategic plan, which separately analyzed I-trax's core business and certain proposed initiatives. The five-year strategic plan materials delivered to the I-trax Board included five-years of financial projections for I-trax under certain scenarios that were prepared by management. I-trax management and the I-trax Board reviewed and discussed the risks and uncertainties associated with the five-year strategic plan, including I-trax's capacity to generate the projected level of growth in revenue and improvement in margins in its core businesses, as well as whether I-trax would be successful in raising the capital required to implement the proposed initiatives on a timely basis and at favorable terms. They also considered the potential timing and final cost of certain acquisitions contemplated in the five-year strategic plan, the risks and uncertainties associated with entering certain new lines of business, the potential impact on I-trax core businesses and proposed initiatives from existing competitors and new entrants in these markets, and the organizational challenges posed by a plan that would require successful execution on a number of different fronts. Also at that meeting, the I-trax Board authorized the release of certain forward-looking strategic information, including the financial projections, to Walgreens. The financial projections delivered to Walgreens are discussed in Item 8 of this Schedule. The 2008 budget approved by the I-trax Board at the January 27th meeting and the five-year strategic plan reviewed by the I-trax Board at that meeting were also provided to Bryant Park Capital for the purposes of its analysis of the financial terms of the proposed transaction.

On February 5, 2008, representatives from I-trax, Bryant Park Capital, Walgreens and PJSC met at Bryant Park Capital's offices in New York. In addition, certain Walgreens executives, and certain other financial, accounting and tax advisors of Walgreens participated in the meeting telephonically. At that meeting, I-trax presented its 2008 budget and five-year strategic plan in detail and answered questions regarding the presentation.

On February 6, 2008, the Special Committee met by conference telephone. At the meeting, the progress of the negotiations with Walgreens was reviewed and the Special Committee was updated on the status of Walgreens' due diligence review.

Later in the day on February 6, 2008, Kirkland & Ellis provided a Merger Agreement draft to I-trax and its representatives. The draft proposed a tender offer followed by a merger transaction, extensive representations and warranties of I-trax and covenants of the parties. I-trax and its legal and financial advisors discussed the draft of the Merger Agreement over the next several days. Later that week, a representative of Bryant Park Capital advised

Mr. Vainisi that in order for I-trax to provide a meaningful and complete response to the draft, I-trax wanted more certainty as to the consideration Walgreens was willing to offer in the proposed transaction.

Table of Contents

On February 19, 2008, Mr. Vainisi called Mr. Martin and indicated that, based on due diligence done up to that point, Walgreens had narrowed the range of consideration to $5.25 to $5.50 per share in cash for each share of Common Shares outstanding or underlying outstanding preferred stock, equity awards and warrants.

On February 20, 2008, the I-trax Board met in person at the offices of Ballard Spahr. At that meeting, a representative of Ballard Spahr gave a presentation describing, in detail, the terms of the draft Merger Agreement. Copies of the draft Merger Agreement were distributed to members of the Board at the meeting. Representatives of Bryant Park Capital presented to the I-trax Board an analysis of the proposed financial terms of the transaction. Bryant Park Capital's analysis was based upon financial projections provided by I-trax management that reflected minor adjustments to those provided to Walgreens and discussed in Item 8 of this Schedule. A representative of Fox Rothschild LLP, counsel to certain members of management, discussed executive compensation matters in connection with the proposed transaction with Walgreens. The I-trax Board analyzed in detail the positive and negative factors associated with the Walgreens transaction and, as part of that analysis, discussed in-depth the prospect of I-trax remaining an independent company.

Based upon the I-trax Board's positive response to the $5.25 to $5.50 per share price range, I-trax began providing sensitive financial data and client specific information previously withheld because of competitive concerns.

On February 21, 2008, I-trax and its representatives provided Walgreens and its representatives with its comments on the draft Merger Agreement. On February 26, 2008, representatives of the parties' legal advisors participated in a telephone conference call regarding I-trax's comments on the draft Merger Agreement.

On February 29, 2008, the Special Committee met by conference telephone. At the meeting, the Special Committee discussed the status of the transaction with Walgreens and other indications of interest in I-trax from other parties. A representative of Ballard Spahr provided an update on the status of the Merger Agreement negotiations.

Later in the day on February 29, 2008, Kirkland & Ellis circulated a revised draft of the Merger Agreement. I-trax and its legal and financial advisors discussed the draft of the Merger Agreement over the next several days. Early the following week, Mr. Martin relayed to Mr. Vainisi that in order for I-trax to provide a meaningful and complete response to the revised draft I-trax wanted more certainty as to the consideration Walgreens was willing to offer in the proposed transaction.

During January, February and March 2008, certain members of I-trax management had discussions with parties that had expressed a strategic interest in acquiring I-trax in the past. In particular, on February 27, 2008, Mr. Martin was approached by a party interested in acquiring I-trax and the occupational health division of a major hospital system. Similarly, on March 5, 2008, representatives from another company met with I-trax management at I-trax's Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania offices to discuss the company's interest in acquiring I-trax. In both cases, Mr. Martin told the potential acquiring party that I-trax was in the midst of considering strategic alternatives and, as a result, needed a prompt indication of the seriousness of the potential acquiring party and the financial terms such party was considering. Nothing has come of the inquiries to date.

On March 8, 2008, Mr. Vainisi called Mr. Martin and indicated that Walgreens was willing to pay $5.40 per share in cash for each share of I-trax Common Shares outstanding or underlying outstanding preferred stock, equity awards and warrants. Mr. Vainisi also advised Mr. Martin that Walgreens was in negotiations to acquire Whole Health Management, Inc., (Whole Health) a competitor of I-trax.

On March 9, 2008, I-trax and its representatives provided Walgreens and its representatives with its comments on the revised draft Merger Agreement. On March 11, 2008, I-trax and its representatives and Walgreens and its representatives held a conference call to discuss the remaining outstanding issues on the draft Merger Agreement.

I-trax's concerns regarding the pending Whole Health transaction were also discussed, as well as methods of acquiring the Preferred Shares, including by way of a tender offer.

Over the course of the next two days, I-trax and its financial and legal advisors and Walgreens and its financial and legal advisors met frequently by telephone to negotiate the final terms of the Merger Agreement, including the covenants of the parties in connection with relevant approvals under applicable antitrust law, the termination rights available to the parties and the termination fee payable in certain termination events.

On March 12, 2008, the I-trax Board met by conference telephone. Preceding that meeting, the then current draft of the Merger Agreement along with a memorandum documenting the significant terms of the Merger Agreement was circulated to the members of the I-trax Board. At the meeting, a representative of Ballard Spahr gave an overview of the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the specific performance provision and termination fee payable to I-trax in certain situations, discussed significant changes to the Merger Agreement since the February 20, 2008 I-trax Board meeting, the mechanics of the tender offer and antitrust considerations. A representative of Fox, Rothschild discussed certain executive compensation matters in connection with the proposed transaction with Walgreens, including the I-trax Transition Compensation Plan. The members of the I-trax Board were then polled regarding their position on the proposed transaction and all members present indicated that they were inclined, based on the information they currently had, to vote in favor of the transaction.

On March 14, 2008, the I-trax Board met by conference telephone. Preceding that meeting, the then current draft of the Merger Agreement along with a memorandum documenting the significant terms of the Merger Agreement was circulated to the members of the I-trax Board. At the meeting, a representative of Ballard Spahr highlighted the changes to the Merger Agreement since the March 12, 2008 I-trax Board meeting, gave an update regarding antitrust considerations and provided an overview of steps to be taken if a competing offer were to be received subsequent to entering into the Merger Agreement. Representatives of Bryant Park Capital then discussed with the I-trax Board the financial terms of the proposed transaction and rendered an oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the I-trax Board that, based upon the and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, qualifications and limitations to be set forth in its written opinion, as of the date of the opinion, the Common Shares price (i.e., $5.40 in cash) was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Common Shares other than Walgreens and any of its affiliates.

At the conclusion of the March 14, 2008 I-trax Board meeting, the I-trax Board approved the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement, including the tender offers, and recommended that the holders of Common Shares and Preferred Shares accept the tender offers and, if applicable, vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement. Two members of the I-trax Board were not present at the meeting because they were traveling on airplanes. However, both members were present at the March 12th meeting, expressed to Messrs. Martin and Rozenfeld their support of the transaction with Walgreens prior to the meeting and reaffirmed their support following the meeting. Subsequent to the I-trax Board meeting, the parties executed the Merger Agreement. On March 17, 2008, a press release announcing the transaction was issued and both Walgreens and I-trax held conference calls to discuss the transaction.

REASONS FOR THE BOARD'S RECOMMENDATION

Based on the following reasons, the Board determined to approve the Merger Agreement, and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and to recommend that all holders of I-trax Common Shares accept the Common Offer and all holders of Preferred Shares accept the Preferred Offer:

the price offered to the I-trax stockholders represents a significant premium over the trading price per share of Common Shares immediately before the execution of the Merger Agreement and over the trading range of Common Shares over the past three years;

the price offered to the I-trax stockholders represents a high valuation of I-trax when measured as a multiple of I-trax's historical and budgeted financial indicators;

the uncertainty of I-trax's ability, as a micro-cap public company, to raise capital required for I-trax to execute on its five year strategic plan or to acquire other companies using I-trax's equity securities; the challenges presented to I-trax in remaining independent in light of increased competition from larger companies with greater capital resources such as CVS Caremark Corporation, Walmart Stores,

Table of Contents

Inc. and Cerner, among others, the risks associated with the slowing economy, and the expense of remaining a public company;

the uncertainty associated with maintaining I-trax's valuation multiples in light of large institutional investors reduced interest in the stocks of micro-cap public companies;

Walgreens' desire to enter into the workplace medical, pharmacy, wellness and disease management services businesses, as evidenced by its agreement to purchase Whole Health Management, a competitor of I-trax;

the opinion of Bryant Park Capital, as more fully described in this Item 4 of this Statement under the heading "Opinion of Bryant Park Capital," that based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, as of the date of such opinion, the Common Offer price is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Common Shares other than Walgreens and any of its affiliates;

the structure of the transaction as first step tender offers, followed by a Merger, which may serve to shorten the time period between signing the Merger Agreement and closing the transaction, thus enabling I-trax's stockholders to receive the transaction consideration at the earliest possible time;

the assessment that the terms of the Merger Agreement are fair and balanced for each party;

the likelihood that the Offers and the Merger transaction will be consummated, including the reasonableness of the conditions to the Offers and the closing of the transaction;

the enhanced ability of I-trax to grow its integrated workplace medical, pharmacy, wellness, fitness, and disease management services following acquisition by Walgreens, with the assistance of Walgreens' financial strength and support, and through integration with Take Care Health, Walgreens' retail clinic business;

the complementary nature of the businesses of I-trax and Take Care Health and the ability of the combined businesses to grow utilizing their assets, technologies and capabilities; and the ability of I-trax, Walgreens and Take Care Health to combine the strengths of the companies' geographic reach, sales, service and support teams.

Although each of the foregoing reasons was considered important in determining whether to recommend the Merger Agreement to the I-trax stockholders, the most compelling reasons for such recommendation are the significant premium offered to I-trax's stockholders, Bryant Park Capital's fairness opinion and the challenges presented to I-trax in remaining independent and executing its five year strategic plan, including increased competition.

The I-trax Board also considered the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the right of I-trax to consider and negotiate other potential unsolicited acquisition proposals, the right of I-trax to receive a termination fee of $10,000,000 from Walgreens in certain circumstances where the Merger Agreement could be terminated and the possible effects of the provisions regarding the termination fee of $8,200,000 that might be payable by I-trax in certain circumstances where the Merger Agreement could be terminated.

The I-trax Board also evaluated and discussed the following risks that might arise:

the risk that the proposed transaction would not gain the required regulatory approvals or that the minimum conditions of the Offers would not be met;

the risk that the potential benefits sought in the Offers and the Merger transaction would not be fully realized; and the potential severance payments that could be triggered by the termination of employment of I-trax executives.

The I-trax Board believes that the foregoing risks are outweighed by the potential benefits of the Offers and the Merger to the I-trax stockholders. The I-trax Board also considered various alternatives to the Offers and Merger transaction with Walgreens, including remaining independent and executing I-trax's five year strategic plan, and determined that the proposed transaction with Walgreens represents the best potential opportunity for I-trax and its stockholders.

OPINION OF BRYANT PARK CAPITAL

Bryant Park Capital was asked to render an opinion to the I-trax Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Common Offer price to holders of the Common Shares other than Walgreens and any of its affiliates. On March 14, 2008, Bryant Park Capital delivered its oral opinion to the I-trax Board, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of its opinion, and subject to and based upon the assumptions made, matters considered, procedures followed and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken as set forth in its opinion, the Common Offer price was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares other than Walgreens and any of its affiliates.

Bryant Park Capital is an investment banking firm that is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, competitive biddings and valuations for corporate and other businesses. In the ordinary course of business, Bryant Park Capital, its affiliates, directors and officers may at any time invest on a principal basis or in funds that invest, hold long or short positions, trade or otherwise structure and effect transactions, for its own account or the account of its customers or clients, in the equity or debt securities of I-trax or Walgreens.

The full text of Bryant Park Capital's written opinion, dated as of March 14, 2008, is attached as Annex II to this Statement and sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Bryant Park Capital. The summary of Bryant Park Capital's written opinion set forth in this Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. YOU ARE URGED TO READ THE OPINION CAREFULLY AND IN ITS ENTIRETY.

In reading the discussion of the fairness opinion set forth below, you should be aware that Bryant Park Capital's opinion:

was provided solely to I-trax Board in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Merger and the Common Offer, which Bryant Park Capital referred to in its opinion as the transaction;

does not constitute a recommendation to I-trax stockholders or any other person as to how to vote or act on any matter relating to the transaction or the Preferred Offer or as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Preferred Offer; and does not constitute a recommendation to the I-trax Board in connection with the transaction.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Bryant Park Capital, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available financial statements of and other business and financial information of I-trax;

reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning I-trax;

reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the management of I-trax and reviewed by the I-trax Board; discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of I-trax with senior executives of I-trax;

reviewed the reported prices and the historical trading activity of the Common Shares; compared certain financial information of I-trax with similar, publicly-available information for certain publicly-traded companies that Bryant Park Capital deemed relevant;

reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain transactions comparable to the transaction; participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of I-trax and Walgreens and their advisers; reviewed a draft of the Merger Agreement dated March 14, 2008 and certain related documents; and performed other examinations and analyses and considered other factors that Bryant Park Capital deemed appropriate.

For the purposes of its analysis and opinion, Bryant Park Capital assumed and relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to, discussed with or reviewed by or for Bryant Park Capital, and Bryant Park Capital assumed no liability therefor. For purposes of rendering its opinion, members of management of I-trax provided Bryant Park Capital with certain financial projections prepared by management of I-trax (the Financial Projections), and discussed with Bryant Park Capital various uncertainties and risks relating to I-trax's future operations and prospects. With the consent of the I-trax Board, Bryant Park Capital assumed that the Financial Projections were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of I-trax of the future financial performance and the future competitive, operating and regulatory environments of I-trax. Bryant Park Capital expressed no view as to such Financial Projections, or the assumptions on which they were based.

In addition, Bryant Park Capital assumed with the consent of the I-trax Board that the definitive form of the Merger Agreement would be substantially identical to the last draft reviewed by Bryant Park Capital, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that the Common Offer and the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without waiver, amendment or delay in the satisfaction of any terms or conditions. Bryant Park Capital further assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents, approvals and releases necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained without any material delay, limitation, restriction or condition that would have an adverse effect on I-trax or consummation of the transaction or that would materially reduce the benefits of the transaction. Bryant Park Capital is not a legal, tax, regulatory or actuarial advisor. Bryant Park Capital is a financial advisor only and has relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of Walgreens and I-trax and their respective legal, tax, regulatory or actuarial advisors with respect to such matters.

Bryant Park Capital has not made or assumed any responsibility for making any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of I-trax, Bryant Park Capital has not been furnished with any such appraisals, nor has Bryant Park Capital evaluated the solvency or fair value of I-trax under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Bryant Park Capital's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Bryant Park Capital as of, the date of such opinion. Events occurring after March 14, 2008 may affect the opinion of Bryant Park Capital and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Bryant Park Capital did not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

In receiving Bryant Park Capital's oral fairness opinion on March 14, 2008, the I-trax Board was aware of and consented to the assumptions and other matters discussed above.

Summary of Analyses

The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Bryant Park Capital and presented to the I-trax Board in connection with rendering its fairness opinion. These analyses included:

- (1) a review of the historical trading activity of the Common Shares;
- (2) an analysis of public companies that Bryant Park Capital deemed comparable to I-trax;
- (3) an analysis of selected precedent transactions; and
- (4) a discounted cash flow analysis.

Table of Contents

Some of the financial analyses summarized below include summary data and information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses, the summary data and tables must be read together with the full text of the analyses. Considering the summary data and tables alone could create a misleading or incomplete view of Bryant Park Capital's financial analyses.

Historical Share Price Performance

With respect to historical trading prices for the Common Shares, Bryant Park Capital reviewed the trading prices during the one-year and three-year periods prior to March 14; and the average closing prices for the ten trading days, twenty trading days, six months and one year periods prior to March 14. Bryant Park Capital observed that the highest closing price for the Common Shares during the three-year period prior to March 14 was $4.68 and that the Common Offer price represented a 15.4% premium to that price. Bryant Park Capital observed that the premiums implied by the Common Offer price with respect to each of these price indicators and the premiums implied for comparable price indicators derived by Bryant Park Capital from a review of selected all-cash acquisition transactions of publicly-traded companies from January 1, 2005 to March 13, 2008 having an equity consideration of $150 - $350 million, which are referred to as comparable cash transactions (as reported by Capital IQ, a provider of information and software solutions to financial institutions, advisory firms and corporations, and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission), were as follows:

Premium of Common Offer Price to I-trax's		Comparable Premium (Discount) for Comparable Cash Transactions
Stock price one day prior	38.8%	31.1%
Stock price one week prior	38.5%	30.8%
Stock price one month prior	54.3%	32.2%
10 trading-day average	40.4%	35.1%
20 trading-day average	39.6%	35.9%
6 month average	49.6%	28.6%
One year average	42.0%	19.5%
52 week low	84.3%	68.0%
52 week high	15.4%	(8.3%)

Comparable Public Companies Analysis

Using publicly available information, Bryant Park Capital reviewed the financial, operating, and stock market data of the following selected publicly traded corporations in the healthcare industry:

AMN Healthcare Services, Inc.

Cross Country Healthcare, Inc.

Healthextras, Inc.

Healthways, Inc.

Health Fitness Corp.

Longs Drug Stores Corp.

RehabCare Group, Inc.

Bryant Park Capital compared enterprise values of the selected companies, calculated as equity value based on closing stock prices on March 13, 2008, plus debt, less cash and other adjustments, as a multiple of the latest twelve months (actual), 2008 (estimated) and 2009 (estimated) revenues and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, excluding both one-time gains and charges and stock-based compensation expense (Adjusted EBITDA). Estimated financial information for I-trax was based on financial projections provided to Bryant Park Capital by the management of I-trax, and estimated financial information for the selected companies was based on publicly available research analysts' estimates and forecasts, that, where appropriate, were adjusted to reflect a calendar year end. To the initial per share equity range implied for the selected companies Bryant Park Capital added a change of control premium of 30% to 45%, which was derived from its review of the comparable cash transactions. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for I-trax, as compared to the Common Offer price:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range	Common Offer Price
$1.57 $2.83	$5.40

Bryant Park Capital noted that none of the selected public companies are identical to I-trax. Accordingly, a complete analysis of the results of the foregoing calculations cannot be limited to a quantitative review of such results and involves complex considerations and judgments regarding differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected public companies and other factors that could affect I-trax's public valuation and that of the selected public companies.

Precedent Transactions Analysis

Using publicly available information, Bryant Park Capital reviewed the transaction multiples of the following fourteen selected transactions in the healthcare industry:

ACQUIROR

SXC Health Solutions Corp.
Inverness Medical Innovations Inc.
Medical Staffing Network Programs Inc.
Amerigroup Tennessee Inc.
The Carlyle Group
Aetna Inc.
Medical Staffing Network Holdings Inc.
Angelo, Gordon & Co.
CVS Caremark Corp.
Rehabcare Group Inc.
Matria Healthcare Inc.
Janus Reed & Partners Plc
Coventry Health Care Inc.
Healthextras Inc.

TARGET

National Medical Health Card Systems, Inc.
Matria Healthcare Inc.
AMR Pro Nurse
Memphis Managed Care Corporation
Manor Care Inc.
Schaller Anderson Incorporated
Intelistaff Healthcare, Inc.
National Home Health Care Corp.
Caremark Rx Inc.
Symphony Health Services LLC
CorSolutions Medical, Inc.
Reed Health Group plc
First Health Group Corp.
Managed Healthcare Systems, Inc.

Bryant Park Capital compared enterprise values implied for each target company in the selected transactions as a multiple of its revenues and its Adjusted EBITDA in the latest twelve months prior to announcement of the acquisition and, to the extent such information was publicly available, forecasts of such amounts with respect to the twelve months following announcement of the acquisition. Bryant Park Capital also observed the premiums implied in the selected transactions to the targets' one-day prior, one-week prior and one-month prior closing prices. Bryant Park Capital then applied a range of selected multiples and premiums derived from the selected transactions to the corresponding estimated financial information for I-trax for calendar years 2007 (actual), 2008 (estimated) and 2009 (estimated) and the one-day prior, one-week prior and one-month prior closing prices of Common Shares, respectively. The analysis was based on discussions with, and financial projections provided to Bryant Park Capital by, the management of I-trax, including a discussion of uncertainties and risks relating to I-trax's future operations and prospects. All multiples for the selected transactions were based on publicly available financial information. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for I-trax, as compared to the Common Offer price:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range		Common Offer Price
$3.37	$3.66	$5.40

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Bryant Park Capital performed a discounted cash flow analysis of I-trax to calculate the estimated present value of the stand-alone, un-levered, after-tax free cash flows that I-trax could generate from fiscal year 2008 through fiscal year 2012 based on financial projections provided by the management of I-trax. Bryant Park

Table of Contents

Capital calculated ranges of estimated terminal values for I-trax by applying multiples of adjusted EBITDA ranging from 10.5x to 12.5x to I-trax's fiscal year 2012 estimated Adjusted EBITDA. The present value of the after-tax free cash flows and terminal values were calculated using discount rates ranging from 20% to 23% for I-trax's core businesses and from 40% to 45% for certain new business initiatives, as separately addressed in the Financial Projections, reflecting the risks and uncertainties associated with each category of projections, as discussed with I-trax management and the I-trax Board at its meeting on January 27, 2008. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for I-trax, as compared to the Common Offer price:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range		Common Offer Price
$4.28	$5.90	$5.40

While discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it necessarily relies on numerous assumptions, including growth rates for assets and earnings, terminal values and discount rates. Thus, it is not necessarily indicative of I-trax's actual, present or future value or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analysis.

Conclusion

Bryant Park Capital noted that the merger and acquisition transaction environment varies over time because of macroeconomic factors such as interest rate and equity market fluctuations and microeconomic factors such as industry results and growth expectations. Bryant Park Capital also noted that no company or transaction reviewed was identical to the proposed transaction and that, accordingly, these analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would affect the acquisition values in the comparable transactions, including the size and demographic and economic characteristics of the markets of each company and the competitive environment in which it operates.

Bryant Park Capital was not asked to pass upon, and expressed no opinion with respect to, the fairness of the transaction or the Preferred Offer to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any class of securities other than the Common Shares, creditors or other constituencies of I-trax, nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any officer, director or employee of any party to the transaction or the Preferred Offer, or their affiliates, or any class of such persons, whether relative to the benefits to stockholders of I-trax or otherwise. Bryant Park Capital's opinion does not address the relative merits of the transaction or the Preferred Offer as compared to any other alternative business transaction, or other alternatives, or whether or not such alternatives could be achieved or are available. Bryant Park Capital expressed no opinion as to the price at which securities of I-trax may trade at any time in the future.

The opinion of Bryant Park Capital was reviewed and approved by an opinion committee of Bryant Park Capital. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analysis or the summary set forth above, without considering the analysis as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the opinion of Bryant Park Capital. In arriving at its fairness determination, Bryant Park Capital considered the results of all these constituent analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any particular factor or analysis considered by it; rather, Bryant Park Capital made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all such analyses. Certain of Bryant Park Capital's analyses are based upon financial projections and are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses, and are subject to various uncertainties and risks relating to I-trax's future operations and prospects that management of I-trax discussed with Bryant Park Capital. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Bryant Park Capital. Additionally, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities are not appraisals. Accordingly, such analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The decision to recommend to I-trax's stockholders that they accept the Offers was solely that of the I-trax Board. The opinion of Bryant Park Capital was provided solely to the I-trax Board and does not constitute an opinion or recommendation as to how any holder of securities of I-trax, or any other person, should vote or act with respect to the transaction. No limitations were imposed by the I-trax Board on Bryant Park Capital with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

Bryant Park Capital has acted as financial advisor to the I-trax Board in connection with the transaction, pursuant to its engagement letter dated January 1, 2007, has been paid retainer fees of $10,000 per month, and, subject to consummation of the transaction, will be paid an additional fee equal to 1.25% of the total amount paid or payable, directly or indirectly, to I-trax or its stockholders in the transaction, less an allowance of $60,000 for retainer fees previously paid. Pursuant to an engagement letter dated January 24, 2008, Bryant Park Capital was also paid separate fees of $175,000 in connection with the rendering of its opinion, the payment of which was not contingent upon the views expressed therein or upon consummation of the transaction. I-trax also agreed to indemnify Bryant Park Capital and related persons against liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws that arise out of the engagement of Bryant Park Capital, and expenses in connection with its engagement. In the two years prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, Bryant Park Capital has provided financial advisory services to I-trax and has received fees in connection with the provision of such services.

INTENT TO TENDER

After reasonable inquiry and to I-trax's knowledge, all of I-trax's executive officers and directors currently intend to tender, pursuant to the Offers, all shares of Common Shares and Preferred Shares they hold of record or own beneficially, other than shares, if any, held by them that, if tendered, could cause them to incur liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5. Person/Assets, Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used.

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated January 1, 2007, I-trax formally retained Bryant Park Capital to act as its financial advisor in connection with a sale of I-trax, among other matters. Pursuant to an engagement letter dated January 24, 2008, Bryant Park Capital was engaged to render an opinion to the I-trax Board regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of Common Shares in the Offers and the Merger, together and not separately. A summary of the terms of the agreements between I-trax and Bryant Park Capital appears on page 14 of this Statement under Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation-Opinion of Bryant Park Capital.

A summary of the material provisions of the agreements between Walgreens and StockTrans, Inc., in its capacity as Depository for the Offers, and between Walgreens and D.F. King & Co., Inc., in its capacity as Information Agent for the Offers, is included in Section 16 Fees and Expenses of the Offer to Purchase and is incorporated herein by reference.

Except as set forth above, neither I-trax nor any person acting on its behalf has or currently intends to employ, retain or compensate any person to make solicitations or recommendations to the stockholders of I-trax on its behalf with respect to the Offers, except that such solicitations or recommendations may be made by directors, officers or employees of I-trax, for whose services no additional compensation will be paid.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company.

No transactions in the Common Shares have been effected during the past 60 days by I-trax or any of its subsidiaries or, to the best of I-trax's knowledge, by any executive officer, director or affiliate of I-trax.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals.

Except as described in this Statement, I-trax is not currently undertaking or engaged in any negotiations in response to the Offers that relate to (1) a tender offer or other acquisition of I-trax's securities by I-trax, any subsidiary of I-trax, or any other person; (2) an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving I-trax or any subsidiary of I-trax; (3) a purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of I-trax or any subsidiary of I-trax; or (4) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of I-trax.

Except as described in this Statement, there are no transactions, resolutions of I-trax's Board, agreements in principle, or signed contracts entered into in response to the Offers that relate to one or more of the events referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Item 8. Additional Information.

State Takeover Laws

Required Vote of Stockholders

Pursuant to Section 253 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (as amended, the DGCL), if Walgreens becomes the owner of 90% or more of each of the outstanding Common Shares and Preferred Shares as a result of the Offers, Walgreens will be able to effect the Merger without the approval of I-trax's stockholders. However, if Walgreens is able to acquire more than 80%, but less than 90%, of the outstanding Common Shares, I-trax has granted Walgreens an irrevocable and assignable option (the Top-Up Option) to purchase the number of Common Shares equal to the lowest number of shares that, when added to the shares obtained upon acceptance of the Common Offer, would give Walgreens ownership of 90% of the Common Shares on a fully diluted basis. The obligation of I-trax to issue shares pursuant to the Top-Up Option is subject to compliance with applicable regulatory requirements. If, through the acceptance of the Offers and the exercise of the Top-Up Option, Walgreens is not the holder of at least 90% of the shares of each of the Common Shares and Preferred Shares, a meeting of stockholders will be required to approve the Merger. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the total outstanding voting power of the I-trax would be required to approve the Merger. If Walgreens consummates the Offers by acquiring at least a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of I-trax entitled to vote, Walgreens will be able to approve the Merger without the vote of any other stockholder.

Appraisal Rights

No appraisal rights are available in connection with the Offers. However, if the Merger is consummated, holders of Common Shares and Preferred Shares who have not tendered their shares in the Offers or voted in favor of the Merger (if a vote of stockholders is taken) will have certain rights under the DGCL to dissent and demand appraisal of, and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of, their shares. Holders of shares who perfect those rights by complying with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will have the fair value of their shares (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger) determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to such fair value from the surviving corporation in the Merger. In addition, such dissenting holders of shares would be entitled to receive payment of a fair rate of interest from the date of consummation of the Merger on the amount determined to be the fair value of their shares. If any holder of Common Shares or Preferred Shares who demands appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses her, his or its right to appraisal as provided in the DGCL, the shares of such stockholder will be converted into the right to receive the price per share paid in the Merger in accordance with the Merger Agreement. A stockholder may withdraw a demand for appraisal by delivering to I-trax a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal within 60 days of the effective date of the Merger or such later date as approved in writing by I-trax, as the surviving company.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the DGCL, the text of which is set forth in Annex III hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Interested Stockholder Transaction

I-trax is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. In general, Section 203 of the DGCL prevents an interested stockholder (generally a person who owns or has the right to acquire 15% or more of a corporation's outstanding voting stock, or an affiliate or associate thereof) from engaging in a business combination (defined to include mergers, consolidations and certain other transactions) with a Delaware corporation for a period of three years following the date such person became an interested stockholder unless, among other things, prior to such date, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction in which the interested stockholder became an interested stockholder. At a meeting held March 14, 2008, the I-trax Board: (1) resolved that the terms of the Merger Agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, I-trax and I-trax's stockholders, and declared it advisable to enter into the Merger Agreement; (2) authorized the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement; (3) approved, authorized and adopted the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (4) recommended acceptance of the Offers and the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement by the I-trax stockholders; and (5) took action to exempt the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement from the restrictions set forth in Section 203 of DGCL. Accordingly, Section 203 is inapplicable to the Offers and the Merger.

Antitrust Issues

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), certain acquisitions may not be consummated until certain information and documentary material have been furnished to the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the Antitrust Division) and certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. These requirements apply to I-trax by virtue of the acquisition of Shares pursuant to the Offers.

Under the HSR Act, the purchase of Shares in the Offers may not be completed until the expiration of a 15-calendar-day waiting period following the filing of certain required information and documentary material concerning the Offers with the FTC and the Antitrust Division, unless the waiting period is otherwise terminated or extended by the FTC and the Antitrust Division. Both Walgreens and I-trax will file Premerger Notification and Report Forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division in connection with the purchase of Shares in the Offers, and the required waiting period with respect to the Offers will expire on the fifteenth day following the Walgreens' filing, unless earlier terminated by the FTC and the Antitrust Division or unless Walgreens receives a request for additional information or documentary material (known as a Second Request) prior to that time. If, within the 15-calendar-day waiting period, either the FTC or the Antitrust Division issues a Second Request to Walgreens, the waiting period with respect to the Offers would be extended for an additional period of ten calendar days following the date on which Walgreens substantially complies with that request. If the 15-calendar-day waiting period expires on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, then the period is extended until the end of the next calendar day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday. Only one 10-calendar-day extension of the waiting period pursuant to a Second Request is authorized by the HSR Act rules. After that time, the waiting period could be extended only by court order. The FTC or the Antitrust Division may terminate the additional 10-calendar-day extension of the waiting period before its expiration. In practice, complying with a Second Request can take a significant period of time. Although I-trax is also required to file certain information and documentary material with the FTC and the Antitrust Division in connection with the Offers, neither I-trax's failure to make those filings nor I-trax's failure to substantially comply with a Second Request issued by the FTC or the Antitrust Division will extend the waiting period with respect to the purchase of Shares in the Offers.

At any time before or after Offeror's purchase of Shares, the FTC or the Antitrust Division could take any action under the antitrust laws that it either considers necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the purchase of Shares in the Offers and the Merger, the divestiture of Shares purchased in the Offers or the divestiture of substantial assets of Walgreens, Offeror, I-trax or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Private parties as well as state attorneys general also may bring legal actions under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances.

Table of Contents

There can be no assurance that a challenge to the Offers and the Merger on antitrust grounds will not be made, or, if such challenge is made, what the result will be.

Projected Financial Information

The senior management of I-trax does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings beyond the current fiscal year and is especially wary of making projections for extended periods due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, certain financial targets prepared by senior management in connection with a five-year strategic business plan developed by I-trax management in February 2008 were made available to Walgreens in connection with Walgreens' evaluation of a possible transaction with I-trax prior to entering into the Merger Agreement. The projections set forth in the projected Income Statement, Selected Balance Sheet Items and Selected Cash Flow items for both the core I-trax business and the I-trax business assuming the successful execution of certain new strategic initiatives that were provided to Walgreens are reproduced in their entirety below.

I-trax's financial projections reflect numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to I-trax's business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond I-trax's control. The risks and uncertainties associated with the five-year strategic plan include I-trax's capacity to generate the projected level of growth in revenue and improvement in margins in its core businesses, as well as whether I-trax would be successful in raising the capital required to implement the proposed initiatives on a timely basis and at favorable terms. Other considerations include the potential timing and final cost of certain acquisitions contemplated in the five-year strategic plan, the risks and uncertainties associated with entering certain new lines of business, the potential impact on I-trax's core businesses and proposed initiatives from existing competitors and new entrants in these markets, and the organizational challenges posed by a plan that would require successful execution on a number of different fronts.

These financial projections are subjective in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. As such, these financial projections constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results forecasted in such projections, including the various risks set forth in I-trax's periodic reports. There can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected. The financial projections cover five years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

There can be no assurance that the announcement of the Offers and the Merger will not cause customers of I-trax to delay or cancel purchases of I-trax's services pending the consummation of the Offers and the Merger or the clarification of Walgreens' intentions with respect to the conduct of I-trax's business thereafter. Any such delay or cancellation of customer sales is likely to adversely affect the ability of I-trax to achieve the results reflected in such financial projections. Further, the financial projections do not take into account the effect of any failure of the Offers or the Merger to occur and should not be viewed as accurate or continuing in that context.

The financial targets were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or toward complying with generally accepted accounting principles, the published guidelines of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. The financial targets included below were prepared by, and are the responsibility of, I-trax's management. Neither I-trax's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial projections.

The financial targets do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared.

The inclusion of the financial projections herein will not be deemed an admission or representation by I-trax or Walgreens that they are viewed by I-trax or Walgreens as material information of I-trax, and in fact I-

I-trax views the financial projections as non-material because of the inherent risks and uncertainties associated with such long range forecasts.

The summary of these financial forecasts prepared by I-trax management is not being included to influence your decision whether to tender your shares, but because these forecasts were made available by I-trax to representatives of Walgreens and Bryant Park Capital. Readers of this Schedule are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the financial targets set forth below. No one has made or makes any representation to any shareholder regarding the information included in these projections.

INFORMATION STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 14(F) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AND RULE 14F-1 THEREUNDER

GENERAL

This information statement (the Information Statement) is being mailed on or after March 28, 2008 as part of the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (the Schedule 14D-9) of I-trax, Inc., a Delaware corporation (I-trax), relating to the tender offers being made by Putter Acquisition Sub, Inc. (Offeror), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Walgreen Co., an Illinois corporation (Walgreens). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning otherwise assigned in the Schedule 14D-9.

You are receiving this Information Statement in connection with the possible election of persons designated by Walgreens to a majority of seats on the Board of Directors of I-trax (the Board of Directors or the Board). Voting proxies regarding outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Common Shares) and Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Preferred Shares and together with the Common Shares, the Shares) are not being solicited from any stockholder in connection with this Information Statement. You are urged to read this Information Statement carefully. You are not, however, required to take any action in connection with this Information Statement.

On March 14, 2008, I-trax, Walgreens and Offeror entered in an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which Offeror is offering to purchase all of the Common Shares and the Preferred Shares of I-trax, Inc., a Delaware corporation (I-trax), for $5.40 per Common Share (the Common Offer) and $54.00 plus the Dividend Amount per Preferred Share (the Preferred Offer), in each case in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated March 28, 2008 (the Offer to Purchase), and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with any amendments or supplements to the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal, collectively constitute the Offers). The Dividend Amount applicable to a Preferred Share purchased in the Preferred Offer means the product of (1)(A) the amount of accrued and unpaid dividends on such Preferred Share at the time the Offeror accepts shares tendered pursuant to the Preferred Offer (the Acceptance Time) divided by (B) $3.84, which amount is the average market price of the Common Shares for the ten (10) consecutive trading days prior to and including the date of the Merger Agreement and (2) $5.40 in cash or such greater amount as may have been paid to any holder of Common Shares in the Common Offer.

Offeror's Offers are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase. Offeror commenced the Offers on March 28, 2008. The Offers and withdrawal rights are currently scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, at the end of Thursday, April 24, 2008, unless Offeror extends it in accordance with the terms of the Offers. Following the completion of the Offers and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Offeror will merge with and into I-trax and the surviving company will continue as a wholly owned subsidiary of Walgreens (the Merger).

The Merger Agreement requires I-trax to cause Walgreens' designees to be elected to I-trax's Board of Directors under certain circumstances described below.

This Information Statement is being mailed to you in accordance with Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Rule 14f-1 promulgated thereunder. The information set forth herein supplements certain information set forth in the Schedule 14D-9.

All information contained in this Information Statement concerning Walgreens, Offeror and the Walgreens Designees (as defined below) has been furnished to I-trax by Walgreens and I-trax assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of any such information.

Subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, from the time Offeror accepts Shares tendered pursuant to the Offers (the Acceptance Time), provided Offeror has accepted for payment shares representing a majority of the total outstanding voting power of I-trax on a fully diluted basis, Walgreens shall be entitled to designate the number of directors, rounded up to the next whole number, on I-trax's Board of Directors that equals the product of the total number of directors on the I-trax Board (giving effect to the election of any additional directors pursuant to Walgreens designation rights as described in this paragraph) and the percentage that the voting power of Common Shares and Preferred Shares beneficially owned by Walgreens and Offeror (including shares of Common Shares and Preferred Shares accepted for payment or exchange) bears to the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Common Shares and Preferred Shares. Subject to applicable law, I-trax shall promptly take all action necessary to enable Walgreens' designees to be elected or appointed to the I-trax Board, including increasing the number of directors, and seeking and accepting resignations of incumbent directors. At such time, I-trax will also take all actions necessary to cause individuals designated by Walgreens to constitute the number of members (rounding up where appropriate) on each committee of the I-trax Board and each board of directors of each I-trax subsidiary that represents substantially the same percentage as such individuals represent on the I-trax Board, in each case only to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Walgreens and Offeror shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the I-trax Board has at least two members who are not affiliates, representatives or designees of Walgreens or Offeror, and who were either directors prior to the date of the Merger Agreement (the Continuing Directors) or are successors of any Continuing Director who is not an affiliate, representative or designee of Walgreens or Offeror and who were recommended or elected to succeed such Continuing Director by a majority of Continuing Directors. If there is only one Continuing Director in office for any reason, the I-trax Board shall be entitled to appoint a person designated by the remaining Continuing Director who is not an officer or employee of I-trax or any of its subsidiaries to fill such vacancy who shall be deemed to be a Continuing Director for all purposes of the Merger Agreement. If no Continuing Directors then remain in office, the other directors of I-trax then in office shall use commercially reasonable efforts to designate two persons to fill such vacancies who are not officers or employees or affiliates of I-trax, Walgreens or Acquisition Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries and such persons shall be deemed to be Continuing Directors for all purposes of the Merger Agreement.

Following the election or appointment of Walgreens' designees and until the effective time of the Merger, the approval of a majority of the Continuing Directors shall be required to authorize any termination of the Merger Agreement by I-trax, any amendment of the Merger Agreement requiring action by the I-trax Board of Directors, any extension of time for performance of, or waiver of, any obligation or action under the Merger Agreement by Walgreens or Offeror, any waiver of I-trax's rights under the Merger Agreement, any amendment of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of I-trax, and making any other determination with respect to any action to be taken or not to be taken by or on behalf of I-trax relating to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby.

Walgreens has informed I-trax that its designees (the Walgreens Designees) will be selected by Walgreens from among the individuals listed below:

Robert G. Zimmerman. Mr. Zimmerman, age 55, joined Walgreens in 2001 as Divisional Vice President of Walgreens Health Initiatives and became Vice President of Walgreens and Vice President and Chief Administration and Finance Officer of Walgreens Health Initiatives in 2006.

Dana I. Green. Mrs. Green, age 57, joined Walgreens in 2000 as Vice President and served as Senior Vice President from 2004 to 2005. In 2005, Mrs. Green became Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Walgreens.

Allan M. Resnick. Mr. Resnick, age 61, joined Walgreens in 1998 as Divisional Vice President and also began serving as Assistant Secretary in 1989.

Table of Contents

Walgreens has informed I-trax that each Walgreens Designee has consented to serve as a director of I-trax if appointed or elected. None of the Walgreens Designees currently is a director of, or holds any positions with, I-trax. Walgreens has advised I-trax that, to the best of their knowledge, none of the Walgreens Designees or any of their affiliates beneficially owns any equity securities or rights to acquire any such securities of I-trax nor has any such person been involved in any transaction with I-trax or any of its directors, executive officers or affiliates that is required to be disclosed pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) other than with respect to transactions among Walgreens, Offeror and I-trax that have been described in the Schedule TO filed by Walgreens and Offeror with the SEC on March 28, 2008 or the Schedule 14D-9. In addition, Walgreens has informed I-trax that none of the individuals listed above has, during the past five years, (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding or (ii) been a party to any judicial or administrative proceeding that resulted in a judgment, decree or final order enjoining the person from future violations of, or prohibiting activities subject to, U.S. federal or state securities laws, or a finding of any violation of U.S. federal or state securities laws.

Table of ContentsCOMMON STOCK

As of March 24, 2008, there were 41,896,247 Common Shares issued and outstanding. If an I-trax stockholders meeting is held, each Common Share would be entitled to one vote for the election of I-trax directors.

SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

As of March 24, 2008, there were 217,126.3 Preferred Shares issued and outstanding. Each Preferred Share converts into 10 shares of Common Shares, and, if a stockholders meeting is held, the holders of Preferred Shares would be entitled to vote on an as converted basis for the election of I-trax directors at such meeting. Common Shares and Preferred Shares are the only classes of voting securities of I-trax that would be entitled to vote at a stockholders meeting if one were held.

Board of Directors Meetings

The board of directors of I-trax held six meetings during 2007. Each director while serving in 2007 attended more than 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the board and the total number of meetings held by the committees of the board of which he or she is a member.

The board has determined that Ms. Lieberman, Dr. Nash and each of Messrs. Green, Mintz and Smith are independent, as defined in Section 121(A), as in effect on March 14, 2008, of the American Stock Exchange, or AMEX listing standards. As required by the AMEX listing standards, the independent directors meet at least annually in executive session without the non-independent directors and management.

Table of Contents

Board of Directors Committees

The board of directors has a compensation committee, an audit committee, and a nominating and corporate governance committee. All members of the board, however, participate in the consideration of director nominees.

Compensation Committee

The compensation committee is primarily responsible for determining the compensation payable to the officers and key employees of I-trax and recommending to the board additions, deletions and alterations with respect to the various employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits provided by I-trax. The committee also is primarily responsible for administering I-trax's equity compensation plans, recommending equity grants to the board at large with regard to I-trax's key employees and non-employee directors, and determining the terms and conditions on which grants are made. Committee members, however, may not participate in decisions pertaining to his or her compensation or benefits in his or her capacity as a director of I-trax.

The compensation committee, subject to prior consent of the board, may engage independent compensation consultants and outside legal counsel and routinely holds executive sessions without management. The chairman of the compensation committee leads the committee and sets meeting agendas.

I-trax's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer give performance assessments and compensation recommendations for each executive officer of I-trax (other than themselves). The Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the Secretary and the Vice President - Human Resources generally attend compensation committee meetings, but none are present for executive session or any discussion of their own compensation. The compensation committee receives from time to time data and analyses from independent compensation consultants who evaluate I-trax's compensation program against industry and peer group norms.

The compensation committee is governed by a charter, a copy of which is posted on I-trax's website at www.i-trax.com and is available in print to any stockholder on request.

The compensation committee consists of two members - Mr. Green, chairman, and Ms. Lieberman. The board has determined that each of Mr. Green and Ms. Lieberman is independent, as defined in Section 121(A), as in effect on March 14, 2008, of the AMEX listing standards.

The compensation committee held six meetings in 2007.

Audit Committee

The audit committee is primarily responsible for appointing, overseeing the qualifications, performance and independence of, and pre-approving the services performed by I-trax's independent auditors as well as overseeing the integrity of I-trax's financial statements and reviewing and evaluating I-trax's accounting principles and reporting practices. The audit committee is also responsible for monitoring I-trax's system of internal accounting controls. The audit committee is governed by a charter, a copy of which is posted on I-trax's website at www.i-trax.com and is available in print to any stockholder on request.

The audit committee consists of three members - Ms. Lieberman, chairperson, and Messrs. Mintz and Smith. The board has determined that Ms. Lieberman and each of Messrs. Mintz and Smith are audit committee financial experts who meet the Securities and Exchange Commission's criteria for financial experts and each is financially sophisticated for the purposes of the AMEX listing standards. The board has also determined that each of Ms. Lieberman and Messrs. Mintz and Smith is independent, as defined in Section 121(A), as in effect on March 14, 2008, of AMEX listing standards and Rule 10A 3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

The audit committee held six meetings in 2007.

Table of Contents

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The nominating and corporate governance committee is primarily responsible for: identifying individuals qualified to become board members and recommending such individuals to the board; and reviewing and overseeing the corporate governance guidelines, policies and procedures developed by management and approved, as applicable, by the board. The committee considers candidates for board membership suggested by other directors and management. The committee may retain a search firm to assist in identifying director candidates. In selecting nominees for director, the committee considers a number of factors, including but not limited to:

whether a candidate has business and industry experience that is relevant to I-trax, including recent experience at the senior management level of a company at least as large or larger than I-trax;

the candidate's ability to work constructively with I-trax's management and other directors;

the candidate's ability to represent interests of the stockholders;

the candidate's independence from management and freedom from potential conflicts of interest with I-trax;

the candidate's reputation, integrity, judgment, skill, leadership ability, interpersonal skills, honesty and moral values;

the candidate's financial literacy;

the candidate's availability, including the number of other boards on which the candidate serves, and his or her ability to dedicate sufficient time and energy to his or her board duties; legal and regulatory concerns; and whether the candidate contributes to the range of talent, skills and expertise appropriate for enhancing the board's diversity, overall composition and effectiveness.

Members of the committee and the board may also request additional information about and interview the potential nominee.

The committee will also consider recommendations of nominees for director received from stockholders at least 120 days prior to the anniversary date of I-trax's annual meeting of stockholders for the previous year. In evaluating nominations received from stockholders, the board will apply the criteria and follow the process described above.

The nominating and corporate governance committee consists of two members – Dr. Nash and Mr. Green. Each of Dr. Nash and Mr. Green is independent, as defined in Section 121(A), as in effect on March 14, 2008, of the AMEX listing standards.

The committee did not hold a separate meeting in 2007. Members of the committee participated in other board meetings concerning director nomination and corporate governance issues and recommended to the board a course of action at those meetings on these matters. The nominating and corporate governance committee is governed by a charter, a copy of which is posted on I-trax's website at www.i-trax.com and is available in print to any stockholder on request.

Code of Conduct

I-trax has a Code of Conduct that is applicable to all employees of I-trax, including I-trax's principal executive officer, the principal financial officer and the principal accounting officer. The Code of Conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and promote ethical conduct, full and accurate reporting in I-trax's SEC filings, compliance with applicable law, as well as other matters. A copy of the Code of Conduct is available on I-trax's website at www.i-trax.com.
