PROXY STATEMENT

FOR 2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON MAY 13, 2003

March 21, 2003

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Summit Properties Inc. (the Company) for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Tuesday, May 13, 2003, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the Annual Meeting). At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to (1) vote upon the election of one Class I director and three Class III directors of the Company and (2) act upon any other matters properly brought before them.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Card are first being sent to stockholders on or about March 21, 2003. The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 5, 2003 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting (the Record Date). Only stockholders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share (Common Stock), at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 27,022,853 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Holders of Common Stock outstanding as of the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote for each share held by them.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Both abstentions and broker non-votes (as defined below) will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. The affirmative vote of a plurality of votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient for the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be disregarded in determining the votes cast for purposes of electing directors. Broker non-votes are proxies from brokers or other nominees indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote the shares which are the subject of the proxy on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power.

Stockholders of the Company are requested to complete, sign, date and promptly return the accompanying Proxy Card in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. Shares represented by a properly executed proxy received prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting as directed on the proxy. If a properly executed proxy is submitted prior to such time and no instructions are given, the proxy will be voted FOR the election of the four nominees for the Board of Directors of the Company named in this Proxy Statement. It is not anticipated that any matters other than those set forth in this Proxy Statement will be presented at the Annual Meeting. If other matters are presented, proxies will be voted in accordance with the discretion of the proxy holders.

A stockholder of record may revoke a proxy at any time before it has been exercised by filing a written revocation with the Secretary of the Company at the address of the Company set forth above, by filing a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by appearing in person and voting by ballot at the Annual Meeting. Any stockholder of record as of the Record Date attending the Annual Meeting may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the Annual Meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

The Company's 2002 Annual Report, including financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, is being mailed to stockholders concurrently with this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report, however, is not part of the proxy solicitation material. A copy of the Company's annual report to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K, including the financial statements, may be obtained without charge by writing to the Investor Relations Department of the Company at the following address: 309 East Morehead Street, Suite 200, Charlotte, North Carolina 28202, Attention: Susan Wilson.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In November 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company was enlarged from seven to eight members and the Board of Directors, based upon the recommendation of its Nominating Committee, appointed Wendy Riches to fill the vacancy resulting from this expansion. Maryland law requires that a director elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified. Consequently, Ms. Riches is subject to election at the Annual Meeting.

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes, with the directors in each class serving for a term of three years and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. The term of one class expires at each annual meeting of stockholders.

At the Annual Meeting, one Class I director will be elected to serve until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders and three Class III directors will be elected to serve until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. The Board of Directors has nominated Ms. Riches for election as a Class I director and James M. Allwin, William B. McGuire, Jr. and William F. Paulsen (collectively with Ms. Riches, the Nominees) for election as Class III directors at the Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors anticipates that each of the Nominees will serve, if elected, as a director. However, if any person nominated by the Board of Directors is unable to accept election, the proxies will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may recommend. The Board of Directors will consider a nominee for election to the Board of Directors recommended by a stockholder of record if the stockholder submits the nomination in compliance with the requirements of the Company's Bylaws. See Other Matters Stockholder Proposals for a summary of these requirements.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR its Nominees, James M. Allwin, William B. McGuire, Jr., William F. Paulsen and Wendy Riches.

Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors has established a Nominating Committee currently consisting of Ms. Riches and Messrs. Allwin, Fishkind, Hance and Schwab. The Nominating Committee reviews and evaluates potential nominees for election or appointment to the Board of Directors and recommends any such nominees to the full Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee will consider a nominee for election to the Board of Directors recommended by a stockholder of record if the stockholder submits the nomination in compliance with the requirements of the Company's Bylaws. See Other Matters - Stockholder Proposals for a summary of these requirements. The Nominating Committee met twice during 2002.

During 2002, each of the directors, with the exception of Mr. Schwab, attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees of the Board on which such director served. Mr. Schwab attended 11 of 15, or 73%, of these meetings. Ms. Riches became a director of the Company on November 18, 2002 and attended all of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees of the Board on which she served from that date through December 31, 2002.

Employment and Noncompetition Agreements

The Company has entered into employment agreements with the Executive Officers (collectively, the Employment Agreements). The Employment Agreement with Mr. LeBlanc has a term through July 1, 2004, with such Employment Agreement automatically extending thereafter for consecutive one-year terms unless otherwise terminated pursuant to the provisions thereof. The Employment Agreement with Mr. Schwarz had an original term through February 16, 1996 and, thereafter, automatically continues until otherwise terminated pursuant to the provisions thereof. The respective Employment Agreements with Messrs. Brout, Downey, Ell and Adzema continue until either party gives advance notice to the other terminating the employment relationship, which notice may be given without cause and for any or no reason.

Each Employment Agreement provides that the Executive Officer's base salary will be reviewed on an annual basis and may be increased or decreased, subject to the limitation that the base salary of Mr. LeBlanc may not be decreased below $410,000. The Employment Agreements also provide that the Executive Officers will be paid such other amounts as the Compensation Committee, in its discretion, determines to award.

The Employment Agreements with Messrs. LeBlanc and Brout also provide for certain severance benefits. If Mr. LeBlanc's employment is terminated either by the Company without cause or by Mr. LeBlanc for cause (each as defined in his Employment Agreement) during the original term or any extended term of his Employment Agreement, Mr. LeBlanc will be entitled to receive his base salary, as in effect on the date of termination, for the period ending on the later of July 1, 2004 or the first anniversary of the date of termination. Under such circumstances, Mr. LeBlanc also will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the bonus paid to him in the calendar year immediately preceding such termination of his employment with the Company. Upon the termination of Mr. LeBlanc's employment by reason of death or disability, his estate or he, as the case may be, will be entitled to receive payments equal to (i) his base salary, as in effect on the date of termination, through the period ending on the later of July 1, 2004 or the first anniversary of the date of termination, plus (ii) an amount equal to the bonus paid to him in the calendar year immediately preceding such termination, except that in the case of termination by reason of disability, the amount of such payments shall be offset by the proceeds of any disability plan awards provided by the Company. The Employment Agreement with Mr. LeBlanc provides that if his employment is terminated by the Company for cause or if he voluntarily terminates his employment other than for cause (each as defined in his Employment Agreement), no severance amount will be payable. If Mr. Brout's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, Mr. Brout will be entitled to receive an amount equal to his monthly base salary multiplied by the number of years, or portions thereof, that Mr. Brout was employed by the Company prior to such termination.

The Employment Agreements with Messrs. Schwarz, Downey, Ell and Adzema do not provide for any severance amounts to be payable upon the termination of their employment with the Company. These Executive Officers and Messrs. LeBlanc and Brout have severance agreements with the Company that entitle them to severance benefits in certain circumstances as described below.

Each of the Executive Officers also entered into a noncompetition agreement with the Company, or an employment agreement that includes substantially the same terms as these noncompetition agreements (collectively, the Noncompetition Agreements). Subject to certain limited exceptions, the Noncompetition Agreements prohibit all of the Executive Officers from engaging in any businesses prior to their termination of employment, other than those of the Company, without the prior written consent of the President of the Company. The Noncompetition Agreements also prohibit the Executive Officers for a two-year period following the termination of their employment with the Company, from hiring certain key employees of the Company or participating in any efforts to persuade such employees to leave the Company and, for a one-year period following the termination of their employment with the Company, from engaging in any manner, directly or indirectly, in any business which engages or attempts to engage in the acquisition, development, construction, operation, management or leasing of any of the Company's then existing communities or development or acquisition opportunities. Under the Noncompetition Agreements, such Executive Officers are prohibited from disclosing trade secrets and, for prescribed periods, other confidential information of the Company.

Severance Agreements

The Company entered into severance agreements (collectively, the Severance Agreements) with (i) Mr. LeBlanc on July 1, 1998, (ii) Mr. Schwarz on April 2, 1997, (iii) Mr. Ell on June 1, 2000 and (iv) each of Messrs. Brout, Downey and Adzema on December 17, 2001. The Severance Agreements provide for the payment of severance benefits equal to three times such Executive Officer's annual base salary and cash bonus in the event of the termination of such Executive Officer's employment under certain circumstances following a change in control of the Company or a combination transaction involving a consolidation or merger. The benefits payable under the terms of the Severance Agreements are subject to reduction by the amount of any severance benefits payable under applicable Employment Agreements. In the event that any payment of severance benefits to an Executive Officer, pursuant to the terms of his Severance Agreement or otherwise (the Severance Payments), would be subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (collectively, the Excise Tax), the Severance Agreements provide for an additional payment such that the Executive Officer, after deduction of any Excise Tax on the Severance Payments and any federal, state and local income tax, employment tax and Excise Tax on such additional payment, will receive an amount equal to the Severance Payments.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

Responsibilities of the Company's Compensation Committee. The Company's Executive Compensation Program is administered under the direction of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, which is composed of the Company's Independent Directors. The specific responsibilities of the Compensation Committee are to:

1. Administer the Company's Executive Compensation Program.
2. Review and approve compensation awarded to the Company's executive officers pursuant to the Executive Compensation Program.
3. Monitor the performance of the Company in comparison to performance by executive officers in conjunction with executive officer compensation.
4. Monitor compensation awarded to executive officers of the Company in comparison to compensation received by executive officers of the Company's Comparative Compensation Peer Group (as defined below).

Compensation determinations pursuant to the Executive Compensation Program are generally made at or around the end of the fiscal year. At this time, incentive cash bonuses are calculated pursuant to the Funds Available for Distribution (FAD) growth criteria which was contained in the respective Executive Compensation Program approved by the Compensation Committee prior to or shortly after the commencement of the fiscal year. Payment of a cash bonus is subject to audited confirmation of Company financial performance, which occurs immediately after the end of the fiscal year. Also at or around the end of the fiscal year, base salaries and criteria for short-term cash incentive compensation and long-term equity based incentive compensation under the 1994 Stock Plan are set for the following fiscal year.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee takes into account recommendations from management, as well as the factors enumerated herein for specific elements of compensation. The Compensation Committee periodically reviews comparative compensation data, which includes data on the Company's Comparative Compensation Peer Group, as well as data from other companies with attributes comparable to the Company.

The Philosophy of the Compensation Committee. The philosophy of the Compensation Committee as reflected in the specific compensation elements included in the 2002 Executive Compensation Program is to:

1. Attract, retain and reward experienced, highly motivated executive officers that are capable of effectively leading and continuing the growth of the Company.
2. Place emphasis on short-term and long-term incentive compensation, which is dependent upon both Company and individual performance.
3. Reward and encourage executive officer activity that results in enhanced value for stockholders.
4. Link both short-term and long-term incentive compensation as much as possible to the achievement of specific individual and Company goals.

Elements of Compensation. It is the belief of the Compensation Committee that the above philosophy can best be implemented through three separate components of executive compensation with each component designed to reward different performance goals, yet with all three components working together to satisfy the ultimate goal of enhancing stockholder value. The three elements of executive compensation are:

1. Salary, which compensates the executive for performing the basic job description through the performance of routine designated tasks.

2. Short-term incentive compensation in the form of a cash bonus, which rewards the executive for Company growth, and in some cases, outstanding performance of routine designated tasks during the fiscal year.

3. Long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options and/or stock grants, which provide long-term rewards to the executive in a manner directly related to the enhancement of stockholder value through an appreciated stock price.

In administering each element of compensation for 2002, the Compensation Committee considered the integration of that element not only with the other two elements of compensation, but also with additional benefits available to the executive such as the 1996 Non-Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan (which was suspended in July 2002), the Company's Employee Loan Program (under which new loans to executive officers were prohibited beginning in July 2002), Company provided insurance benefits and Company sponsored retirement savings plans.

Base Salary. Base salaries for executive officers are set based on the following factors:

1. Comparison to executive officer base salaries for the Comparative Compensation Peer Group to the extent such data is available.
2. Comparison to other executive officers within the Company.
3. Individual performance of the routine designated tasks assigned.
4. Overall experience of the executive officer.

Base salary increases for executive officers are considered annually by the Compensation Committee. The granting of salary increases is dependent upon:

1. The executive's performance in the following areas:
 - a. Accomplishing the routine designated tasks of the position.
 - b. Promoting Company values.
 - c. Development and training of subordinate Company employees.
 - d. Leadership abilities and team member abilities.
 - e. Satisfaction of the executive officer's respective internal or external customers.
2. Increased or revised job responsibilities.
3. Comparison to the Comparative Compensation Peer Group to the extent such data is available.
4. Comparison to other executive officers within the Company.
5. Overall economic performance of the Company relative to the Comparative Compensation Peer Group.

Based upon the above criteria, none of the executive officers were awarded an increase in their 2002 base salary (as set forth in the above Summary Compensation Table), except for Messrs. Downey and Adzema who were awarded increases in their base salaries in connection with their added responsibilities as Executive Vice President of Construction and Chief Financial Officer, respectively. The base salaries of Messrs. LeBlanc and Schwarz were increased during 2001 in connection with their respective promotions following the resignation of William F. Paulsen as the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Their 2002 base salaries were maintained at this increased level.

Cash Bonuses. The Company's 2002 Executive Compensation Program rewards Company executives with annual cash bonuses based upon favorable performance by both the Company and the individual executive. This program was formulated to foster team performance among the executive officers in accomplishing goals for growth in FAD per share of Common Stock (per share FAD) while at the same time aligning executive annual cash incentive goals with stockholder goals through the translation of per share FAD growth into an appreciated share price. For 2002, a majority of the potential cash bonus for each of Messrs. LeBlanc, Schwarz and Adzema, and a significant portion of the potential cash bonus for each of Messrs. Brout, Downey and Ell, was dependent upon growth in per share FAD over the previous fiscal year. A minority of the 2002 potential cash bonus for each of Messrs. LeBlanc, Schwarz and Adzema was dependent upon commendable performance of specially assigned tasks and outstanding performance of routine duties. A significant portion of Mr. Brout's potential cash bonus for 2002 was dependent upon (i) the attainment and commencement of certain development properties, and (ii) commendable performance in connection with certain property acquisitions and dispositions. A significant portion of Mr. Downey's potential cash bonus for 2002 was dependent upon the construction progress and completion of certain properties within specific budget and schedule constraints. A significant portion of Mr. Ell's potential cash bonus for 2002 was dependent upon (i) the attainment of certain stabilized property operating income goals compared to certain other multifamily REITs which the Compensation Committee considers to be in the Company's peer group, and (ii) the operating performance of newly constructed or acquired properties. The remainder of the potential cash bonus for 2002 for each of Messrs. Brout, Downey and Ell was dependent upon commendable performance of specially assigned tasks and outstanding performance of routine duties.

The 2002 Executive Compensation Program was approved by the Compensation Committee on February 5, 2002, thereby establishing the specific per share FAD growth criteria and requisite financial returns on the Company's communities upon which a portion of each Executive Officer's potential cash bonus was dependent. For fiscal year 2002, the threshold per share FAD growth criteria was not achieved. As a result, none of the Executive Officers received that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon the achievement of such per share FAD growth. Each of the Executive Officers voluntarily declined to receive that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon commendable performance of specially assigned tasks and outstanding performance of routine duties during 2002. The required goals with respect to the Company's development properties and property acquisitions and dispositions were achieved during 2002; therefore, Mr. Brout received that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon achievement of such goals. For 2002, the required construction goals were not achieved; therefore, Mr. Downey did not receive that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon achievement of such goals. The required goals with respect to operating income for stabilized properties (compared to certain other multifamily REITs which the Compensation Committee considers to be in the Company's peer group) and operating performance of newly constructed or acquired properties were not achieved during 2002; therefore, Mr. Ell did not receive that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon achievement of such goals.

Stock Options and Stock Grants. The Compensation Committee believes that awards of stock options or stock grants provide long-term incentive compensation to executive officers that is aligned most directly with the achievement of enhanced value for stockholders through an appreciating stock price. As such, the Compensation Committee believes that awards of stock options or stock grants should be made to executive officers in meaningful amounts on a regular basis, but not necessarily annually.

The number of stock options or stock grants awarded to an executive officer is based on the following criteria:

1. Overall responsibility of the executive officer.
2. Overall ability to contribute to an increase in FAD per share.

3. Level of base salary component of compensation.
4. Comparison to other executive officers in the Comparative Compensation Peer Group.
5. Comparison to other executive officers within the Company.

The Compensation Committee considers the awards of stock options or stock grants on a current basis only. The existing stockholdings of an individual executive are not taken into consideration when awarding stock options or stock grants. When granting awards, the Compensation Committee intends to utilize restricted stock, other vesting stock awards and/or stock option grants subject to a three to five year vesting period, other than in instances where stock is granted in lieu of cash compensation, in which case the Compensation Committee may award unrestricted stock which is not subject to vesting.

In 2002, the Company granted Messrs. LeBlanc, Schwarz, Brout, Downey, Ell and Adzema options to purchase 240,000, 120,000, 80,000, 80,000, 80,000 and 80,000 shares of Common Stock, respectively, which options vest over a five-year period. In 2002, each of these Executive Officers also received a stock award agreement issued under the 1994 Stock Plan, pursuant to which such Executive Officers have the opportunity to earn a number of shares of Common Stock over a five-year period based upon their continuing employment with the Company. The Company awarded Messrs. LeBlanc, Schwarz, Brout, Downey, Ell and Adzema the right to receive up to 55,000, 27,500, 16,000, 16,000, 16,000 and 16,000 shares of Common Stock, respectively. Mr. Brout, the only Executive Officer to receive a cash bonus in 2002, received such bonus solely in cash, as the Company's policy to issue stock in lieu of that portion of cash bonus in excess of 50% of base salary was waived.

Definition of Funds Available for Distribution (FAD). As noted above, certain elements of executive compensation are based on achieving specific goals in per share FAD growth. FAD is defined as Funds From Operations (FFO) less capital expenditures funded by operations (recurring capital expenditures). The Company computes FFO in accordance with standards established by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT). FFO, as defined by NAREIT, represents net income (loss), excluding gains or losses from sales of property and extraordinary items, plus depreciation of real estate assets, and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The Company's methodology for calculating FFO and FAD may differ from the methodology for calculating FFO and FAD utilized by other real estate companies and, accordingly, may not be comparable to other real estate companies. FFO and FAD do not represent amounts available for management's discretionary use because of needed capital expenditures or expansion, debt service obligations, property acquisitions, development, dividends and distributions or other commitments and uncertainties. FFO and FAD should not be considered as alternatives to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP) as an indication of the Company's financial performance or to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP) as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor are they indicative of funds available to fund the Company's cash needs, including its ability to pay dividends or make distributions. The Company believes FFO and FAD are helpful to investors as a measure of its performance because, along with cash flows from operating, financing and investing activities, they provide investors with an understanding of the ability of the Company to incur and service debt and make capital expenditures.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. LeBlanc's total compensation for fiscal year 2002 consisted of a base salary and a potential cash bonus, as well as the stock options and stock grants discussed above. The Compensation Committee believes that Mr. LeBlanc's 2002 base salary, potential maximum cash bonus based on per share FAD growth of the Company and grants of stock options and common stock, were each respectively and when combined, within reasonable and competitive practices in comparison to the Comparative Compensation Peer Group. As the threshold per share FAD growth criteria was not achieved during 2002, Mr. LeBlanc did not receive that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon the achievement of such per share FAD growth. In addition, Mr. LeBlanc voluntarily declined to receive that portion of his potential cash bonus dependent upon commendable performance of specially assigned tasks and outstanding performance of routine duties during 2002.

Comparative Compensation Peer Group. The Compensation Committee compares both the individual components and the total compensation of executive officers to compensation practices in the comparative market by periodically reviewing data on the Comparative Compensation Peer Group provided by management or outside consultants. The Comparative Compensation Peer Group is primarily a sampling of REITs with similar characteristics to the Company, as well as some similarly sized companies from other industries. Utilization of this comparative data provides assurance to both executive officers and the Company's stockholders that executive officers are being compensated adequately yet reasonably in the context of the overall market. The Compensation Committee believes that both base salaries and short-term cash incentive compensation for executive officers in 2002 were within reasonable and competitive practices in comparison to the Comparative Compensation Peer Group.

A portion of the REITs that comprise the Comparative Compensation Peer Group as defined above are also included in the NAREIT Index that is the basis for the Stock Performance Graph contained elsewhere in this Proxy Statement; however, not all of those REITs are included in the Comparative Compensation Peer Group. The Compensation Committee believes that the equity REITs that comprise the Comparative Compensation Peer Group are the most direct comparisons for the Company and its Executive Compensation Program.

Deduction Limit of $1 Million Pursuant to Section 162(m). The SEC requires that this report comment upon the Company's policy with respect to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code which limits the deductibility on the Company's tax return of compensation over $1 million to certain executive officers of the Company unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan which is performance related, non-discretionary and has been approved by the Company's stockholders. The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) is to make every reasonable effort to insure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted, while simultaneously providing Company executives with appropriate awards for their performance. The Company did not pay any compensation during 2002 that would be subject to Section 162(m).

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Ms. Riches and Messrs. Allwin, Fishkind, Hance and Schwab. None of these individuals has served as an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Mr. Hance is Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of Bank of America, a lending institution that has provided financing and related services to the Company on customary terms and conditions. Bank of America has provided the Company with credit enhancements on certain of the Company's apartment communities financed with tax-exempt bonds and is a member of a group of banks that provides the Company's $225 million unsecured credit facility. Bank of America's commitment amount in connection with such credit facility is $40 million. During 2002, Bank of America invested approximately $600,000 of its $8.8 million commitment amount in certain historic tax credit ventures with the Company. Bank of America is also the counter-party to a fixed-to-floating interest rate swap with a notional amount of $50 million entered into by the Company in 2002.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who are beneficial owners of more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company by the executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners, all Section 16(a) filing requirements were satisfied during 2002, except that Mr. Brout inadvertently filed two Forms 4 late, each with respect to one transaction, and each of the Executive Officers inadvertently reported one transaction late.

PRINCIPAL AND MANAGEMENT STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth the beneficial ownership of Common Stock for (i) the directors and the Executive Officers, (ii) the directors (including Independent Directors) and Executive Officers as a group, and (iii) each other person who is a stockholder of the Company holding more than a 5% beneficial interest in the Company. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes, all of such interests are owned directly, and the indicated person or entity has sole voting and investment power. The number of shares listed represents the number of shares of Common Stock that the person holds plus the number of shares for which Common Units held by the person are redeemable (if the Operating Partnership elects to cause the Company to issue Common Stock rather than pay cash upon such redemption). The extent to which the persons hold shares of Common Stock as opposed to Common Units is set forth in the footnotes.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Certain Business Relationships and Transactions with Management

Relationships with Bank of America. As discussed above, Mr. Hance is Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of Bank of America, a lending institution that has provided financing and related services to the Company on customary terms and conditions. Bank of America has provided the Company with credit enhancements on certain of the Company's apartment communities financed with tax-exempt bonds and is a member of a group of banks that provides the Company's $225 million unsecured credit facility. Bank of America's commitment amount in connection with such credit facility is $40 million. During 2002, Bank of America invested approximately $600,000 of its $8.8 million commitment in certain historic tax credit ventures with the Company. Bank of America is also the counter-party to a fixed-to-floating interest rate swap with a notional amount of $50 million entered into by the Company in 2002.

Property Management Fees. Summit Management Company, a subsidiary of the Company through which the Company performs all of its management and leasing activities (the Management Company), provides onsite and asset management services to apartment communities held by partnerships in which affiliates of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen are general partners. During 2002, the Management Company received management fees of $296,487 in the aggregate for the performance of such services. The fees charged by the Management Company to these partnerships were no less than the fees charged to other third-party recipients of such services.

Airplane Charter Fees. From time to time, the Company charters an airplane from SMT Aviation, which is 100% owned by Mr. Paulsen. During 2002, the Company paid fees of approximately $5,410 to SMT Aviation.

Employment Arrangements with Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen. The Company entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. McGuire on August 24, 2001 and with Mr. Paulsen on April 3, 2001, each of which expires on December 31, 2011. Each of the employment agreements provides that the annual base salary of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen, effective as of January 1, 2002 and for the balance of the term of such agreement, will be $200,000 per year unless Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen, respectively, ceases to be an employee member of the Board of Directors of the Company, in which case such annual base salary shall be reduced to $175,000. Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen also are entitled to participate in the Company's employee stock option plans and employee benefit plans. During 2002, each of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen were paid a base salary of $200,000. The Company granted each of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen options to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock, at an exercise price of $22.34, which options vested on May 21, 2002, the date of grant, and expire on May 21, 2012.

The employment agreements with Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen also provide for certain severance benefits. If the employment of Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen, respectively, is terminated by the Company or such employee for any or no reason prior to the expiration of the term of his agreement, Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen will be entitled to receive his base salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement. In addition, all stock options and restricted stock held by Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen, as the case may be, shall become fully vested upon such termination and, subject to the terms of the 1994 Stock Plan, all such stock options shall remain outstanding for the remainder of their original terms. Under such circumstances, any loan from the Company to Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen, as the case may be, pursuant to the Company's Employee Loan Program shall continue in place for the remainder of its term.

In addition, each of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen has entered into a noncompetition agreement with the Company. Each noncompetition agreement contains substantially the same terms as the noncompetition agreements of the Executive Officers described above under the heading Compensation of Directors and Executive Officers Employment and Noncompetition Agreements, except that each of Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen is required to devote only a portion of his respective business time to the Company.

Loans to Officers and Employees

The Board of Directors of the Company, including the Compensation Committee thereof, believes that ownership of the Company's Common Stock by executive officers and certain other qualified employees of the Company and its subsidiaries aligns the interests of such officers and employees with the interests of the stockholders of the Company. To further such goal of aligning the interests of such officers and employees with the interests of the stockholders of the Company, the Board of Directors on September 8, 1997 approved and the Company instituted a loan program. The Board of Directors has amended the terms of the loan program from time to time since its inception. Pursuant to the loan program, the Company has loaned amounts to or on behalf of certain of the Company's executive officers and key employees (hereinafter, a Loan) for one or more of the following purposes: (i) to finance the purchase of Common Stock on the open market at then-current market prices; (ii) to finance an employee's payment of the exercise price of one or more stock options to purchase shares of Common Stock granted to such employee under the 1994 Stock Plan; or (iii) to finance the annual tax liability or other expenses of an executive officer related to the vesting of shares of Common Stock which constitute a portion of a restricted stock award granted to such executive officer under the 1994 Stock Plan. As a result of recent legislation, the Company is no longer permitted to make loans to its executive officers and, therefore, new issuances to executive officers under the loan program have been terminated. Loans in existence on July 30, 2002 are grandfathered so long as there is no material modification to any term of those Loans, including any renewal.

Pursuant to the loan program, at no time could the maximum aggregate outstanding balance of Loans to an executive officer exceed $500,000 (unless such limit was otherwise waived by the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee thereof), and at no time could the maximum aggregate outstanding balance of Loans to a qualified employee exceed $200,000 (unless similarly waived). The Board of Directors has chosen to increase such limit for certain individuals. Prior to the termination of the program for executive officers, the limits were $500,000 for Mr. McGuire, $1,000,000 for Mr. Paulsen, $5,650,000 for Mr. LeBlanc, $3,050,000 for Mr. Schwarz, $1,650,000 for Messrs. Brout, Downey and Ell, and $1,150,000 for Mr. Adzema. Prior to such termination, Loans had been extended to Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen and each of the Company's executive officers for the purpose of financing the purchase of Common Stock or the payment of the annual tax liability related to the vesting of shares of Common Stock which constitute a portion of a restricted stock award.

Pursuant to the loan program, the relevant executive officer or employee has executed a Promissory Note and Security Agreement (a Note) related to each Loan made by the Company. Each Note bears interest at a rate established on the date of the Note. In all cases, the interest rate is fixed and the Note becomes due and payable in full no later than the tenth anniversary of the Note (the Maturity Date). The shares of Common Stock, which are the subject of a Loan, serve as collateral (the Collateral Stock) for the Note and will not be released to the relevant executive officer or employee until such time as the Note has been paid in full. In the past, shares of the Collateral Stock were released, from time to time, by the Company to the relevant executive officer or employee to the extent that the fair market value of the remaining shares exceeded the outstanding principal balance of the Loan by a certain percentage determined by the Board of Directors.

Until the Maturity Date, the executive officer or employee to whom a Loan has been extended will only be required to repay such Loan through the application to the outstanding Loan balance of all dividends and distributions related to the Collateral Stock, first to interest, and the remainder, if any, to outstanding principal. All of the outstanding Loans extended by the Company are full recourse against the applicable executive officer or employee. If the market price of the Company's Common Stock falls materially below the price at which the shares of stock were purchased, the proceeds of the sale may not be sufficient to repay the Loan. However, since the Loans are full recourse, the Company has the right to collect any additional amount owed directly from the executive officer or employee to the extent such executive officer or employee is able to pay such amount.

Generally, the outstanding principal balance of a Loan becomes due and payable, among other circumstances, within 120 days after termination of the employment with the Company of the executive officer or employee to whom such Loan has been extended. However, as discussed above, the employment agreements with Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen provide that any Loan from the Company to Mr. McGuire or Mr. Paulsen, as the case may be, shall continue in place for the remainder of its term in the event of any such termination. In addition, Loans from the Company to each of Mr. LeBlanc and Mr. Schwarz in the aggregate original principal amounts of $1,961,065 and $927,310, respectively, shall continue in place for their terms if such executive officer's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or following a change in control of the Company. As of December 31, 2002, the aggregate outstanding principal balance of such Loans was $1,690,655 for Mr. LeBlanc, with respect to which 68,663 shares of Common Stock serve as collateral, and $817,026 for Mr. Schwarz, with respect to which 32,914 shares of Common Stock serve as collateral.

From the inception of the loan program through December 31, 2002, the Company extended Loans totaling approximately $25,319,933 to its executive officers and employees, including Loans with the aggregate original principal amounts of $499,814 to Mr. McGuire, $999,995 to Mr. Paulsen, $5,611,000 to Mr. LeBlanc, $2,976,840 to Mr. Schwarz, $1,664,855 to Mr. Brout, $1,664,849 to Mr. Downey, $1,664,586 to Mr. Ell, and $1,166,999 to Mr. Adzema. At no time did the aggregate outstanding balances of these Loans exceed the individual loan maximums set forth above.

Loans to Messrs. McGuire and Paulsen in the original principal amounts of $499,814 and $999,995, respectively, bear interest at 6.21% per year (made in January 2000).
